Enemy Political Proposal Discussed By Truce Teams

Munsan, Korea, Sunday, Feb. 10. —(AP)— Communist truce negotiators at Panmunjom today rejected an Allied proposal that any post-armistice conference be limited to strictly Korean problems.

By William Jorden

Munsan, Korea, Sunday, Feb. 10.—(AP)—Top Allied and Communist truce negotiators met in Panmunjom today to discuss a post-armistice political conference.

The plenary session began at 10 a. m. (8 p. m. EST, Saturday). It marked the beginning of the eighth month of truce discussions.

Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief of the United Nations truce team, presented the Allied political conference counter - proposal Saturday during a 10-minute session. North Korean General Nam Il agreed to study the proposal overnight.

The Allied plan differed from Wednesday's three - point Communist proposal in one major respect — a limitation of the political conference to problems directly concerning Korea. The Reds proposed settlement of other far eastern problems "related to the Korean question," presumably meaning Formosa and Indo-China.

The Allies agreed generally with the Communist suggestions for a discussion of withdrawing foreign troops from Korea and a peaceful settlement of the Korean question.

Admiral Joy said the third point, "for reasons which we believe will be obvious," had been put forward by the Allies to cover "other Korean questions related to peace."

The Allied proposal differed also in that it suggested either a high-level conference "or other political means."

Communist propaganda broadcasts repeatedly have assailed U. S. policy toward Formosa. President Truman, in sending American troops to the defense of the Republic of Korea, also assigned the U. S. seventh fleet to Formosan waters to "neutralize" that Chinese Nationalist island.

The Peiping radio has called the presence of the fleet off Formosa a "warlike act."

The Allied proposal, for the first time in the truce talks, also included the question of unification of Korea "under an independent, democratic government" — one of the United Nations' war aims announced early in the conflict.

While the text of the Allied proposal was being released at Munsan, the Republic of Korea government in Pusan announced that it "views with great concern the continuing concessions the United Nations delegates currently are making at the Panmunjom cease-fire talks."

The South Korean official statement said, "The present position of the United Nations delegates at the conference appears to be one of a defeated command."

It protested strongly joint Allied-Communist control of the Han river mouth as "a grave threat to the security of Seoul (old Republic capitol now rebuilding) and the whole of South Korea."

FRANCE BALKING ON REICH ARMY

French Govt. Wants Assurance Germany Won't Provoke War

Paris, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Before giving many more concessions to West Germany, France is preparing to seek American and British guarantees that a rearmed German nation will not provoke a war with Russia.

The new French government under Premier Edgar Faure has such strong convictions on this subject, it was learned today, that it will risk prolonged debate about it with its allies.

This position is an old one in the inner councils, but only now is it being brought out by the French as a major reason for their insistence on keeping firm control over Germany's actions.

A year ago the French appeared afraid a rearmed Germany might turn once more against her old enemy, France. That fear persists among the people, as anyone touring the country quickly learns. But in official quarters, this possibility now is considered secondary.

The French cabinet spokesmen, informed administration sources said today, will make the government's position very clear Monday when debate starts on approval of the principal of the European army. Into this army six nations will bind all their continental forces — Germany, France, Italy, Holland, Belgium and Luxembourg.

Yesterday by a realtively narrow vote, the West German Republic approved — in principle — entry into the European army. This army scheme was devised by the French as a means of preventing creation of an independent German army free to be used by the West German government in its own diplomatic maneuvers.

WEST AGREES TO END GUN DISPUTE

Allies To Wait Until Better Rifle Is Made Before Deciding

Lisbon, Portugal, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Gen. Omar Bradley said today the Western Powers have agreed to stop wrangling over what rifle should be standard in the NATO armies "until a better gun comes along."

Until then, he said, it was agreed the forces of the member nations will use the rifles they have now in good stock.

Chairman of the U. S. joint chiefs of staff, Bradley arrived here with American, British, French, Canadian and Belgian officers to get ready for the opening Monday of a meeting of military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. The military committee is composed of the chiefs of staff of 11 Atlantic Allies and a civilian representative from a 12th, Iceland, which has no army.

Bradley's statement on the rifle standardization issue indicated either the Allied military chiefs had agreed to shelve their argument for that President Truman and Prime Minister Churchill had decided to end the squabbling when they met in Washington recently.

The announcement of agreement brought a nod of assent from Canada's chief of staff, Lt. Gen. Charles Foulkes, who is chairman of the NATO military committee. It also tied in with authoritative reports in Ottawa that Canada's army intends to go on using the old British .30 caliber rifle which brigades in Korea and Germany took with them.

Nearly all military men would favor a standard rifle for all the

Absentee Ballots Being Cast Here

R. Dean Farr, Ouachita parish clerk of court, reported yesterday that 41 absentee ballots had been cast for candidates in the second Democratic primary which will be held February 19.

Absentee voting, according to Farr, began at 8 p. m. yesterday and will continue until 5 p. m. on February 16. Thirty - seven ballots were cast yesterday morning and five were cast yesterday afternoon.

Farr also reported that locally printed ballots for the fourth district judgeship had arrived in time to be used by absentee voters. "They have been voting them all day," Farr said.

Well Known Local Attorney Qualifies For Local Judgeship

Hillyer S. Parker, who just qualified as candidate for judge in the Fourth Judicial district of Louisiana, in the primary election February 19, is well known in both Ouachita and Morehouse parishes as he served as assistant district attorney of the district for two years. He is now assistant city attorney for the city of Monroe.

He is a graduate of the Louisiana State University and of Tulane law school and has practiced law in Monroe since 1933, with the exception of three years in armed services.

He was elected to the state legislature in 1940 and resigned in 1942 to enter the army.

He states that he feels qualified for successor to Judge Gladney in the unexpired term of office, as he has already served as assistant district attorney and is familiar with the people and problems of both parishes. He says that as an officer of the law he will be enabled to serve the citizens of both parishes.

Italy Rejects Further Red Obligations

Rome, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Italy told Russia tonight the Italians are disavowing any further obligations in their 1947 peace treaty with the U. S. S. R. since Russia has vetoed five times this country's admission into the United Nations.

Italy's notification was handed to Mikhail Kostylev, Russiam ambassador in Rome, by Paola Emilion Taviani, Italian under secretary of foreign affairs.

The note said:

"The minister of foreign affairs, on behalf of the (Italian) Republican government, has the honor to make the following communication to the Soviet embassy in Rome, asking that it be sent to the Soviet government:

Petit Jury Released In Remaining Cases

District Attorney Fred Fudickar, Jr., announced Saturday that the petit jury, which was summoned for the week beginning February 11, will not have to serve.

The district attorney explained that the cases which were to have been heard had been settled with the exception to two cases in which the witness had not been located.

Fudickar stated that the petit jurors summoned have been released from the duty of appearing for the above reasons.

Marine Pilots Blast Ten Supply Dumps, Leave 27 Buildings In Smoking Ruins; Three Communist Boats Also Destroyed

By Stan Carter

Seoul, Korea, Sunday, Feb. 10.—(AP)—U. S. Marine "Wolf Raider" pilots smashed a big Communist supply center in northeast Korea Saturday. Ten supply dumps and 27 buildings were left in smoking ruins.

The raid by eight carrier-based leatherneck fighters in two flights was made from Allied task force 77, replenishing in the sea of Japan waters for more assaults on Red supply arteries.

Other marine pilots patrolling the coastal area destroyed three Communist boats, an anti - aircraft gun and blew up an ammunition dump.

The big supply base was named by the navy communique as the Village of Soa, not shown on Korea maps available here.

Okinawa - based B-29 superforts blasted the vital railway bridge at Choju in northwest Korea with 100 tons of 500 - pound bombs. The bombers reported light anti - aircraft fire.

Seoul, Korea, Sunday Feb. 10.—(AP)—American Sabre jets damaged three Communist MIG - 15s and claimed another probably destroyed Saturday in two air battles over Northwest Korea.

The Sabres met 175 enemy jets over MIG Alley during the afternoon. That many MIGs have been seen in the air at one time only twice before since the Korean war started.

Only 80 of the MIGs chose to fight. Twenty six Sabres tore into one group of about 30 MIGs, claiming one probably destroyed and another damaged. Another group of 26 Sabres engaged 50 MIGs in a 30-minute fight, dam-

Spaht Claims Judge Kennon For Bureaucratic Theory, Red Tape

By The Associated Press

Carlos Spaht, administration candidate for governor of Louisiana, says voters in the Feb. 19 Democratic runoff primary between him and Judge Robert F. Kennon must choose between sound organization and bureaucratic theory and red tape.

"We of the Spaht - McKeithen ticket offer a progressive program to be carried out by your state government while our opponents offer the red tape and un-American bureaucracy," Spaht told a gathering at Amite yesterday (Saturday).

He quoted Judge Kennon as saying at Natchitoches recently that he was under no obligation to present state employees since they were either holdovers from the Sam Jones administration or appointees of Gov. Earl K. Long.

"I understand," Spaht said, "he is no longer saying that. He says state employees do not have to worry about their jobs. He says he is for civil service."

Telling of wholesale firings of state employes by the Jones administration in 1940, Spaht said, "Kennon has seven defeated candidates — and their supporters— to take care of, whereas Jones had only one."

Kennon told another gathering at Amite that a Spaht sound truck had been following close on his heels during his stumping tour of the state and that it probably would soon appear in Amite.

Just than a Spaht sound truck appeared.

"Here's the little red wagon now," Kennon shouted with a wave and a grin.

"The state administration has picked its position for its candidate, and they're going to be behind me from here on out.

"We're going to come out of New Orleans ahead (in the Feb. 19 voting); we're going to come out ahead in the sixth (congressional) district, and we're going to come out ahead in north Louisiana.

"This Kennon ticket is the choice of the independent people of the state, and we're going to

Officers Battle Gangsters' Political Power In Chicago

Chicago, Feb. 9. —(AP)— An open declaration of war against gangster political power, touched off by the shotgun assassination of a ward leader, drove known hoodlums into hiding today.

Police squads, headed by the city's toughest crime fighters, combed Chicago under orders to "grab every known hoodlum on sight." They seized 19 yesterday and last night, but reported hoodlums were avoiding their usual haunts today.

The slaying Wednesday night of Charles Gross, 56, acting Republican committeeman of the west side 31st ward, aroused a storm of civic and political outrage that extended to the capitol in Springfield.

Gov. Adlai E. Stevenson, a Democrat, called upon political leaders of both parties to meet with him and discuss ways of destroying "hoodlum political power" in Chicago.

Republican leaders already have ordered the ousting of 300 public payrollers by stripping patronage from committeemen in eight west side wards. The committeemen, who are elected, also will be barred from party councils except those opened by law.

William N. Erickson, president of the Cook county (Chicago) board and a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor, called on civic organizations to "take the lead in a concerted action to which we pledge full support to rid our city, county and state of mobsters and hoodlums."

Plans were made for an unprecedented meeting of 126 civic organizations to unite in an all-out campaign against gangland's invasion of politics. The meeting was called for Tuesday by officials of the Chicago Association of Commerce and the Chicago crime commission.

Although rewards of $26,000 have been offered for information leading to the killers, Police Comm. Timothy J. O'Connor reported "no progress" in the investigation so far.

Gross, who was campaigning for election as ward committeeman,

West Asked To Agree On Defense Plan

Washington, Feb. 9. —(AP)— The United States has warned Allied leaders in Europe they should agree quickly on plans for a European defense force, including German troops, if Adequate, new foreign aid funds are to be expected from congress.

Officials said the need for urgent action had been stressed especially to French Foreign Minister Robert Schuman and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer. They are leading figures in a bitter wrangle which threatens to delay seriously if not wreck the whole defense project.

Secretary of State Acheson is due to sound the warning anew when he goes to Europe next week for Big Three talks in London and the meeting of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO) council at Lisbon, Portugal. He is due to leave here Tuesday night.

Acheson and other administration authorities are worried over the critical attitude they expect to encounter when they go to the U. S. capitol next month to ask new billions to help the European Allies rearm.

They are reported to be convinced that unless they can show real achievements in greater western European unity and in solving the problem of getting

Boosts Aluminum Amount For Cars

Washington, Feb. 9. —(AP)— The government today gave the automobile industry an extra million pounds of aluminum in another move to boost production and ease spreading unemployment in auto manufacturing areas.

Manly Fleischmann, defense production administrator, said he hoped the increase for the April-June period would enable the industry to reach the quota of 930,000 automobiles and trucks authorized for the second quarter of this year.

However, copper for only 800,000 units and steel for 900,000 hve been allocated—and no more is in sight, Fleischmann said. He said he hoped the industry could figure out some way to use substitutes so as to reach its quota anyway.

The extra aluminum was released from reserves held back to cover emergencies. Previously the industry had been allocated 59,400,000 pounds for the second quarter.

Earlier in the week Defense Mobilizer Charles E. Wilson issued an order which will place some defense contracts with manufactorers in areas where work is needed—not necessarily to low bidders as in the past.

RAPS NAVY FOR CONTRACT DEAL

House Subcommittee Claims It Saved Taxpayers $462,000

Washington, Feb. 9. —(AP)— A house "watchdog" subcommittee claimed today that it had saved the government and the taxpayers $462,000 by intervening when, it said, the navy planned to award a contract unfairly.

The armed services subcommittee on procurement, headed by Representative Hebert (D.-La.), issued a "rebuke" to the navy for the way it proposed to award a contract for 288 water distillation units costing over $2,300,000.

The subcommittee said the Cleaver-Brooks Manufacturing Co., of Milwaukee, Wis., eventually won the contract from two competitors after cutting its price by more than $462,000, to move from highest to lowest bidder.

This happened after the subcommittee became involved. Before then, the report said, the "navy department created its own emergency to justify" giving the order to Cleaver - Brooks even though it was then high bidder.

Hebert said the two original lower bidders had "the dice loaded against them." They are the Refinite Manufacturing Co. of Omaha, Neb., and the Mechanical Equipment Co. (M. E. Co.) of New Orleans, La.

Hebert said the subcommittee became interested upon the complaint of one of them.

This is the second time in a week that this group has intervened in procurement awards, and Hebert told this reporter "we're going to keep watch on these things." He added: "Whenever we get a complaint, we're going

Man Believed Drowned Near L. Providence

Lake Providence, Jan. 9.—(Special)—Dragging operations for the body of Joe Janes, about 65, of Terry, La., who is believed to have drowned about five miles northwest of here at approximately 4:15 p. m., were halted tonight because of darkness.

Lake Providence firemen began dragging the lake at about 5 p. m. today after an unidentified Negro had reported that Janes, a commercial fisherman, had fallen out of his boat. The Negro said that he had seen the man fishing and when he looked back a few moments later the man was gone and the boat was overturned.

Joe Sandsone, deputy at the Lakeside Courts who knew Janes, identified the boat and equipment as belonging to Janes.

Two small Negro boys were the only witnesses to the accident, according to Sandsone. The little boys reported that they had seen Janes stand up in the boat and then fall out. The accident occurred approximately in the center of the lake.

Dragging will begin again tomorrow at daylight, W. L. Hughes, chief of the Lake Providence fire department said, and proceedings will be directed by Chief H. L. Griffen, of the Monroe fire department which sent an emergency truck to the scene late today.

Janes' burial policy is with the Catron-Gay Funeral Home, and a representative of the funeral home said that his age was approximately 65. The representative said also that he had two brothers, Frank and Johnny Janes, of Terry.

Mourning For Monarch Will Last Until May 31

By Paul Underwood

London, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Court mourning for King George VI is to last until next May 31 by his daughter's royal command. The period is shorter than had been generally expected.

An official announcement tonight said Queen Elizabeth II "commands that the court shall wear mourning until Saturday, 31st May, next, for his late most gracious majesty, King George VI of blessed memory."

The traditional period of mourning, in which social functions are curtained and court members are somberly clad, has been a year or so. It had been expected, however, that Elizabeth would cut the period to perhaps nine months.

This ancient British capital was sadly preparing for its last expression of affection and loyalty for the king.

The streets through which the king so often rode in stately pomp to the happy cheers of the people, will echo Monday only the muffled tread of a sorrowing procession carrying his body from a railway station to ancient Westminister Hall.

There the dead monarch, surrounded by the gorgeous trappings and ceremonies of empire, will lie in state for three days to grant a last audience to his people.

Hundreds of thousands of them expect to file reverently past the great candle - lit bier centered un-

Truman's Dig At Spain Is Protested

By Edward E. Bomar

Washington, Feb. 9.—(AP)—President Truman's offhand dig at the Franco regime turned into an international incident today as it was disclosed that the Spanish ambassador has lodged a memo of displeasure with the state department.

Whether the tiff would imperil plans to set up American air and naval bases on Spanish soil to help defend western Europe was not yet clear.

Mr. Truman remarked at his news conference Thursday that he had never been very fond of the Franco government. The state department disclosed today that it had received a note last night from Spanish Ambassador Jose Felix De Lequerica.

The contents of the note were kept secret. American and Spanish officials said that it was something less than a formal diplomatic protest, and the state department said no reply was called for.

But all indications were that Spanish pride was smarting, and that the Franco government wanted to get its feelings on the record.

The incident occurs at a time when the United States is preparing to send a new mission to Spain to negotiate on the bases question.

Apparently worried, retiring U. S. Ambassador Stanton Griffis said after a conference yesterday with Mr. Truman that he was assured the president recognizes the need for a military agreement regardless of his feelings toward the Franco government.

Mr. Truman had made his comment when asked about a statement attributed to Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower—and later denied—that Spain should not be admitted to the North Atlantic Treaty Alliance. The president replied that he had not seen the reported statement, and then added his off-the-cuff comment.

American relations with Franco have long been a touchy issue at home and abroad. This was evidenced by the 1950 action of congress in earmarking $62,500,000 loan funds for Spain over administration objections. And the chill British and French reaction to the U. S. decision to seek a military deal directly with Franco. Griffis helped lay the groundwork for the negotiations before resigning to return to private life.

The envoy, in his unusual statement, said Mr. Truman's comment was "largely based on the intolerable delays of the Spanish government in carrying out effectively its promises that there should be freedom of religion and of its expression in Spain."

2 GET LETTERS FROM BOB HOPE

Recipients Are Mrs. A. C. Warlick, Jr., and Ray Sherrard

Two local citizens received letters from Bob Hope recently thanking them for their active participation in the contest connected with his latest picture entitled "My Favorite Spy."

The two citizens entering the contest were Mrs. A. C. Warlick, Jr., 615 Sixth street, and Ray Sherrard, 112 Austin, West Monroe.

The letter read as follows:

"I want to take this opportunity to thank you for the kind letter you sent in connection with the recent "My Favorite Spy" world premiere contest.

"Although a contestant in Bellaire, O., was named the national winner, I want you to know that, in my book, you're a winner too. So please accept an invitation from my good friend, Miss Pauline Hendrixson, manager of the Tem Theatre in Monroe, and from yours truly, to see "My Favorite Spy" during the local engagement beginning February 8, as our guest.

"All my best to you and yours in '52, and thanks for the memory."

"My Favorite Spy" began Friday for a seven day run.

Set up your cupboard for convenience. The things you use most frequently should be kept at the front of your shelves.

Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., Feb. 6. — Pvt. Sherman Gunter, husband of Mrs. Florence Gunter of El Dorado, Arkansas, has started basic training with Co. A, 1st Ordnance Training Battalion, Ordnance Replacement Training Center.

Upon completion of his eight weeks' basic training Pvt. Gunter expects to be assigned to one of the many Ordnance schools in which he will receive specialized training.

The current training consists of fundamental instruction in infantry subjects and applying classroom theory in the field.

Pvt. Gunter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Gunter of Route 4, Lillie, Louisiana. Prior to his Army induction, Pvt. Gunter was employed by the Greyhound Drilling Company.

Aboard the heavy cruiser USS St. Paul when she returned to action in Korean waters was Alexander H. Wheatly, fire controlman, third class, USN, son of Mrs. C. C. Wheatly of Ruston, La.

Operating as a unit of the United Nations Naval forces on the East Coast of Korea, the St. Paul has bombarded key rail positions and other Communist installations around Chongjin, Wonsan, and Hungnam.

Before returning to the U. S. for major overhaul last fall, the St. Paul participated in the redeployment of UN troops from Hungnam.

Negroes Escape Injuries Here

Two Negroes were slightly injured in an automobile accident yesterday after the car in which they were riding crashed into the rear of another automobile at the corner of Lindberg street and the Jonesboro road in West Monroe at 12:45 p. m.

The Negroes—Ezekiel Sheppard, 102 Crawford street, West Monroe, and Rosie Lee Robinson, Siegel Addition, West Monroe — were taken to the Charity hospital by a Mulhearn Funeral Home ambulance. They were treated for slight cuts and abrasions and released from the hospital.

The accident occurred, investigating officers said, when a 1934 Ford, driven by Sheppard, crashed into the back of a 1947 Plymouth driven by Mrs. Dorothy C. Ross, 38, 110 Lindberg Street, West Monroe, after she had stopped her car at the intersection of the streets. The rear of the Ross car and the front of the Sheppard car were damaged.

West Monroe police, who investigated the accident, said that the collision spun the Ross car completely around and the Sheppard car was in the yard across the street. Sheppard was thrown into a ditch when the cars struck but was not hurt seriously.

Mrs. Ross, in making a report of the accident, stated that the Negro car was evidently speeding and apparently had bad brakes. Sheppard was charged in the Monroe police station with reckless driving and causing a wreck.

TO SPEAK HERE

Mrs. Ada Holding Miller, president of the National Federation of Music Clubs will be guest speaker here March 14 at the Louisiana Federation's annual convention.

MUSIC OFFICIAL TO APPEAR HERE

President Of National Federation Will Be Guest At Convention

Mrs. Ada Holding Miller, president of the National Federation of Music Clubs, will arrive in Monroe on March 14 to be among the honored guests at the Louisiana Federation's annual convention, which is to be held in Monroe on March 14-15.

Mrs. Miller, of Providence, R. I., was elected to head the National Federation, whose members number over one-half million, at its national biennial convention in Salt Lake City last spring. The dramatic highlight of Mrs. Miller's career was her four years as war service chairman of the federation, during which she was responsible for assembling and shipping the major portion of the two and a half million articles of musical equipment which the Federation sent to the armed services in this country and abroad during World War II. In the interests of this program Mrs. Miller traveled from coast to coast and acquired a wide acquaintance among the officers and enlisted personnel of the army, navy and air corps, since the federation distributed impartially to all these branches of the service.

She first became active in the National Federation of Music Clubs when in 1935 she was elected president of the Monday Morning Musical Club of her home city, Providence. From this it was only a brief step to the presidency of the Rhode Island Federation of Music Clubs, to which she was elected in 1938. In the years 1940 and 1941 she served as ways and means chairman of the National Federation and later was named finance chairman. She served as national program chairman for the biennial convention of the National Federation held in Detroit in 1947.

Mrs. Miller is a native of Maine and her brother, the late Frank Holding, who also hailed from Maine, was a distinguished violinist and a member of the world-famous concert troupe of the late Lillian Nordica. Her removal to Providence came during her student years when she attended the Rhode Island College of Education and it was there that she met and married Dr. Albert H. Miller, a nationally known anaesthetist.

Mrs. Miller was prominent in musical activities from the beginning of her residence in Providence. She was for a number of years soprano soloist in the First Church of Christ Scientist of Providence and sang in other important Providence churches. Fond of amateur dramatics, she was a member of the Providence Art Club Players and also an artist member of the players club, a member of the Providence Light Opera Company and a lecturer on both American Music and Old Providence.

In addition to singing, she plays both piano and harp, and has won considerable fame as soloist in the playing of the glass harmonica, a collection of bells of rare and lovely tone of which she owns a very fine example. She also collects old music as a hobby.

Members of the Louisiana Federation of Music Clubs are looking forward with great interest to hearing the address which Mrs. Miller will deliver at the Monroe convention.

COTTON

New York

New York, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Cotton futures were weak today on general selling. Brief flurries of buying failed to check the downward trend which was attributed to chart selling slow textile business and the track belief that exports of cotton will taper in the near future as funds become tighter.

Futures closed $1.05 to $3.75 a bale lower than the previous close.

New Orleans

New Orleans, Feb.9. —(AP)— Cotton futures declined here today under heavy hedge selling and week end long liquidation. Closing prices were largely steady at or near the low, $1.95 to $3.80 a bale lower.

Trading was very active in the short Saturday session. Ring traders said a good part of the selling came from merchants who had previously carried their stock unhedged. Commission houses also were said to be heavy sellers.

Bearish influences were slow textile business, more optimism over the Korean situation, and talk that exports of cotton may taper off in the near future. Contracts were absorbed mainly by profit-taking shorts. Middling 15-16 inch spot cotton declined $3.25 a bale to 40.80 cents a pound. Local spot sales amounted to 938 bales.

How Great Can Love Be?

Not so long ago a man nearing 80, still strong in mind and body, talked happily and confidently of the new home into which he planned to move with the woman to whom he had been married 54 years (57 years, as he figured it). At the time the man discussed his plans the woman had been dead three years.

When the man was 18 years old and the woman was also 18, they met. He looked at the woman and said to himself, "that is the girl for me, because I love her." Three years later, when both were 21, they married. In all his life, the man was never unfaithful to the woman, nor she to him, either before or after marriage.

Fifty-four years later, when the woman lay on her death-bed, paralyzed by a stroke and unable to move, but conscious, the man sat on the bed beside her, his hand gently stroking her cheeks and forehead and hair. As they looked at each other the love light in their eyes was as bright as on the day she became his bride. That was the way she died.

Asked how he expected to move into a new home with the woman who was gone, the man replied:

"Our Heavenly Father has promised us a beautiful home in Heaven. I am as certain that I will move into it as anyone on earth is certain he will move into a home built for him, and I am eager for the time. I have enjoyed my stay on earth, I feel no bitterness and I shall await my time but I shall be glad when it comes. Who wouldn't be glad to move into a new and lovely home with the wife he loves?"

About a year later, the man crossed quickly over into the great beyond, his life snuffed out by a sudden attack of pneumonia, while he still appeared to be strong and alert.

The man went joyfully to meet the God he trusted and to join the woman he loved in their beautiful new home.

Fine Code Of Living

Boy Scouts of the Ouachita Valley Council, as well as those throughout the United States, are now celebrating Boy Scout Week.

In order to carry on this splendid work, devoted to enabling boys to grow into worthy and honorable men, a large number of men in the Ouachita Valley Council, serving 15 parishes, give freely of their time.

At the head of this group is A. B. Clarkson, council president, serving his 13th year. Other officers are Floyd James, Ruston, vice-president; A. J. Ensminger, Wisner, vice-president; John McCloy, Winnfield, vice-president; L. L. Price, Monroe, vice-president; Floyd Martin, Monroe, treasurer; J. W. Webster, Sr., Monroe, council commissioner. Operating committee chairmen are: W. E. Person, Waterproof, c/m, advancement committee; J. A. Holmes, Winnsboro, c/m, finance; Doris C. Harper, West Monroe, camping and activities; Burton Risinger, Louisiana Tech, Ruston, leadership training; A. J. Ensminger, Wisner, organization and extension; Harry Rogers, Bastrop, health and safety. There are numerous committeemen, scoutmasters and assistant scoutmasters and other Scout leaders who are engaged in this work.

In these days when the evidence points to a widespread weakening of the American moral fibre, with major crimes climbing faster even than the increase in population, it is encouraging to note that a great moral force in America is growing even stronger.

The Boy Scouts of America celebrates its 42nd birthday during Boy Scout Week, February 6 through 12. It is an occasion when we can pause and consider its mark on the youth of the nation. Since 1910, more than nineteen million American boys and men have been influenced by this Scout Oath:

"On my honor I will do my best-

To do my duty to God and my country, and to obey the Scout Law.

To help other people at all times.

To keep myself physically strong, mentally awake, and morally straight."

For its young men members, known as Explorers, the Boys Scouts of America has this dedication pledge, which could well be adopted by all Americans:

"I will live the Scout Oath and Law. I will be familiar with the Declaration of Independence, the Constitution, and the Bill of Rights of the United States of America. I will respect and obey the law in order to have security and freedom.

"I will share the responsibility of my home, school, church, neighborhood, and community; and when legally of age, I will register and vote in all elections. I will deal fairly and kindly with my fellow - citizens of whatever race or creed, in the spirit of the Scout Law and America's tradition of equality of opportunity.

"I will work to preserve our American heritage of liberty and responsibility. I acknowledge that the privileges we enjoy were won by the hard work, and sacrifices, faith and clear thinking of our forefathers. I will do all in my power to pass on a better America to the next generation."

Today over 2,000,000 boys and men are actively enrolled in over 80,000 different units. Ouachita Valley Council has nearly 3,000 boys enrolled in 125 units throughout northeast Louisiana. Scouting is indeed a great asset to the nation. May it continue to succeed in influencing the lives of countless more boys as you go "Forward . . . on Liberty's team".

Seaway Fallacies

The crass stupidity of many of the so-called arguments put forth in behalf of the proposed St. Lawrence seaway billion dollar boondoggle often is brought out quite clearly by factual developments recorded around the nation, sometimes in official reports put out by administration agencies themselves backing the boondoggle.

For example, an official Washington announcement a few days ago said that the army engineers had approved a proposal to deepen the Hudson river between New York and Albany to 32 feet because the present 27-foot depth makes it necessary for freighters to go to or depart from Albany with partly empty holds. Yet the entire billion dollar St. Lawrence channel connecting the Atlantic and the Great Lakes is scheduled to be only 27 feet deep—insufficient for even the Hudson river Albany freighters!

Again, a big argument put forth for the seaway is the electric power it supposedly will produce, and the "great demand" (supposedly) for more power in northeast United States. (Actually, of course, the billion dollar boondoggle fundamentally is a plan to socialize power production.) Yet, the defense production administration, in an official announcement in Washington only last January 11, covering the report of its special survey on power production, said that in the northeast "the prospect (on power production) is for increasing surplus." Why spend a billion dollars to make the surplus "surplusser."

Again, a so-called argument for the seaway is that the Mesabi (Michigan) iron ore ranges are becoming depleted and that not only the steel industry but the Great Lakes shipping industry will suffer. (This "depletion" long since

What Others Say:

Editors Roundtable

Only a very small minority of editors is at all optimistic that Newbold Morris will receive such cooperation from the Administration as to assure that his investigation of corruption in federal agencies will be thorough and effective. A substantial plurality of editors, noting the limited authority given to Morris, considers it most unlikely that his investigation will result in any significant exposures or prosecutions. On Morris' record and his confidence that he will have a free hand, a large minority of editors feel that his work may yield at least some good - and so should not be judged in advance.

Baltimore (Md.) Sun (Ind.-Dem.): "In view of the fact that much of the concern about the current state of government morality centered about the Justice Department, it was not reassuring when President Truman assigned the job of rooting out corruption to the head of that department. Attorney General McGrath's decision to delegate the responsibility to Mr. Morris, however, puts an entirely different face on the matter. . . . In handling the clean-up job to Morris, Truman and McGrath give evidence of meaning business. They are entitled to congratulations for having, in an election year, the courage to make such a choice."

New York Daily News (Ind.); "Mr. Morris is a Republican, former president of N. Y. City Council, and without any personal blemish. But his 'cleanup assignment' makes him a 'special assistant' to McGrath, who himself might be termed Public Suspect No. 1. Does anybody care to imagine how effectively Morris, or anybody else working out the No. 1 man's office . . . . would ever be able to check on any truly important rascals? It's a desperate try by Truman, McGrath & Co. But does Harry actually think the public will believe that a mere hired hand is likely to have success investigating his own boss?"

Dayton (Ohio) News (Ind.-Dem.): "Newbold Morris is a man of zeal and competence who gets things done. . . . Even though he will be under supervision of Mr. McGrath, he is not the kind of man who can be induced to pull punches. Nor does he have any motive of his own for pulling them, inasmuch as he will be a Republican investigating a Democratic administration . . . With this coup de main, President Truman has breathed at least a fair amount of life into the fast-expiring confidence of the country that the abscessed areas in the public service are in for a searching diagnosis and a ruthless lancing."

Washington (D. C.) News (Ind.): "Mr. Morris has a reputation as an honest man with a zeal for honest public service, but in this battle against Goliath he seems to have cast himself in the role of David without a slingshot. . . . He has been promished the hearty cooperation of Mr. McGrath and President Truman, and unrestricted access to government records and personnel. He has no power of subpena, and says he wants none. 'If something turns up that I can't get, I'll go to the president.' It will be interesting to see how far Morris will get with such tools."

Wilmington (Del.) Morning News (Ind.): "An independent agency to conduct the inquiry . . . surely would have commanded more public confidence . . . Nevertheless, it is unfair to assume in advance that the Morris study will be a whitewash - or even that it will fail to dredge up the salient facts and propose workable correctives. . . Morris has satisfied himself that he will have a free hand to do a job; he knows, of course, that there are heavy penalties attached to failure. He will do his utmost to turn in a good performance. And his best, though it may not be quite what we could ask, ought to be good - and useful."

Cleveland (Ohio) Plain Dealer (Ind.-Dem.): "Without reflecting in any way on . . . Morris . . . we have some misgivings about his chances of bringing to a successful conclusion the enormous task he has undertaken . . . This is because we are convinced that the primary purpose of the administration is not to clean house but to sweep the dust under the rug . . . The main point is that the political tone of any administration is set by the White House and there has never been any indication of a desire on the part of the president to clean up his own office."

Charlotte (N. C.) Observer (Ind.-Dem.): "Under the handicaps imposed on him, Morris will, no doubt, do his best. But this is the meat of the coconut: Mr. Morris will have no powers except those of an investigator. He will not be a prosecutor. He can only recommend to Attorney General McGrath what cases should be prosecuted. Consequently, McGrath is still the man who will decide whether any prosecutions will be made. McGrath has never shown any zeal for prosecuting anybody in his own department or any appointee or friend of the Truman administration.

BIBLE THOUGHTS:

Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks. — Ephesians 5:4.

Let your words be few and digested, it is a shame for the tongue to cry the heart mercy, much more to cast itself upon the uncertain pardon of others' ears.

DOWN SOUTH

WHITE HOUSE POLLYANNA

In considering economic conditions in this country at the present time, and the situation that faces us in the future, it would be the easiest thing to do — and most popular with the voters — to take the attitude of our Pollyanna in the White House and say every thing is all right, that we are now enjoying the greatest prosperity in our history, that our mounting national debt should give us no concern, that our unparalleled spending is well within our means.

All this sounds pleasant to our ears, and we could hope, of course that the statements are correct — but if we are at all realistic about it, the frightening thought must occur to us that if the statements are false, then we are making the most tragic mistake that a nation can make by acting as if they were true. If they are false, then our nation is like a dope addict who is lulled into a feeling of blissful security without ever realizing he is submitting to a habit that will eventually destroy him.

Some may be pardoned, at least for analyzing the truth fullness of these statements. Let's consider some quoted statements made recently.

In submitting his economic report to congress, the president started it off with these words, "The past year has been marked by great gains in our basic economic strength." In submitting a proposed budget for next year of $85½ billion, the president said it is a budget which is "not only within our present economic capacity," but one which "will enable us to grow stronger." He had already told us in his state of the union message that we were enjoying great prosperity, and it is a generally accepted fact that if he is nominated for the presidency at the next convention, he will base his campaign on "prosperity."

We might consider first what "great gains in our basic economic strength" have occurred during the past year. It is true we reached the glittering figure of 340 billion as the value of our gross national output. But what lies behind this figure? The answer is, 104,000 casualties in Korea, fighting a wholly destructive war there, and devoting much of our manpower and resources to the wholly unproductive pursuit of getting ready for a bigger war. Also must be included the foreign aid that keeps many of our wheels turning. Also must be considered the inflation that results from mounting debt and wasteful and unproductive spending.

Yes, if we don't count the corpses and the debt and the evils of inflation we could make out a case for gains in economic strength the past year! But what sort of figuring would that be?

We need leaders in this nation at the present time who will tell people some of the facts of life, just as Winston Churchill did during the Second World War when he promised the English people nothing but "blood, sweat, and tears." The president points with pride to achieving a gross national income of $340 billon, but it should be pointed out that this could be increased to $680 billion by again robbing the people of their savings as was so criminally done when we went off the gold standard in 1933.

It is no trouble to increase the number of dollars, so long as one is satisfied with printing press dollars with no tangible value back of them. It looks good to point at full employment and a high level of activity generally, until one realizes that the basis of this so-called prosperity is war and more war, is foreign aid and more foreign aid, until one realizes that the philosophy of the administration includes no other plans for prosperity than war and foreign aid.

For the sake of our children, if not for ourselves, let's be sure everything is "all right" before acting on that assumption. Just because we give every appearance of inexhaustible wealth in this country does not mean that our wealth is actually inexhaustible. The taxers and spenders seem to ignore that fact.

J. M. Roberts, Jr.

INTERPRETING THE NEWS

A special subcommittee of the house foreign affairs committee has served notice on squabbling western Europeans that if they don't drop their nationalistic squabbling and get together on the defense program, they're liable to get their water cut off.

The warning was directed largely against Germany, which was visited by the subcommittee last fall, and the report itself apparently did not take cognizance of the most recent divergencies between Germany and France.

At a news conference, however, members made it clear they didn't consider the Saar, or Germany's membership in the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, as germane to the main question of whether Europe as a whole would earn, by utmost exertion in its own behalf, the help the U. S. was willing to give on no other basis.

"The subcommittee regrets bargaining by Germany and other nations to attain national interests or objectives," said the report.

The treaty creating a European defense community and the new contractual agreement between Germany and the Allies should go forward at once, it added.

And then the committee added its advice to America and its warning to Europe:

"The continuation of United States assistance to Germany and other nations should be related to the progress which is being made in ending the delays in the German defense contribution and German participation in the integration of Europe. The policy of the United States has been based on self - help and mutual cooperation. We believe that this policy needs now to develop into a policy of aid given o na step-by-step basis in relation to the progress made in in the attainment of the economic, political and military objectives of the free world."

These are expressions of exasperation which Europe cannot help but heed. Adenauer, fighting political pressure in the Bundestag, has veered off from his nationalism of the past few weeks to warn Germany of what really is the Great menace — a vast Russian military force beyond the Elbe which could march against Europe "in 24 hours" if the Kremlin wills it.

But if German blood pressure seems to be going down a bit, there is evidence of the opposite in Paris.

France has expressed new opposition to Germany as a NATO member and made what American diplomats think was an unnecessary and certainly untimely faux pas in the Saar.

There has been no time for Europe to react to the congressional report. But the warning in it for them is that, however right they may consider their various positions to be, they'd better reconsider now essential these issues are as against the main job.

IN HOLLYWOOD

Hollywood, Feb. 9. — The news that Donald O'Connor and Debbie Reynolds, who co-star in MGM's new musical, "Singin' in the Rain," will be reteamed almost immediately in another opus entitled "I Love Melvin," makes good sense. The kids are a solid click in "Singin' in the Rain," they complement one another's personalities perfectly, and screen history proves rather conclusively that we, the people, dote on established screen twosomes.

I've never been able to understand why every big studio, benefitting by the examples of the past, doesn't make it a policy to develop and exploit "teams."

If you'll scan the movie annals of the past thirty-five years you'll find such duos as Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne, Jack Mulhall and Dorothy Mackaill, Eugene O'Brien and Normal Talmadge, John Gilbert and Greta Garbo, Charles Farrell and Janet Gaynor, Marie Dressler and Wallace Beery—and you'll find, furthermore, that those teams, as long as the producers were able to keep them in harness, were box office golcondas. In many cases the fans developed such credence in their on-screen romancing that they regarded it as philandering if either of the duo appeared with another player. As long as I live I'll never forget the avalanche of protesting letters that poured into Hollywood when Janet Gaynor married her first husband, Lydell Peck. The movie - goers regarded that marriage as bigamy of a sort; Janet belonged to Charlie Farrell as far as they were concerned.

A Donald O'Connor-Debbie Reynolds combination, if they continue to complement one another in the future as they do in "Singin' in the Rain," could have the bossmen of Metro-Goldwyn - Mayer singin' every time they look at the studio ledgers.

It's small wonder that Anne Francis found reason to chuckle after finishing one of her scenes in "Dreamboat." Shot on the "process stage," it showed her driving, with Clifton Webb, past Sing Sing prison, and the script called for her to deliver the following line of dialogue: "You know, I've always wondered what this place looks like." The reason for the chuckle? Well, Miss Francis, as it happens was born in Ossining, New York, and lived as a child in a house almost next door to the famous penitentiary.

On the "Botany Bay" set at Paramount, Alan Ladd had just finished playing a scene in which he gets conked on the head by an oar and, despite all the safeguards employed, the blow had hurt. "What a roll!" he groused. "I get hit on the head with oversized clubs, lashed by a rawhide whip, kneelhauled, confined in solitary, chained, kicked, mauled, beaten up . . ."

"True," interrupted Patricia Medina, kiddingly, "but just think. As your reward you get me!"

"What's the use?" retorted Ladd. "By the time we get around to that I won't be in proper condition to take advantage of the opportunity!"

I'm amused by a story that's been making the Hollywood rounds. Seems that Milton Berle's girl friend, Ruth Cosgrove, bought herself a new fur coat, and Hollywood hecklers immediately insisted that it must be a present from Berle. Miss Cosgrove's defense was unassailable. After showing them hew own name embroidered on the coat's lining, she asked: "If Milton had given me this, don't you suppose he would have insisted on his name being on it?"

In Washington

The government curse of purchasing supplies on specifications, which are changed by every civilian and military department until the same article may be described in different language by each agency has been nicely pointed up by Rep. Edward Hebert (Dem, - La.) a former newspaperman, in an exhibit illustrating graphically the procurement methods of the armed services.

With six congressional committees looking into armed service spending habits, Hebert is giving the most pointed demonstration of how completely slipshod are the army, navy and air force in their fixed purchasing habits, which he estimates may cost the government five billion dollars a year in excess costs.

"That's as good a guess as anyone can make," he says, "if its wrong, its wrong on the low side."

One of the prime objectives of unification of the armed services was to cut costs by eliminating duplication in purchase of everything from ten penny nails to weapons, but with gigantic appropriations available, lashing by congress to get ahead with the armament program, and a general air of hysteria hovering over the whole operation, the duplication, if anything, is greater than ever.

The nail example is not overdrawn. For an identical nail, the Hebert exhibit demonstrates, the navy pays 6½ cents a pound, the army pays eight and the air force 12 cents. Soup bowls costs the air force 18 cents, the army 23 cents and the navy 46 cents. For the type of barracks bag used by army and navy — you can scarcely tell the difference — the army pays $1.14 and the marine corps puts out $3.90.

The old story of blankets is again emphasized by Herbert's chamber of horrors. There non - military branches of the government enter into the comparison. They buy one type of blankets for $.65, the army pays $8.56, the marines $9.89, the air force $14.15, the navy $19.75 and the open handed medical corps $21.75. Representative Herbert says its the same blanket, and good judges of woolen materials agree, but you would never know it from the specifications which go on for pages and pages, to insure competitive bidding.

This specification business gets to be amazing. There are such unbelievable absurdities as five pages to explain the kind of a flyswatter the army demands. The silliest example exposed by the Herbert layout is one of four catalog pages, with two pictures to describe dog's toenail clippers, of which 19 have been purchased in the last four years.

There are purchasing catalogs galore put out by every agency and subagency. They completely befuddle ordinary readers but they turn out to be a manufacturers' delight. Hebert says that for rubber insulated combat boots, the marine corps pays $16.80 per pair and the army $24.65 per pair, though the army orders much larger numbers, and they buy from the same manufacturer. But the varying descriptions meaning the same thing, give the maker his alibi for the amazing difference in prices.

None of the armed services take

ALL IN THE FAMILY

This business of writing columns, at which I have had long and varied experience, sets off strange reactions.

Eliminating letter - writers who are advanced mental cases, who want information, seek publicity or volunteer to do the job better than the professional can, and getting down to the panners and the praisers, many humans bitterly resent or extravagantly worship the written word — and those who commit it.

In the underworld there is a classification for certain men and women, who are known as "copfighters." They may be timid with shoe clerks or janitors, but they see flashes of red shooting from a blue uniform, and they not only resist, but attack, authority.

That is reflected in a measure by as many who, perhaps with frustrated longings to impress their opinions on the public, resent those who have the opportunities which have eluded them.

They snarl and sneer, question the sources of statements, the accuracy of data, the grammar, the form, the spirit, and, above all, the motives.

"How much did so-and-so pay you under the table for that piece?"

That is a recurrent perennial.

"Is that guy your brother - in - law?"

One cannot turn out pieces forever without sometimes saying friendly things about others. Yet such copy is suspect to a large segment of the popuiation.

But these doubters are fewer than the showerers of kudos and encouragement.

Those, too, probably are persons who have had a yen to write but never made it. And by transference, or projection, or something, they feel they are getting into the act by setting up comradely relations with one who has a by-line.

They not only seek harmonious penetration by taking the trouble to sit down, write at length and post their letters, but they want to meet us in person.

Though I am grateful for such enthusiasm, I do feel that I should let it extend too far into my personal life, of which I have little enough.

Fan-mail is gratifying. No one outlives his pleasure in getting it. I gladly send out autographs and get writer's cramp signing the flyleaves of my books. In my library are a number of volumes inscribed to me, which I value highly. I am a fan, too.

But I have stopped drinking, so offers in that direction do not at-

George E. Sokolsky:

THESE DAYS

To many Americans who do not belong to the American Legion, it has had the reputation of being a hell - raising organization which once a year takes over a town, marches all over the place, breaks the furniture in the hotels and generally provides good cheer.

This side of the Legion is more pleasing to some veterans of World War I than it is to the young men of World War II, who look at the world through different eyes and who realize that their country has suffered its first defeat. In fact, although in the past the politicians and permanent jobholders in the legion have kept older men at the helm, the tendency in recent years has been to give the newer elements a chance.

The present national commander, Donald R. Wilson, is only 34 years old and a brilliant lawyer and orator. Although a national commander lasts only one year, it is refreshing to the outsider to witness the new type of leadership which he presents. His advocacy of the Legion as a spiritual force, his "Back to God" movement, his speeches in which he calls for a return to church attendance, is giving to the Legion new stimulation that is attracting widespread, favorable attention.

The Legion is important. An organization of 3,000,000 members can accomplish much in the reconstruction of our country. The change, for instance, in the character and make-up of the "American Legion Magazine," under the direction of James F. O'Neil, gives the Legion a status as an intellectual and social force which it had not had before.

This magazine has been publishing articles of special significance in the fight against communism. In fact, some of these articles were such as frightened the editors of national magazines who prefer what they call non-controversial topics. Many of them publish articles and stories by well - known Commiunsts and fellow - travelers on the assumption that they are not controversial, a conclusion that would not pass even elementary-logic.

Such articles as "Did the Movies Really Clean House?" by J. B. Matthews; "How the Reds Invaded Radio," by Louis Budenz; "Terror by Law," by George N. Craig; "Why You Buy Books That Sell Communism," by Irene Corbally Kuhn, and "Our New Privileged Class," by Eugene Lyons, are among an important series of articles which is making magazine history. It just shows what a fearless editor can do in a field where so many fear to tread.

The Legion also maintains a national Americanism commission which provides a monthly news service of very great value. A special research staff under the direction of Karl Baarslag, a former naval intelligence officer, has produced a vast amount of valuable date in brochue from. This is now issued in a pamphlet entitled "The Firing Line," and is widely used by persons outside the Legion who are interested in the subject.

In this field no national organization is doing a comparable work. In the motion picture field, those who are studying the problem admit that the greatest fear of the motion picture producers is the American Legion. Their opposition to a picture because of its content or because Communists have had a part in the making of it can kill the box-office. That makes the picture a defective product because it encounters unusual sales resistance.

The American Legion and the Catholic War Veterans have played a notable role in cleaning up this industry, although thus far neither has been very successful with radio or television, both of which are infested by Stalin's little creatures. As many actors, writers, directors go from the movies to television, the Legion's position has an important indirect effect.

The Catholic War Veterans have, in the past, been effective in picketing houses that showed unacceptable movies. The American Legion, while it took a strong position, avoided picketing. However, Hollywood (California) Post No. 43 took the lead in advocating a picketing resolution which, if widely adopted, may drive the final nail into the coffin of Communist hopes of using the movies for subversive purposes or to raise funds from the employment of its members in this industry.

Hollywood — (NEA) — Exclusively Yours: Donald O'Connor's making no secret of his disenchantment with his role of a mule's sidekick in UI's "Francis" series. His current stint in "Francis Goes To West Point," he's hinting, may end his association with the money - making brayer.

"It's hard for me to retain the character," he told me, "because I've played the mule's friend so many times. The situations may differ, but the lines are the same."

Edith Head designed a black lace, low cut gown for Marilyn Maxwell, then warned her: "Never sit down in it, honey. If you do there'll be too much Marilyn showing. It's an eye - level dress."

Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy will tour England for six months, leaving New York Jan. 23. TV plans have been junked until their return. . ."Halls of Ivy" is headed for television. Writer Don Quinn is New York - bound to wrap up a video deal for the Ronald Colmans.

Shelley Winters, who's saying she'll wed Italian Star Vittorio Gassman, was with tennis pro Jack Cushingham at Billy Gray's' Bandbox. . . .Rule out Carol Channing as the star of Fox's "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes." She's set to star on Broadway in "Can - Can."

So the big money isn't being spent for filmed video shows? Ha! N. B. C. has 2 million dollars invested in Brian Donlevy's 39 TV film episodes of "Dangerous Assignment."

Now, Now, Groucho!

Groucho Marx' acidulous comment about RKO's gay light - hearted "Two Tickets to Broadway":

"If you don't like this picture don't tell people. Howard Hughes has his own money invested in it and if it doesn't go over, he will have to stop lending money to the Bank of America."

Switch: Heavy - thatched Gale Gordon will wear a special bald pate for the TV version of "Our Miss Brooks."

Cornel Wilde's price per picture has jumped 50 per cent. The result of his success in "The Greatest Show on Earth." . .Dick Haymes' answer to those TV offers to move East — he bought a home in Bel Air and will do his teleshows from Hollywood. . . .Barbara Lawrence and hubby Johnny Murphy are denying the stork rumors. . .Edward G. The kid types will change for Hal Roach's new "Our Gang" series for TV. The pooch with the circle around one eye will remain as is. Remember him?

Pat Neal's shopping for an Acapulco hacienda. . . .They've dropped the Rodriguez from her name and she will be known as plain Estelita from now on at Republic. . . .If his cut in the merchandising end of it is increased, Jim Davis will star in a TV series based on Zane Grey's "King of the Royal Mounted" for Steve Slesinger.

Oh, Well He's Happy

Movietowners keep chuckling about the foreign character actor who pays a big fee to a press agent and takes ads in the trade papers announcing his bit roles. When not acting, he's a hairdresser at a Hollywood department store.

Monte Proser and Warner Bros. are huddling about the stage rights to "Casablanca." Monte wants to turn it into a musical. . .Errol Flynn will play a movie director who clashes with a minister in his independent production of "The Director."

Nostalgic note: The doors to silent star Corinne Griffith's Beverly Hills office buildings are painted a bright orchid hue. Corinne was known as "The Orchid Lady" back in the days when she was First National's glamor girl.

Richard Erdman's telling about the star of a Broadway play who re - wrote a bad script into a hit show, then did a burn over the author taking the bows for the revised version. The star wired him: "If you don't stop taking the credit for this show, I'll play it the way you wrote it."

has been revealed as so much bunk so far as creating a shortage of iron ore is concerned). Yet, Alexander C. Brown, president of a big Great Lakes ore carrying company, said the other day at the launching of a new 19,000 ton ore carrier:

"Forecasters have set a goal of 96,000,000 tons of ore (a record) transported across the Great Lakes this year. Great Lakes carriers are bound to be in great demand for many, many years to come."

And Julian Griffin, transportation editor of the Cleveland Press, right on the Great Lakes and in the middle of the steel producing heart of the nation, writes:

"This will be the year of new ships as the vessel industry spends more than $100,000,000 to float additional ore down the Great Lakes for the expanding steel economy."

Yet, the St. Lawrence seaway boondogglers insist that the seaway must be built to bring in ore because soon there won't be any more transported across the Great Lakes.

G.A.O. Watchdog Group To Guard U.S. Spending

By James Free

Washington, Feb. 9. — Here's a "good news" item for the American taxpayer, who needs encouragement with March 15 just around the corner.

Comptroller General Lindsay C. Warren is going to extend his "watchdog of the federal treasury" activities to the source of most of this country's spending for foreign aid and military defense programs.

As head man of the general accounting office, Warren believes that his auditors can put a stop to much waste spending in our foreign programs through on-the-spot checkups. So, for the first time in its history, the GAO will send some of its top fiscal experts to look over accounts of U. S. expenditures in Europe and in the Far East.

These preliminary surveys, Warren explained, may lead to establishment of GAO field offices for western Europe and for Japan. And their double-checking duties would include not only the special military and economic aid programs but regular operations overseas of the state, commerce, agriculture and other departments.

"Too often," said Warren in an interview, "the GAO does not find out about illegal or improper use of federal money until months—sometimes years — after the deed is done. That means the waste goes on for long periods before it can be stopped. It means, too, that the passage of time makes it more difficult for the GAO to recover any of these misspent funds.

"Not only that. But we hope and believe that the very presence of these small teams of GAO accounting experts will be a sort of preventative medicine. The fear of getting caught may discourage some of this stealing from the public purse before it gets started."

Since Warren became comptroller general late in 1940, the GAO has recovered more than $760,000,000 illegally or improperly paid out by federal agencies. And it has exposed poor or fradulent management, and effected management changes that have resulted in the saving of billions more of the taxpayers' money.

Warren is a very rare type of bureaucrat — one who not only preaches economy and efficiency, but who practices it as well.

For the past six years, his GAO has been the only government agency to request not more but less money for salaries and operations in the federal budget. Back in April, 1946, the GAO had 14,906 persons on its payroll. Today it has about 6,775 — a reduction of better than 50 per cent. Moreover, in the next fiscal year, Warren plans to trim that figure down to around 6,500.

Small wonder that he is a favorite of congress, with many admirers among Republicans as well as Democrats.

kindly to civilian interference in their fantastic purchasing arrangements. They are doing it the way they always have done it, and suggestions that an executive of a well organized mail order house could really bring about unified buying are haughtily ignored. But with the military spending 60 per cent of the budget at present and due to go even higher next year, the graphic picture that Hebert gives is beginning to have its effect. Most of all he wants to get the high brass of the armed services up to his offices and guide them through his exhibit.

American University, a Washington institution of high repute, thoughtfully established a course for ghost writers, those gentlemen who write other peoples speeches. It is understood the instructor will be a young man who made his way through college that way.

Caustic comment on the new curricular addition from Rep Timonthy P. Sheehan (Rep.-Ill.):

"This gives Washington official recognition as hot air capital of the world. I hope the thousands of press agents and other publicity persons now on the federal payroll will not become smug or complacent over this recognition of their work. It is more likely that the flow of gobbledegook, bafflegab and other federalese will continue to set new records."

tract me. I can partake of lunch and dinner on only so many days in any week.

Since I write at times about crime and law - breakers. I draw a lot of mail from crooks, ex-crooks, men who have done time, retired policemen and specialists in types of larceny and mayhem, who want to further enlighten me —across a table or at a bar. For years I went out of my way to spend time with them. Some did yield material.

After "The Big House" was published it seemed to me every con, when he got out of the stir, beat a path to my door to give me the inside, the lowdown, the real McCoy.

They didn't want anything; only to pour into my ear their individual tales and their viewpoints on prisons and those in them. Here and there I gleaned a grain of something new. But, over all, their tales were rather monotonously the same.

Once you encourage one of these men, they are your friends forever —too friendly. They meet others of their kind and that gives them new topics which they feel, in a kindly way, they should transmit forthwith — and personally, in whispers, with furtive glances all around, as their missions are all sacredly confidential, of course.

I have had every variation of the con-game described to me in complete detail so often that I fear some day I will swindle myself.

Whenever I do an anecdote on the Canada Kid, the dips track me down to tell me the new ones and recount all the old ones of their ancient craft.

But Duffy the Goat really gets me swamped. He is a sticker-up, slugger - killer, not a skilled mechanic. Therefore more feel they can discuss tough bruisers with me than would want to go into such scientific professions as safe-blowing, oilstock - gypping and diamond-palming.

So I wish they would warm up to younger fellows, still ablaze with curiosity, still thrilled over the close presence of anti-social people, still eager to listen when they hear that phrase which has echoed through my dreams for years:

"Now, I could give you a story that is a story!"

HONOR COURT IS SET ON FRIDAY

Expect Fine Program Will Be Held As Climax To Anniversary

J. Pascal Norris, Court of Honor chairman, announced that a special Court of Honor will be held at 7:30 p. m., February 15, at the Central Grammar School. An outstanding program has been prepared as a climax to the 42nd Anniversary Boy Scout Week. Mr. Norris stated that every effort was being made to make this one of the finest in the history of the Central district.

Highlighting the evening's program will be the awarding of the Eagle Badge to two Scouts of Troop 31, sponsored by the Grace Episcopal Church. The scouts who will receive this highest rank in Scouting are Mike Boggs and Lester Martin. Participating in the awarding ceremony will be J. W. Webster, council commissioner, Floyd Stone, Troop 31 explorer advisor, four Eagle scouts, and the parents of the two boys who are to receive the badge. Tommy Fields, member of the Order of the Arrow Lodge, will open the ceremony with the Navajo Eagle dance. This is recognized as one of the outstanding Indian dances displayed by the Order of the Arrow members. Assisting fields in the Indian dance ceremony will be Tommy Hines of Troop 10, West Monroe. The boys will be in full Indian costume for this occasion.

Another outstanding feature of the program will be the showing of a technicolor film of the National Scout Jamboree, held in 1950 at Valley Forge, Pennsylvania. This film will be of great interest to scouts who attended the National Jamboree from the Ouachita Valley Council. Judge Jesse Heard will present the other advancement awards.

The public and friends of Scouting are urged to attend this fine program and become better acquainted with the activities of this character-building and citizenship-training program organization. An attendance award contest will be announced at this time and troops will be making plans to get all of their scouts, parents, and friends to attend these fine programs.

Director Of Moral And Civic Foundation Scheduled Here

Dr. Vernon C. White, director of alcohol education of the Louisiana Moral and Civic Foundation, Inc., Baton Rouge, will be guest speaker at the First Baptist Church, Monroe, Tuesday night, February 12, at 7:30, according to an announcement by Rev. James T. Horton.

Dr. White is a recognized authority in his highly specialized field of educational work, having done extensive research work in the scientifically verifiable facts concerning alcohol and other narcotic, habit - forming drugs. He has devoted himself for about twenty years to counselling youth and to work among high school and college students in all parts of the nation concerning the problems arising from the use of these drugs. He has spoken in approximately 3,500 high schools, colleges and universities, to an estimated total of more than two million students.

He was one of the earliest to recognize the distinctively narcotic effects of ethyl alcohol, to challenge the popular idea that alcohol is a "stimulant," and to demonstrate its depressant effects.

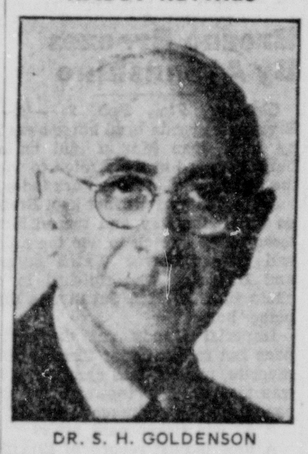

Dr. W. Earl Hotalen, state director of the foundation, says that "Dr. White succeeds in popularizing among young people the personal practice of total abstinence. Older people as well as teen-agers are enthusiastic about his message. He has a felicity of expression matched by few speakers, and is a master of exquisite illustration. He doesn't argue, he doesn't harangue, exhort or debate, and he doesn't plead for or against prohibition. He simply states the facts about alcohol so clearly and convincingly that his audiences everywhere accept his cogent statements as truth; and usually they clamor to hear him again. Educators, ministers, parents, and young people all like him. His enlightening, inspiring message is needed throughout Louisiana, and we are very fortunate in being able to offer him to the schools and churches of the state."

FIGHTERS NEEDED

Singapore—(AP)—The British Army in Singapore and Malaya is trying to get more men into the front lines at the expense of those in the rear areas.

High-ranking officers, noting the low proportion of rear echelon personnel to frontline troops in the Russian and Chinese Communist armies, say it is "essential" that the British army reduce its rear area staffs.

RABBI RETIRES

DR. S. H. GOLDENSON

TEMPLE EMANUEL LOSES RABBI

New York's Outstanding Leader Dr. Goldensen, Now To Retire

Rabbi Samuel H. Goldenson, outstanding American Rabbi, who served as president of the Central Conference of American Rabbis, 1933-35, has retired as spiritual leader of Temple Emanu-El, New York City.

A graduate of the University of Cincinnati and of the Hebrew Union College in 1904, Rabbi Goldenson received his M.A., and Ph.D., from Columbia University, New York City. Hebrew Union College conferred the degree of Doctor of Hebrew Law upon him in 1925.

Believing that the spiritual climate of America holds a challenge to all Jews, Rabbi Samuel H. Goldenson, has chosen not to rest on his laurels upon retirement—now that he has been freed from congregational duties—but to respond wholeheartedly to the call of Liberal Judaism throughout the land. He has been on several Preaching Missions during the past three seasons under the auspices of the Union of American Hebrew Congregations, and is now engaged on another such Mission.

In explaining his urge to be of service to his people, Rabbi Goldenson said: "Feeling as I do that the real problems of our day are at bottom moral and spiritual in character and not political or economic, and believing that the things that Judaism has stressed through its Law-givers, Psalmists, Sages and Prophets are most revelant to the needs of these critical times, I have decided to spend as much of my time in the future as is possible in talking Judaism to our people."

Rabbi Goldenson will be in Monroe, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. While here as guest of Congregation B'Nai Israel, he will address the Kiwanis Club, Wednesday noon, the members of the Christian clergy Thursday morning and the congregation Friday evening at the service in the Temple.

Rabbi Hirsch and Dave Silverstein, president of the local congregation, are in charge of the plans for Rabbi Gildenson's addresses.

POLICE REPORTS

DRUNKEN DRIVING

A 22 - year - old man was arrested yesterday by the West Monroe city police on charges of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of alcohol. Charles Littleton, route one, of West Monroe, was released later under a $300 bond.

DRUNK AND DISORDERLY

John Lee, 25, Negro, 705 Coleman avenue, West Monroe, was arrested by west Monroe city police yesterday and lodged in the city jail under a $15 bond. Police stated that the Negro had been making a disturbance on the streets in West Monroe and that several calls had been received on him.

CHARGED BY POLICE

John Knighten, Jr., 25, 113½ Texas, was arrested late Friday by Monroe police officers for hit and run driving of two different automobiles.

Knighten was traveling north on Jackson and made a sharp left turn onto Telemaque street, striking a car in the service station. While looking for this one, another hit and run occurred in front of 109 Texas avenue.

When arrested Knighten admitted to both of the accidents.

GROUND-PACKING

Pacadena, Calif.—(AP)—A machine which does a pretty thorough job of solidifying earth by shaking it has ben developed by engineers at the California Insitute of Technology.

The idea behind the machine is to simplify and speed up the foundation work on highways, airfields and buildings. The underlying ground has to packed to take the weight without sinking.

LA. COMMISSION IN ART SHOWING

Will Show Progress Of This Eucation Past Year

The Louisiana art commission is sponsoring its seventh annual Louisiana student art exhibition in April, Joy Broussard, commission director announces.

Open only to art students residing in the state, the show presents an annual survey of the progress art education is making in our state's educational system, Broussard stated.

The exhibition will be held in the art commission's Old State Capitol galleries in Baton Rouge beginning April 6 through 30.

Any Louisiana student artist is eligible to submit his artistic efforts who can be classified in one of these categories: elementary school children, high school art students, college art students, professional art school students, and adults receiving part-time formal art instruction either as individual students or members of an organized art club with an instructor.

Each exhibitor is allowed to submit only two entries in the painting and graphic media, but there is no limit to the number of pieces which can be submitted in the sculpture, ceramics, and crafts media.

In past years, Broussard mentioned, entry blanks and prospectus for the annual show was mailed to every school in the state, but because of the increase in postage rates, all interested persons and teachers are requested to write the Louisiana art commission, Old State Capitol, Baton Rouge for the necessary forms and information.

All entries to the exhibition must be received in the commission's office by 5 p.m. March 28.

COAL MORE EXPENSIVE

Brussels —(AP)— Belgian-produced coal is now five times more expensive than in 1939. According to about three dollars a ton. It is now up to $14.60. Compared to other European coal-producing countries, the Belgian price is the highest.

MONROE BOMBARDIER IN KOREA

First Lieutenant Robert J. Cavendish, Monroe, La., climbs the side of a air force B-26 of the 3rd Bomb Wing. A veteran of 47 combat missions, he performs the twin role of navigator and bombardier, vital to the success of a mission against enemy supplies in north Korea. He is the husband of Mrs. Dorothy B. Cavendish of 1107 McGuire Ave., N. Monroe. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Cavendish, live at 118 W. 11th Ave., Huntington, W. Va.

Addresses To Be Given In Zion Traveler Church

Dr. R. O. Pierce, first president of the Colored Chamber of Commerce, will present a program at Zion Traveler Church, Sunday at 8 p. m.

E. H. Hoston, the present president, and H. H. Marbles, vice-president urge citizens of the Twin Cities to attend.

Dr. Pierce was president from 1947-51 and served to the credit of the organization, will present a program of interest and Dr. G. H. J. Thibodeaux, presiding elder, of Shreveport will be the main speaker.

1952 LA. COTTON OUTLOOK GIVEN

Expect Million Acres Planted; May Produce 650,000 Bales

Baton Rouge, Feb. 9.—(Special)—Louisiana's part of the nation's cotton acreage to be planted this year is figured at 1,000,000 acres and a production of 650,000 bales, according to I. W. Carson, associate agronomist in cotton, L.S.U. Agricultural Extension Service. This is a per acre yield of 312 pounds. In 1951 Louisiana's average was 400 pounds.

The United States Department of Agriculture is asking farmers of this country to plant 28,000,000 acres and to produce 16,000,000 bales.

The U. S. cotton supply for the current year is approximately 1,000,000 bales more than a year ago, or 17,640,000 bales, Carson asserts. Estimates based on consumption the first five months of this year indicate that about 9,500,000 bales will be required in this country. Exports are estimated at near 6,000,000 bales. This gives an indicated disappearance of 15,500,000 bales. These figures, if they prove to be correct, will leave a carry over on August 1, 1952 of a little more than 2,000,000 bales, or slightly less than last August 1.

Farmers will be able to grow an unrestricted acreage of cotton this year, Carson believes. The price will be supported again with a government loan at 90 per cent of parity, the same as last year. Nevertheless it is believed that when the parity price is established in July, it will be some higher than in 1951, he says.

"POWER YEAR"

It looks like a "POWER YEAR"

New Horsepower—new Brake Power—and new Power Steering blossom on Buick's ROADMASTER for 1952

MAYBE you've heard—horsepower has hit a new high on the ROADMASTER.

Brake power has done the same.

But today, we'd like to concentrate on the third member of the power trio—Buick's own version of Power Steering, available on ROADMASTERS at a moderate extra cost.

What is this Power Steering like? It's something like a helping hand, something like a "hydraulic slave"—that relieves you of all steering strain, but lets you keep command.

What we mean is this:

Power Steering is handled by a special hydraulic unit—and engineers can design this unit to take over any amount of steering effort—even to a point where the wheel seems to float in your hand.

But in that case, you'd surrender all control to that hydraulic unit—get no steering "feel" from the wheel.

Now suppose you're telling two agile tons of automobile what to do in traffic. We think you'd like to have it know that you're in command.

And—out on the straightaway—we believe that a part of the joy you get from owning a Buick is the sensation of having something alive and eagerly willing beneath your hands.

So we're glad to announce that Buick engineers didn't spoil this thrill. They've kept the fun of driving, and simply eased the effort.

When you're rolling along smooth and straight, it takes almost no effort to keep any Buick on course. It almost steers itself, as every Buick owner knows.

But—when you want to get away from a curb—back into a parking spot—make a turn—Buick's Power Steering comes into action, saves four-fifths of the effort required with ordinary steering. Power Steering does the extra work.

And—in case you wonder what happens if Power Steering gets out of kilter, the answer is nothing. Your Buick steers just as it always has.

That's why we've been saying, "This is Power Steering as it ought to be."

Come in. Try it out. We think you'll agree.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice.

Sure is true for '52

When better automobiles are built BUICK will build them

CHATHAM, KILBOURNE, PIONEER, BASKIN WIN

OUACHITA GIRLS LOSE SEMI-FINAL NORTHEAST TILT

Title Games Are Tightest In 14-Year History Of Meet

Chatham, Kilbourne, Pioneer and Baskin produced champions in four thrilling boys and girls' battles in the finals of the fourteenth annual Northeast Louisiana State Invitational Basketball Tournament here last night.

In the girls' divisions, Pioneer stopped Ouachita of Monroe, 39-36, in the finals of the "North" tourney, while Baskin got a scare before beating Oak Grove, 50-48, in the "East" tourney.

Chatham's boys battered through overtime to erase a 37-37 tie and beat Epps, 39-37, in the "Ouachita section," while Kilbourne had just as hard a fight stopping Jonesboro-Hodge in the "L. T. I. section" finals, 50 to 49.

Never in the history of the tournament had the scores been so tight.

Moore of Chatham led his club's final triumph with 14 points, while P. Alexander was tops for Epps with 12.

Kilbourne's Graham swished the nets for 21 points against Jonesboro-Hodge, while Montgomery sparked the losers with 19.

The girls' title finals were thrillers all the way with the Baskin sextet, unbeaten since the state finals of 1947 and now winner of 190 consecutive games, almost meeting its "Waterloo" against Oak Grove, and Ouachita giving Pioneer a fight all the way to the wire.

The score in the Baskin-Oak Grove battle was tied 45-45 in the waning minutes, but Baskin pulled ahead to win. But Broadway, Oak Grove forward, was high scorer in the contest with 24 points. It took the combined hoop-shooting ability of Ruth Ragsdale, Daisy Baskin and Fox to pull Baskin ahead.

The losing Ouachita girls also produced the individual high scorer as

J. Currie, Pioneer forward; led the march against Ouachita with 29 points, while Joyce Dumas sparked O. P. H. S. with 23.

In yesterday's semi-final play, Ouachita advanced to the "North" girls' final by beating Chatham, 37-32, while Pioneer stopped Start, 37-26. In the "East" semi-finals Oak Grove downed Epps, 53-36, and Baskin beat Kilbourne, 55-37.

Semi-final boys' games yesterday saw Kilbourne beat Start, 52-33, and Jonesboro-Hodge stop Baskin, 37-35, in the "L. T. I. section," while Epps beat Eros, 57-48, and Chatham moved up over Lake Providence, 47-37, in the "Ouachita section."

upon 24 participants in the tournament, including nominations to all-tournament teams and sportsmanship awards.

The Lockhart-Blair Sports Shop sportsmanship trophies, annually presented to one boy and one girl for conduct on and off the courts, were presented this year to Imogene Moseley of the Oak Grove High School girls, and to H. Tanner of the Epps High School quintet.

Named on the all-tournament teams were:

"North" girls—Patsy Calhoun, of Calhoun, Joyce Currie, Pioneer, and Patsy Murphy, Bonita, forwards; and Ethel Mae Moore, Start, Dorothy Phillips, Ouachita, and Delma Doyal, Chatham, guards.

"East" girls—Dixie Baskin, of Baskin, Audwess Duckworth, Epps, and Geraldine Layton, Kilbourne, forwards; and Ida Lee Pearce, Oak Grove, Eloise Kinney, Kilbourne, and Linda Coronado, Baskin, guards.

"Ouachita division" boys — Don Hall, Lake Providence, Harold Tesnell, Eros, and Milford Andrews, Delhi, forwards; T. M. Alexander, Epps, center; and George Moore, Chatham, and H. Tanner, Epps, guards.

"L.T.I. division" boys — Elmer Anderson, Kilbourne, and Harman Ayers, Jonesboro-Hodge, forwards; Troy Rushing, Baskin, center; and "Bud" Haile, Jonesboro-Hodge, and Tommy Bankston, Winnsboro, guards.

Trophy presentations were made by A. S. Huffman, director of physical education for men at Northeast, and Coach Arnold Kilpatrick of Northeast. Huffman presented championship trophies to captains of the winning "East" girls and "Ouachita section" boys at the Ouachita gymnasium as well as to the Lockhart - Blair sportsmanship winners. Coach Kilpatrick made the awards to team captains winning in the "North" girls and "L. T. I. section" boys finals.

Demons Tumble To Southeastern

Natchitoches, La., Feb. 9. —(AP)— The Lions of Southeastern overcame a 10-point Northwestern State lead to take a 46-41 Gulf States Conference basketball game in a defensive battle here tonight.

Sparked by speedy Sammy Booras and big Ken Shaw, the Demons rolled up a 14-4 lead in the first quarter, holding the Lions to one field goal.

The Lions started their comeback in the second period, trimming the Northwestern advantage to 23-16 at the half.

The Demons still led at the end of the third quarter 30-29 but the Lions opened the final period by going ahead 31-30 and continued to build their lead over the Demons, who lost their third game in as many days on their home court.

Shaw led the scoring with 20 points. Joe Boyd had 12 for Southeastern.

The Demons play Louisiana Tech here Monday night.

Bernice, Farmers Win Cage Crowns

Farmerville, La., Feb. 9.—(Special)— The Bernice High School boys and the Farmerville High School girls sacked up championships in the annual Union Parish Basketball Tournament here tonight. The Bernice boys were just reaffirming their title won last year. Farmerville's girls ascended to the throne vacated by Marion when the defender was beaten yesterday by Linville.

The Farmerville girls beat Spearsville in the final, 36 to 30, and the Bernice boys triumphed over Spearsville's quint, 59-38.

In the day's semi-finals the Spearsville boys beat Marion, 51-49 in three overtimes. In the girls' semi-finals, Spearsville stopped Linville, 41-35, and Farmerville beat Bernice, 49-39.

Al Mazur Bids Goodbye To Monroe, Expresses Gratitude To Many Fans For Two Great Years Of Memories

It appears rather conclusively that Al Mazur, who skippered the Monroe Sports to the Cotton States League pennant in his sophomore year as a manager last year, will not be back with the Sports this year.

Earlier it had been announced by Business Manager Paul Manasseh that Mazur had obtained a release to dicker for a place in a higher classification. Speculation here has been that if Mazur didn't get the tie-up he wanted that he would return for another season with Monroe.

But yesterday's mail to the Monroe Morning World brought a statement from Mazur at Shreveport that seems very definite in the conclusion that the popular Monroe skipper, all-star manager of the league last year, won't be back.

"I would like to express my deepest appreciation to the folks of Monroe for the splendid way they have treated me during my stay at Monroe as manager of the Sports," Mazur said.

"It is very difficult for me to express my real emotions. The two years spent in Monroe (he finished second in his first season here in 1950) were most enjoyable. The many friends made there will always remain with me as a priceless possession, and they shall remain in my thoughts forever. My wife and children and I have enjoyed the hospitality immensely. Kindnesses shown were far beyond expectation and for that reason it's difficult for me to really express what my heart feels.

"To the radio and the newspaper people words are hard to find. In the sports world an athlete who finds friends among the press and radio folks considers himself a very fortunate and wealthy person. I consider myself such a person.

"I regret that circumstances prevent my return to Monroe as manager of the Sports, but occasional visits there will help bring back pleasant and everlasting memories."

Ouachita Offers Thanksgiving Grid Date With Neville; 10 Games Slated

Coach Hodgins Starting Spring Training Tomorrow

Coach Jim Hodgins of Ouachita Parish High School yesterday said, "We are leaving our Thanksgiving date open for anybody, including Neville, that wants to play us," after he had revealed his Lion football schedule for 1952.

"We'll be through our Class AA conference schedule after November 14, and we'll play anybody that wants us on Thanksgiving," said Hodgins.

The Lion slate as it now stands calls for ten games, one more than last year, with the addition of Jonesboro-Hodge for the September 5 opener.

Five Class AA conference games are on tap since the advancement of Bastrop High School to double-A ranks. Instead of meeting Bossier City early in the season as in the past, the Bearcats are on tap for the final conference contest. B.C. joined "AA" a year ago.

Three strong Class A rivals help to get the Lions started on successive week ends. They are Homer and Ruston in addition to Jonesboro-Hodge.

Tomorrow Coach Hodgins starts spring training which will be spiit into two sections. The first session ends late this month when the Lions turn full attention to track. They resume grid work in May.

The Ouachita schedule was announced as follows:

Sept. 5—Jonesboro-Hodge, here.
Sept. 12—Homer, here.
Sept. 19—Ruston, there.
Sept. 26—Open.
Oct. 3—Bastrop, there.
Oct. 10—Haynesville, here.
Oct. 17—Fair Park at Shreveport.
Oct. 24—Open permanently.
Oct. 31—Byrd, here.
Nov. 7—Baton Rouge High, there.
Nov. 14—Bossier City, here.
Thanksgiving—Open.

Dodgers' Bonus Baby Will Not Be Recalled

New York, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Billy Loes, Brooklyn Dodgers' $21,000 bonus pitcher, will not be recalled for army duty, the adjutant general's office in Washington told the Long Island press today.

Loes, Astoria, L. I., rightnander, was discharged last Oct. 19 as a "hardship case." His father has suffered from a prolonged illness and his mother is unable to work. Loes is the sole support of the family.

The adjutant general's office reviewed Loes' case on request of Rep. Gorden Canfield (R.-N. J.), who had been queried by a navy veteran's wife in his district after her husband had been recalled.

After checking with the selective service board in New York, the adjutant general's office revealed its decision to the press. It is the final decision, an army official said.

Loes spent the 1950 season with the Dodgers but had no record.

'Sailor Tom' Sharkey, Ex-Boxer, Seriously Ill

San Francisco, Feb. 9. —(AP)— "Sailor Tom" Sharkey, who fought all the great heavyweights of a half century ago, was under treatment at San Francisco Hospital today.

Sharkey, 78, was found ill, apparently from a heart attack, in his hotel room last night.

Doctors said the old fighter was suffering from a "congestive condition," rather than from a coronary attack. He will be under treatment several days, they said.

ZOOMS UP FROM 7TH, 4 STROKES SHY OF LEADER

Middlecoff Holding Edge; Doering Runs 2nd

El Paso, Tex., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Cary Middlecoff of Memphis, Tenn., worried to a two - under - par 69 today to hold his lead in the $10,000 El Paso Open with a 54-hole score of 200, fighting off a flock of blazing rounds which included a P. G. A. - tying record 60 by Bill Nary of Albuquerque, N. M.

Art Doering of Cincinnati, O., came from well back with a 65 to shove into second place with 202.

While Middlecoff stayed in position to take down the $2,000 first money tomorrow, most of the talk was about Bill Nary and his greatest round. The sandy - haired pro blistered par by 11 strokes for the hottest round ever shot on the dusty, baked 6,315 - yard El Paso Country Club course.

Middlecoff went out late. Nary already had posted his round when the tall ex-dentist started. It was something to worry about because Nary had made his 54-hole total 204.

But Doering was quite a surprise, he had 137 to start his round and was six strokes back of Middlecoff.

Nary's 60 figured in all kinds of records. In the first place it tied the P. G. A. record for 18 holes set by Al Brosch of Garden City, N. Y., in the Texas Open at San Antonio last year. It wiped out all the course records and it set a mark for the low number of putts. When Nary toured the course with just 20 putts it was one less than Chandler Harper of Portsmouth, Va., and Jerry Barber of Pasadena, Calif., used in 1950 and 1951 respectively.

The leaders:

Cary Middlecoff, Memphis, Tenn., 65-66-69—200.

Art Doering, Cincinnati, O., 68-69-65—202.

Bill Nary, Albuquerque, N. M., 68-76-60—204.

Skee Riegel, Tulsa, Okla., 68-68-69—205.

Al Besselink, Chicago, 68-68-69—205.

Lew Worsham, Oakmont, Pa., 68-66-71—205.

Marty Furgol, Lemont, Ill., 66-69-70—205.

Bob Toski, Northampton, Mass., 68-71-67—206.

Jack Harden, El Paso, Tex., 69-69-68—206.

Max Evans, Detroit, 70-68-69—207.

Johnny Palmer, Badin, N. C., 64-63-70—207.

Doug Ford, Harrison, N. Y., 66-69-72—207.

Chandler Harper, Portsmouth, Va., 73-68-67—208.

Frank Stranahan, Toledo, O., 67-72-69—208.

Jerry Barber, Pasadena, Calif., 68-70-70—208.

TIGERS WALLOP WAVE, 78 TO 66

Bob Pettit Goes On Another Record-Making Spree

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Bob Pettit set two Southeastern Conference records here tonight in leading Louisiana State University to a 78-66 basketball victory Tulane.

The lanky L.S.U. sophomore scored 32 points, enough to wipe out the old total field goal and total points records for a conference season, set by Kentucky's Alex Groza in 1949.

Pettit's performance, Joe Dean's 20 points and sprakling floor play by Ned Clark and Bobby Yates spelled revenge for L.S.U., which lost earlier in the season to Tulane in New Orleans.

Tulane led briefly in the second quarter and held a 39-38 intermission edge.

Tulane Center Don Holt and Forward Fritz Schulz led Tulane, both with 14 points.

Earlier Pettit set a new S.E.C. record with 50 points against Georgia.

Tonight in his 11th conference game of the year, Pettit smashed the records for total points and total field goals in a season set by Groza in 13 games. Pettit now has 291 points for the season in conference play. Groza had 281. Pettit has 114 field goals against S.E.C. teams Groza had 103. Pettit still has three S.E.C. games to play this year.

Hill Prince, Windy City II Register Share Triumphs At Santa Anita Oval

Ace Rider Eddie Arcaro Aboard Each Winner

By Bob Myers

Arcadia, Calif., Feb. 9. —(AP)— Hill Prince, Windy City II and Jockey Eddie Arcaro, each a favorite, swept all honors in a racing double header at Santa Anita Park today.

Hill Prince, making his first start since last November, captured the $20,000 San Marcos Handicap, traveling a mile in 1:35 4-5, three - fifths of a second off the track record.

Windy City II, the leggy Irish colt, won the $25,000 San Felipe Handicap over a field of 13 rival three - year - olds.

And heady Eddie Arcaro scored one of those rare triumphs — a double stakes win, handling both the Prince and the Windy one.

Hill Prince's two and a quarter length victory in the San Marcos, with his stablemate Bryan G. Second and Be Fleet third, stamped the C. T. Chenery Pride as the top horse in the $100,000 Santa Anita Handicap March 1.

Windy City II, with his second straight win in his third appearance in the United States, remains the colt to beat in the $100,000 Santa Anita Derby Feb. 23.

Hill Prince, the odds on favorite, paid $3.50, $3.50 and $2.60; Bryan G. $3.50 and $2.60 and Be Fleet $5.60.

Windy City II, owned by Mrs. Petite Luellwitz of Los Angeles, paid the favorite's price of $3.90, $3.70 and $3.40. Indian Land was second, paying $9.90 and $5.80; Marcador returned $8.20 for show.

"This horse has got his old lick back again," Arcaro said as he alighted from Hill Prince while 50,000 fans cheered.

"What a fine colt," he exclaimed after the ride on Windy City II.

The crowd's interest was divided between the two stakes.

Brezno Breezes By At Sunshine

Oldsmar, Fla., Feb. 9. —(AP)— Brezno, a Florida bred horse owned by Mrs. Joan Martin ,put on a burst of speed in the stretch to win the feature at Sunshine Park today.

Jockey Sammy Burnet kept Brezno up all the way and turned him loose in the stretch to win the mile and sixteenth over Watch Susan and Dominion who finished in a photo finish. Watch Susan was the place horse.

Imperial Mandy set the early pace but faded. Great Shunfle, the favorite, made a late charge but it was too late. The topweight of 120 pounds hurt his chances.

A $2 win ticket paid $15.40.

A new mutuel record of $215,037 was set by the estimated crowd of 5,500. This passed the opening day take of $209,306, the previous high.

The daily double combination of Sandia Sue and Infrequency paid $1,559.80 to seven ticket holders. Only two days ago the double paid $2,361.30 to three ticket holders.

'OLD SATCH' BACK IN BROWNIE FOLD

Aging Negro Hurler Signs For Another Season

St. Louis, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Satchel Paige, who "outcutes" both the batters and father time, pondered for about five minutes today and then signed his 1952 contract with the St. Louis Browns.

It was nothing new for the shuffling Negro pitcher, who figures he has signed at least 150 contracts in his professional baseball career.

Like his age—a point of great concern to Satch — terms of the contract are a mystery. Club Pres. Bill Veeck offered no estimate on the amount of dough involved, but said the contract "was just as good" as the one Paige signed in 1948 when Veeck owned the Cleveland Indians.

Satch gave his age as 43. That jumbles the Browns' records somewhat since they have his birthday listed as Sept. 11, 1892.

"Oh, no," winched Satch, "that's wrong. I was born in 1908."

Veeck had an explanation for the discrepancy. It seems Satch just "drops two or three years each season."

"Old" Satch, known occasionally as LeRoy, his given first name, had another surprise for Browns' statisticians — he listed three children this year.

The Browns didn't have him down as a father but Satch set them straight. He reports he and his wife have a 5-year-old, another 3, and a third three months.

It was just a matter of changing the records for the Browns.

Satch's best year in the major was with Cleveland in 1948 when he had a 6-1 record. With the Browns last season he made 23 appearances, winning three and losing four.

The 6-foot-3, 180 - pounder is a relief pitcher now, and as Satch says, he has lost some of his old steam, but he "outcutes" the hitters.

Johnny Vander Meer Joining Tulsa Oilers

Tulsa, Okla., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Johnny Vander Meer, 37-year-old former hurler for the Cincinnati Reds, has been signed as a free agent with the Tulsa Oilers of the Texas League, Tulsa ball club President Grayle Howlett Jr. announced today.

LeRoy Jarvis, native Oklahoma catcher, was also signed by the Tulsa organization. He was acquired on option from Atlanta.

"I like the thought of pitching in that southwest heat," Vander Meer commented. He expects to start preliminary conditioning with the Cincinnati club when it reports to Tampa on Mar. 1, and will join Tulsa at its Eustis, Fla., training base Mar. 10.

Vander Meer was at Oakland in the Pacific Coast League last season.

REDSKINS LAUNCH SPRING FOOTBALL WORK TOMORROW

Northeast Expects Largest Pre - Season Talent Turnout

Spring football training for the Northeast Louisiana State Indians begins tomorrow with Coach James L. Malone, heading into his nineteenth season as Redskin mentor, due to greet the biggest turnout of talent in the school's history.

"The largest squad ever to attend spring training here will be returning," Coach Malone declared. "We'll have about 50 boys rearing to go and the outlook for next season is very good as we point for our second year in competition with senior colleges."

Actually, the training grind won't begin until Tuesday, but Malone will use tomorrow primarilly as "registration day" for the candidates for the team and at the same time issue equipment.

As to personnel changes or additions, Malone was ready to talk about only two possibilities—shifts affecting "Red" Nix and Tommy Wilson.

Nix, an Oak Grove High School product, spent his freshman year last season confined to duty as defensive halfback. Malone's current plan is to give the carrot-top a whirl as offensive fullback.

Wilson, the former Ouachita Parish High School girdder who performed magnificently at guard for Malone last fall, is going to be given a chance to handle the center assignments. Wilson is no stranger to the job. He played some center in high school.

PERRY MOSS NEW L. S. U. BACKFIELD MENTOR

LEAVES HUSKIES TO ACCEPT POST AS TINSLEY AIDE

McKeever's Successor Former Illini All-America

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 9. —(AP)— Louisiana State University today named Perry Moss of the University of Washington football staff as its new Tiger backfield coach.

PERRY MOSS

Selection of Moss, former All-America quarterback at the University of Illinois and a star in the 1947 Rose Bowl, was announced here by L. S. U. Athletic Director T. P. Heard.

A precision ace, the youthful, blond six - footer has been backfield mentor at Washington for the last two years.

He scampered across gridirons as an outstanding quarterback for Illinois and Tulsa University. At the University of Washington, Moss contributed to development of the Huskie backfield into one of the nation's best.

Moss will fill a vacancy created at L. S. U. Jan. 7 when Ed McKeever, Tiger assistant for three years, resigned to enter private business here.

The new backfield assistant pitches his tent in the Tiger camp at a time when the Bengals face the strongest football schedule in the school's history.

L. S. U. Coach Gaynell Tinsley said, "L. S. U. students, alumni and friends can feel proud that we have found a man who possesses the finest qualifications of the many outstanding candidates interviewed for the job."

Moss was invited here for interviews. Heard said last week he was being considered.

In Seattle, Coach Howie Odell of Washington lauded Moss as "one of the finest young backfield coaches in America today. He is a teacher who is concerned with every detail, realizing that preciseness is a coaching pennant never to be overlooked."

To L. S. U., Odell added, "I commend him to you without reservation, and realize only too well that L. S. U.'s gain is Washington's loss."

From Champagne, Ill., Ray Eliot, head football coach at Illinois, commented "I consider Perry Moss one of the finest young coaches I have ever had occasion to be associated with. . . .a man of high moral character and splendid personality."

Odell stressed that his departing aide has divided his time equally on backfield offense and defense.

A native of Tulsa, Okla., Moss entered Tulsa University in 1944 and played on the varsity in his freshman year under wartime rules. He was with the Golden Hurricane when it swept to victory over Georgia Tech in the 1945 Orange Bowl at Miami.

In military service later, Moss performed with the Keesler Field Fliers at Biloxi, Miss. from there, he went to the Illini, topped the team in scoring, handled all the air thrusts, punting and place kicking — and starred in the 45-14 rout of U. C. L. A. in the 1947 Rose Bowl.

He was All - America in 1946-47. Moss returned to the school in 1949 as freshman grid coach.

While quarterbacking with Keesler, he was in a pre - season scrimmage with L. S. U. during the reign of former Tiger Coach Bernie Moore.

'Flexible' Video Control Planned

Chicago, Feb. 9. —(AP)— The National Collegiate Athletic Association which made "honest mistakes" in its football television last fall plans a more flexible 1952 program within the limits of continued control.

The N. C. A. A.'s newly-appointed television committee today opened a two-day organizational meeting with an apparent broad mind on the controversial video subject.

Yale's Robert A. Hall, chairman, said the 10 - member group would take its time before drafting a specific program to be submitted to the N. C. A. A. membership for a referendum vote, probably in April. A two - thirds vote is required for approval.

The committee heard a review of the 1951 program, in which 20 games were telecast, by co-chairmen of last year's video committee, Tom Hamilton of Pittsburgh and Ralph Furey of Columbia.

"We have our directive from the N. C. A. A. membership at the recent Cincinnati convention," said Hall. "In substance, it means protection of attendance while at the same time offering the widest amount of football television."

John Mauer is in his first season as Florida's head basketball coach. A graduate of the University of Illinois, Mauer coached basketball at Kentucky, Tennessee and West Point before taking over the Gators.

SUN TAN GAL 1ST AT FAIR GROUNDS

Cops International 'Cap; Country Mile Wins Kenner

New Orleans, Feb. 9.—(AP)—Sun Tan Gal, a four - year - old chestnut filly, won the $5,000 International Handicap today at the New Orleans Fair Grounds, turning in a fine sprinting performance in one of the two big events of the day.

Country Mile took the $5,000 - added Duncan F. Kenner Stakes for two-year-old colts and geldings, with a stretch drive.

Sun Tan Gal, owned by I. D. Peat and ridden by L. C. Cook, broke well and stayed within reach of pace - setting Lilly Valenti during the first half - mile. She took over from Steve Valenti's entry at the head of the stretch and ran strong to win by a length, in the six - furlong event.

Lilly Valenti was second on a fine ride by Anthony Ferraiuolo, beating out False, which finished fast after a slow start under Earl Van Hook.

The favored Pictus, carrying top weight of 120 pounds, was never in contention.

Sun Tan Gal returned $5, $3.60 and $2.60. Lilly Valenti paid $4 and $2.80, while Mrs. N. M. Mikel's False paid $2.80.

Country Mile turned in a game finish to overtake Predictor in the stretch of the one - fourth mile Kenner Stakes, winning in 22 4-5 seconds.

Harry Allsman's Blenriam was third.

The winner paid $10, $6 and $4.40 Predictor returned $6 and $5, while Blenriam paid $4.60.

The 10,000 fans bet a total of $451,000 at the pari-mutuel windows.

Official reports required from hunters showed one out of eight bagged a deer in Indiana's three-day open season, the first in 58 years.

Don Rehfeldt of the Baltimore Bullets in the NBA set 13 individual scoring records at the University of Wisconsin.

SCOTT TO MEET SUGI HAYAMAKA IN SEMI-WINDUP

Kallio Improves Seating At Walnut Street Arena

Another championship bout is on tap for Tuesday night at Gus Kallio's Arena, when "Sockeye" McDonald, world's light heavyweight king, tangles with Ellis Bashara, the huge round man from Norman, Okla.

In the semi - final event Sugi Hayamaka will take on "Mighty" Scott in an hour time limit bout.

The championsip bout between McDonald and Bashara was arranged last week, during a championship match between Hayamaka and McDonald. Bashara entered the ring at the end of the second fall of the match and announced that he was challenging the winner.

Both wrestlers agreed, and McDonald went on to win the last fall a few seconds later, making short work of the little Japanese matman. McDonald has held the title only a short time, having taken it from Hayamaka in Shreveport slightly over two weeks ago.

McDonald, an ex - lumberjack from Oregon, is one of the toughest matmen ever to hold the title and it is almost impossible to make him surrender. He began bleeding from a cut over his eye in the first fall of last Tuesday's battle and lost the fall, but came back to take the next two in a total of five minutes wrestling time.

Bashara, a tough, squat tussler, may give McDonald a hard time, however, as he knows a little about wrestling himself and is not particular about his wrestling style.

In his bout with young "Bronco" Lubich here last week, he smeared soap on the back of his trunks and used it to rub in Lubich's eyes whenever the going got rough. He won the bout with a minimum of effort, although he lost one fall.

The records of Hayamaka and scott are both well known here, since both have appeared on Kallio's cards a good many times during the past few months. Both are good wrestlers and both are capable of using any trick to win a match. They — along with Jack Curtis and Bashara—are the leading contenders for the light-heavy title.

Kallio reported yesterday that plenty of seats have been added to take care of his customers, and that he had done away with standing up around the ring. "I have added a ring of general admission seats on the floor of the arena," said Kallio, "and have reserved one whole section of balcony seats for colored fans. Ringside seats and general admission seats will go at the usual price. The general admission seats on the floor level are placed behind the reserved seats and no one is allowed to stand in front of them."

MISS DORAN 1ST AT PALM BEACH

Stops Mary Ann Downey In Championship Finals

Palm Beach, Fla., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Claire Doran, Cleveland, O., beat Mary Ann Downey, Baltimore, Md., 2 and 1 today to win the 28th annual women's golf champion of Palm Beach.

Miss Doran took the lead at the second hole and was ahead of her 22-year-old opponent most of the time, driving longer from the tees and chipping more accurately.

Both survived a field of 98 to reach the finals in this 72-hole tournament over the 6,008 - yard Palm Beach Golf Club course where women's par is 35-37—72.

They staged an exciting seesaw battle on the last five holes of the outward nine. Miss Doran took the fourth, Miss Downey the fifth, Miss Doran the sixth and that's the way it went until the turn, with Miss Doran 1 up finally.

They halved the 10th, 11th, and 12th holes in par. Miss Doran won the 13th when Miss Downey's approach was short, but Mary Ann came right back with an eight-foot putt to win the 14th with a birdie.

They halved the 15th with birdies. Miss Doran took the 16th when Miss Downey's chip shot again was short of the green. That made it 2 up. They halved the 17th and it was Miss Doran's match, 2 and 1.

This was the first time either golfer had reached the finals in the Palm Beach tournament. Miss Doran was runner-up in the National Amateur last summer and Miss Downey was runner-up in the Helen Lee Doherty Women's Tournament at Miami last week.

The Community Bowling League in Wyoming, Ill., has a couple of bowlers who can take opposite sides of any question. They are Howard Yess and Clarence Noe.

Commercial Anglers Get Thousands Of Pounds Daily

Bayou DeSiard is yielding its crop of none-game fish at an estimated rate of about 6,000 pounds a day since commercial fishermen have been permitted in the past several days to move into the stream which has been restricted against commercial fishing for some time.

The Ouachita Fish and Game commission and state game wardens are supervising the commercial "take" which will be permitted until the commission feels the balance has been turned in favor of the game fish by removal of the surplus supply of coarse fish such as gar, buffalo, cat, and the huge turtles.

J. B. Thoman, president of the Ouachita unit of the Wildlife Federation, who has been keeping in close touch with the commercial operations, yesterday said "the commercial fishermen are doing a most satisfying job of helping to clean the rough fish from Bayou DeSiard.

Thoman said the bayou's yield is checked daily by Game Wardens Horace Buckley and G. M. Collins as well as members of the game and fish commission. He said the daily average take so far has been 3,000 pounds of buffalo, 2,000 pounds of gar, and 1,500 pounds of turtle. Approximately 25 commercial fishermen are tackling the supervised task.

"We feel that the removal of these rough fish will be to the benefit of sport fishermen who will find their game fishing greatly improved in the next few years," Thoman said.

Some of the loggerhead turtles removed were said to have weighed 100 to 150 pounds each.

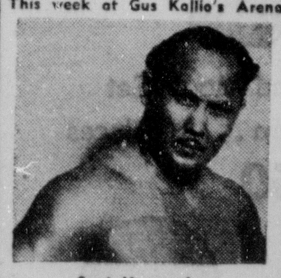

It was also reported yesterday that Leon DeLee at the fish hatchery near Lamkin that about 75,000 bass will be put into the developing ponds next month and later used to stock lakes and streams throughout this area.

MEET TUESDAY

A special meeting of the Ouachita unit of the Louisiana Wildlife Federation will be held Tuesday night, beginning at 7:30 o'clock, at Crosley Grammar School auditorium in West Monroe. A principal purpose for the meeting is to move ahead with plans for a game refuge in the D'Arbonne swamp area, J. B. Thoman, unit president, said.

Atty. Arnold Rayford will discuss procedure in obtaining such a preserve, and B. H. Howard, Union parish, will be a guest speaker who will probably tell of Union parish's own game preserve and how to go about uniting the proposed Ouachita preserve in D'Arbonne with that already in Union.

W. AND L. MENTOR JOINS TAR HEELS

Barclay Quits Generals To Assist Carl Snavely

Lexington, Va., Feb. 9. — (AP) — George Barclay, the T-formation wizard who in three years put Washington and Lee on the football map, resigned today as head coach at W. & L. to become an assistant to Carl Snavely at the University of North Carolina.

His veteran backfield coach and chief scout, Carl Wise, immediately was named to succeed him by the university's athletic committee.

"With great reluctance," Barclay said, he had finally made up his mind to accept a North Carolina offer "too good to pass up."

It had been rumored persistently for some time that he was thinking of tranferring to North Carolina, where he was an All-America guard in 1934. But before today Barclay always denied the reports.

Wise, who will succeed him here, has been on the W. & L. staff for six years. He came to Lexington in 1946 when Art Lewis—now coach at West Virginia University—was head mentor at W. & L. and stayed on to become Barclay's No. 1 helper.

Barclay arrived here in 1949, bringing with him the split-T tactics he learned from Jim Tatum as an assistant at the University of Maryland. His first team, that autumn, won only three games, lost five, tied one.

In 1950, the tide turned. Washington and Lee became one of the nation's "Cinderella Teams," winning eight of ten games and capturing its first Southern Conference championship in 16 years with a perfect 6-0 mark. The Generals played in the Gator Bowl at Jacksonville, Fla.

With many of 1950's regulars gone, Barclay still managed to win six and lose only four games last season.

Smith said Wise's appointment to succeed Barclay had "the unanimous approval" of the athletic committee.

"Both Barclay and myself feel that Carl will do a bang-up job," the athletic director said.

Wise's salary and the term of his contract were not disclosed. His appointment must be formally approved by the university board of trustees before it becomes final, but this is expected to be a formality.

Tourney Entries Closing Tuesday For 'A-C' Teams

Ruston, Feb. 9. — (Special) — Deadline for entries in Class A and Class C high school basketball tournaments at Louisiana Tech is Tuesday with tournament play scheduled Feb. 22-23, North Louisiana Rally Association officials have announced.

At present only three teams have submitted entries from Class A high schools, with 10 teams entered from Class C high schools. Both boys' and girls' teams will compete for honors at the rally tournaments at Tech.

Teams currently entered from Class A high schools include Vivian, Farmerville and Jonesboro.

Teams entered from Class C. high schools at present include Linville, Converse, Dubach, Eros, Bryceland, Marion, Epps, Bienville, Oak Ridge and Hico.

PHELAN TO LEAD DALLAS TEXANS

Newest Pro Football Town Retains Grid Yanks' Coach

Dallas, Feb. 9. —(AP)— Jimmy Phelan, the man who introduced the spread formation to professional football, was named coach of the Dallas Texans of the National Professional Football League today.

President Giles Miller of the Texans announced the appointment of Phelan after an almost non-stop two-day meeting of the directors of the club. They also confirmed Frank Fitzgerald as general manager.

"It's the smartest move we could have made," Fitzgerald said, "Jimmy knows the team and we can start off the first day of training by running plays."

Phelan, a graduate of Notre Dame, was coach of the New York Yanks last season before the club was moved to Dallas and renamed the Texans.

He brought the spread formation to the league last year and it quickly was embraced by several other teams. The formation should appeal to thousands of southwest fans who have been enthralled by spreads used by Leo (Dutch) Meyer at Texas Christian and H. N. (Rusty) Russell at Southern Methodist.

Miller declined to say how much Phelan would be paid. "His salary won't be the highest or the lowest in the league," Miller said. Phelan's contract will run at least a year and Miller said," the directors feel it will be longer than that."

SPARTAN VALOR EASILY CLAIMS M'LENNAN 'CAP

Mass O'Gold Runs Second; Favored Greek Ship 7th

Miami, Fla., Feb. 9. —(AP)— The fast - breaking Spartan Valor, placed in the number one post position he likes so well, broke first out of the starting gate and never gave way as he scored a gallant decision over 14 of the best thoroughbreds in the east in today's $25,000 added McLennan Handicap at Hialeah race track.

The four-year-old colt, a 9-5 choice of the audience of 23,529, shattered Hialeah's record for a mile and a furlong in his all-the-way conquest of a classy field that had captured 15 of the nation's major stake races last year.

In collecting a purse of 26,850 for William G. Helis Jr., Spartan Valor spurted the distance in 1:47 1-5 to clip two-fifths of a second off the track record established by the mighty Coaltown in 1949. His time was just two-fifths of a second slower than the world record set by Noor at Golden Gate in 1950.

River Divide farm's Mass O' Gold, a rank 50-1 outsider in the fast company of the McLennan, took second place early and clung to it doggedly to the finish line, but never seriously threatened as Spartan Valor beat him by two lengths.

Hampton stable's Alerted, winner of $101,285 last year but a disappointment so far in 1952 was third, five lengths behind Mass O' Gold.

Brookmeade stable's Greek Ship, second favorite at 3-1 in the McLennan, wilted under 124 pounds and the terrific pace of Spartan Valor and finished seventh.

Backers of Spartan Valor, now a three time winner in four starts at Hialeah this winter, collected $5.90, $4.60 and $3.80. Mass O' Gold, recently claimed for $20,000, paid $24.40 and $12.30. Alerted was worth $7.70 to show.

Jimmy Stout rode Spartan Valor to his sensational victory.

Ashburn Gets Pay Boost With Phils

Tilden, Nebr., Feb. 9.—(AP)—Towheaded Richie Ashburn, the "Nebraska Comet" of the Philadelphia Phillies outfield, has signed a 1952 contract calling for a raise in pay.

Neither Ashburn nor the Phils, who made the announcement tonight, would say what salary the contract promises.

Told that the estimates of Phils followers run from $19,000 to $20,000, Ashburn said that "would be a pretty close guess either way."

The contract was the second sent him. He returned the first one.

Ashburn and Robin Roberts are the only Phils getting pay raises this year.

Ashburn just wouldn't talk about his own prospects for 1952 other than to say "I'll be trying all right."

Last year he was second in the National League in batting with a .344 average, his best in the four seasons he has spent in the majors. His 221 hits led both leagues and his 29 stolen bases was second in both leagues.

The hard-working center fielder was voted Philadelphia's "most valuable" major league baseball player in a poll conducted by the Philadelphia Bulletin last year.

Detectives Book 3 For Burglary

Monroe detectives yesterday arrested three persons wanted for questioning in connection with a burglary of the home of Mrs. T. F. Bunch, 207 South Fifth street, Friday night. Mrs. Bunch reported tools valued at $10 missing from her back porch later the same night.

Ben Duverney, 60, 1019 North Liberty street, New Orleans. Kenneth Tommy Adams, 40, Columbia, Miss., and Forest C. Warton, 57, Moffat, Texas, were booked by city detectives and transferred to the parish jail.

Duverney was picked up by city detectives yesterday morning and while being questioned, implicated the two others, who allegedly had the stolen tools, according to Captain Hugh L. Tolbert. Duverney was said to have told the officers where the missing tools were and the whereabouts of the other men.

Investigating officers said that Duverney had told them the tools, a brace and bit and emery wheel, were hidden in the woods near the Illinois Central Railroad yards. After the officers had recovered the tools, they were told by men working in the rail yards that the two men, whom they described, had boarded an east-bound freight train.

Local officers contacted Delhi Chief of Police Herschell Morris, who apprehended the two men and held them for Monroe detectives.

Tolbert said charges would be filed against the three men Monday.

Eight Men Join U. S. Navy Here

They are: Courtney Hamilton Smith, 17, 708 Alabama st. Monroe; Lawrence "L" Thorn, 18, Columbia Road. Monroe: David Lee Baird, 17, 226 S. Grand, Monroe; Billie Gene Barnes, 19, 3904 Lee Ave., Monroe; John Samuel Mims, 19, 1004 S. 1st. Monroe; Augusta Johnson, 505 Vicksburg st. Monroe; Kenneth Ray Heath, 17, Rt. No. 4, West Monroe; Bobbie E. Rayner, 18, Rt. No. 3 West Monroe. All have been transferred to the naval training center in San Diego, Calif., for recruit training prior to assignment to a naval activity for duty.

Applications for enlistment in the navy are being taken daily in room 303 post office building, Monroe. Men who have had their preinduction physicals, but not a call for induction, may still enlist in the navy. There are many vacancies for women applicants for the WAVES. Applicants for the WAVES must be unmarried, ages 18 to 26, and high school graduates. For free pamphlets and further information about the WAVES, write your local recruiting office.

to investigate."

The subcommittee report to the house told this story of the latest episode:

In the fall of 1951, the navy called for bids for specific types of water distillation units for isolated areas. Cleaver - Brooks was the only company with an approved pilot model of one main type, but its competitors did not know that.

"The delivery schedules called for by the navy were such that it would have been virtually impossible to meet the delivery dates without" the navy's advance approval of a model, the report said.

After protests, the specifications were changed to call for 288 units of a machine with a capacity of 83 gallons an hour. The report said these were the bids: Cleaver-Brooks, $8,123 each M. E. Co. $7,156.19 each; Refinite, $6,987.

The army engineers' office at Philadelphia, handling the contract, recommended accepting the M. E. Co. bid, the report said. But, it added, the navy advised the engineers "to award the contract to Cleaver-Brooks on the basis of present capacity, delivery dates and approval of existing model."

The subcommittee then protested. Specifications again were changed, easing the deliver period but requiring, for the first time, a surety bond, the report said.

It reported these new bids: M. E. Co., $7,401.34 a unit; Refinite, $7,058.68; Cleaver - Brooks, $6,685 each for 114 units to be delivered within 180 days and $6,385.85 each for the balance, to be delivered within 360 days.

"It is plain to see that the subcommittee's prompt intervention and the personal attention given by the (navy's) chief of the bureau of yards and docks" brought down the bids, the report said.

It added that the navy has asked "a re - examination by the renegotiation board of other contracts of this company"—Cleaver-Brooks.

MOURNING

der the soaring 14th century oak hammerbeam roof before the king is buried Friday with his ancestors in St. George's Chapel at Windsor Castle.

This solemn ritual which is still to come contrasts sharply with the simple scene in the little church of St. Mary Magdalene on the royal Sandringham estate where the king lay at rest today.

There in the peace and quiet of the Norfolk countryside where he was born and where he died, George VI received the homage of the people on whom he was not only king, but also their squire.

His body will remain there tomorrow when, throughout Britain and the Commowealth, from cathedral to village church, nations will offer up their prayers.

Monday the coffin will be carried from Sandringham to the Wolverton station nearby to be placed aboard a four-car funeral train for the 130-mile journey to London.

The late king's brother, the Duke of Gloucester, and the queen's husband, the duke of Edinburgh, will walk behind the coffin on its last journey through the estate.

The queen, the queen mother and Princess Margaret will go to the station by car.

The royal party will travel on the funeral train. Thousands of Britons are expected to line the tracks to watch the passing of the somber-hued coaches.

Already the gloomy arches of London's King's Cross Station, where the train will end its journey, are draped in black.

As guards of honor from the nation's three armed services snap to attention, the coffin will be lifted from the train by one officer and ten men of the king's company, grenadier guards. The imperial state crown, gleaming with diamonds and pearls estimated worth $849,000, will be placed on the coffin.

Then will begin a solemn journey through hushed crowds paying their mute tokens of homage. The Dukes of Gloucester and Edinburgh will walk behind the gun carriage which will carry the body to Westminster Hall.

At the hall the body will be received by a group of dignitaries including the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord Great Chamberlain and the hereditary Earl Marshal of England.

Members of both houses of parliament, lords and commons alike, also will gather in the hall to take part in a short service.

FIRE ALARMS

Three grass fire alarms were reported to the Monroe Fire Department yesterday. No damage was reported in any of the blazes.

aging two more of the Communist jets.

Fierce but brief patrol skirmishes were reported Saturday at several points along the 155 mile battlefront, where temperatures continued mild for the third day.

Elements of a Communist platoon attacked two U. N. advance positions northwest of Kumhwa on the central front. The probing attack was repulsed in a 45 minute firefight in which the U. N. troops used small arms, automatic weapons, mortar and artillery fire.

In another fight on the central front a U. N. patrol threw hand grenades and small arms fire at a Communist unit southeast of Pyonggang. Twenty five Reds were reported killed before the U. N. patrol broke off contact and returned to its base.

Saturday's claims brought the Fifth air force totals in the Korean war to 183 MIGs destroyed, 34 probably destroyed and 363 damaged.

Allied losses for the week ended Friday were listed as nine planes, including one Sabre shot down in a dogfight. Seven of the planes were shot down by Communist ground fire and an eighth was lost because of mechanical trouble.

The Red radio at Pyongyang still blared out threats—this time urging the Korean Reds to build up their strength for possible future large-scale air battles and air raids on U. N. held territory in South Korea.

The radio quoted Korean Red Defense Minister Choi Yong Kun. It was another militant Korean Communist statement marking the fourth anniversary of the founding of the Soviet - equipped Korean Red army.

In contrast, statements by Red Chinese commanders have been soft-pedalling any suggestion that the armistice talks will fail.

was shot down on the sidewalk near his home. Seven shotgun blasts tore into his body.

Andrew Aitken, chief of detectives, said policemen have conducted a door - to - door canvass of the neighborhood without finding a witness. Aitken said questioning of precinct captains, election judges and clerks likewise failed to provide a clue.

However, O'Connor said the police will not give up. "We've solved worse crimes than this," he said. "I've got the very best men in the department working on this case."

State Sen. Peter Miller, Republican who is a candidate for committeeman from the 36th ward, obtained a police bodygurad.

The Chicago Herald - American, in the second front page editorial on the case in two days, said the slaying "has aroused the decent people of Chicago to a degree of indignation that can blast the gangsters out of politics, if it is efficiently directed — and if it lasts."

Gross' killing was the ninth political assassination in Chicago in 25 years. Seven of the eight previous slaying are unsolved.

The Herald - American said it learned from a friend of Gross that the slain man was threatened a week before his death in an effort to get him to withdraw his candidacy.

Police also are investigating a report that Gross "ran through" $20,000 in a short while. Ald. Thomas E. Keane said he loaned Gross $6,500 in 1349 and 1950 but that Gross had paid back only $1,500. Gross also reportedly sold his $22,000 home less than a year ago.

House Group Says Waste Plagues VA

Washington, Feb. 9. —(AP)— A house committee declared today that "graft and waste. . .plagued the program" for giving veterans vocational training under the GI Bill of Rights, and said many government employes accepted bribes or other favors.

It said in a report to the house that "an excessive number" of Veterans Administration employes took "bribes, gifts' unusual loans, gratuities, services and ownership in schools."

Reporting that at the college level the program "has been carried out successfully," the special committee headed by Representative Teague (D.-Tex.) centered its fire primarily on the smaller vocational schools, many of them set up after the GI bill was approved.

"There is no doubt that hundreds of millions of dollars have been frittered away on worthless training," the committee said.

On the basis of an investigation which started early last year, the committee said, however, that a majority of the seven and a half million veterans who took GI Bill training benefited from the program.

The abuses, it said, could be attributed to "certain unscrupulous schools and individuals," a few government employes who yielded to their temptations, and to a small minority of veterans.

Of the last group, the report said, many veterans took courses "for the obvious purpose of securing subsistence payments rather than a bona fide interest in training."

And it said "a minority of veterans have conspired" to obtain benefits to which they were not entitled, while others "engaged extensively in the practice of selling or pawning the tools issued them for training purposes" at government expense.

V. A. itself did not exercise adequate control over these "irresponsible veterans," the committee said. It added that many institutions "in all fields of education took advantage of the lack of regulation and supervision to adopt unreasonable supply requirements and excessive charge practices."

WEST ASKED

German troops added to General Dwight D. Eisenhower's NATO command they will face strong demands for cutting appropriations.

Evidence supporting their belief that came yesterday from Chairman Richards (D.-S. C.) of the house foreign affairs committee after Acheson had testified in a closed session.

Richards said the kind of foreign aid program enacted this year would depend upon the degree of unity accomplished in western Europe.

Acheson was able to give the committee only the limited assurance that he hoped everything possible would be done. Actually the basic decisions will be made not at the NATO council in Lisbon but by the French and West German governments either before or after that session.

FRANCE BALKING

goes through the same operation, although a vote is not expected before Tuesday or Wednesday.

A spokesman said that in his speech Monday Foreign Minister Robert Schuman would "take into account" the conecss onwis teadn account" the concessions wanted by Germany as a condition to rearming with the west.

The French want British and American guarantees of support in the event Germany, having drilled its new army along with other member armies, might choose to pull out and go its own way. What France most fears now is that West Germany, in a reckless desire to bring Russian - occupied Germany back into the fold, might seek to do it by force.

"That would not only involve France, but the United States and all Europe as well," a highly placed source argued.

The French position is shared by some British in high places, and by some Americans.

The French informant indicated that the government was willing to adopt, in a measure, the British attitude about entry of Germany into the North Atlantic Treaty Organization. This that the door should not be shut in Germany's face, but that the former enemy should be required to give proof, at least for two years, that she is prepared to work peacefully with the west for solution of pending problems.

WEST AGREES TO

Allied troops. It would take many a kink out of production and supply problems and would knit cooperating armies of the various member nations closer together in combat. But some experts feel that selection of a single new rifle may take some years.

The British have been urging hotly that the new .280 caliber rifle they have designed be adopted as the standard piece for the western defense setup. The United States backs the .30 caliber gun used by American and Canadian armies. The Belgians and French also have produced new rifles they would like to see made the standard weapon.

The military committee will start discussing issues to be brought up in the meeting of the NATO council here. That meeting was postponed until Feb. 20 because of the death of Britain's King George VI.

The Big Three foreign ministers plan to meet in London Feb. 16—the day after they attend the British monarch's funeral—to discuss "German questions" and the agenda for the council meeting here.

Unofficial sources at Supreme Headquarters Allied Powers in Europe, (SHAPE) said today NATO Commander Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower is not expected to attend the council meeting in Lisbon.

The difficulties facing these governments, which like the Truman administration have their own parliamentary troubles, are deep-rooted:

1. France is afraid of a resurgence of aggressive German nationalism once the Germans begin to rearm.

2. West Germany wants assurance that if its troops are to participate in NATO it will have a voice in NATO decisions, involving the lives of its men and the security of its country.

win this election," Kennon said.

"But we don't want anybody to let down," he continued. "It's just like a baseball game, when a player on your side hits a home run. That player won't get credit for that home run and his team won't get credit for it unless he runs around and touches all the bases.

"Well, that's just what the independent voters of this state had better do on Feb. 19 — go to the polls and vote, just to be sure that we're not passing up second base."

Governor Long was campaigning for Spaht at Winnfield. He said that if the rest of the world had the kind of humanitarian government that Louisiana now enjoys, "we would have no need to fear communism, Hitlerism or any other kind of ism.

"You know what you have got now," Long said. "Do you want to take a chance on what you will get if you elect Bob Kennon? Do you think this is any time to gamble on the future?

"Who do you think Bob Kennon will work for if he ever should be elected governor, the people of Louisiana or the chosen few who are putting up the money in an attempt to elect him governor?" Long asked.

ITALY REJECTS

Council meeting in Paris on Feb. 6, the representative of the Soviet government vetoed approval of a French resolution recommending to the general assembly the admission of Italy. This recommendation had been requested by the general assembly on Dec. 7, 1951, with an imposing manifestation. And notwithstanding that all the security council members with the exception of the U. S. S. R. declared themselves in favor of the French proposal for Italy's admission."

(The vote in the general assembly in favor of admitting Italy was 54 for, five against, and one abstention. The five opposing were Russia, White Russia, the Ukraine, Poland and Czechoslovakia. The big power veto applies only in the security council.)

PARVIN WINK

Miss Mary Bryant of Bawcomville, a waitress at the Triangle Cafe, to his car and told her he wanted to tell her good-gye.

Miss Bryant told Dr. French she heard three shots fired and began running.

She said Wink drove to the drive-in between 11:30 p. m. and 12 a. m. and ordered a sandwich and seven-Up. Afterwards he called her over to the car to tell her good-bye.

Dr. French said Wink left no note and there was no apparent reason for the shooting.

The pistol was described by Dr. French as a .25 caliber automatic. He asserted that six empty shells were found in the car and one live bullet in the pistol. There were five exits in Wink's body, the coroner said.

His body was taken to Hall Funeral Home. Dr. French said his top shirt and under shirt were both burned from the gun powder.

Funeral services for Wink will be held at 2 p.m. today in the Lapine Methodist Church with Rev. C. J. Brooks and Rev. C. C. Martin officiating. Interment will follow in the Lapine Cemetery under the direction of the Hall Funeral Home.

He is survived by his father, P. F. Wink; and five brothers, Willie T., Harmon, J. L., Webb, and Parker Wink, all of West Monroe.

Oil Discovery In Ark. Claimed

New Orleans, Feb. 9.—(AP)—The Times - Picayune reported tonight Shell Oil Company has indications of a new shallow oil discovery in Columbia county, Arkansas, almost along the Louisiana-Arkansas boundary.

The newspaper said the prospective discovery is near acreage owned by International Paper Company on the east with some south and west. The company's mill site near Springhill, Webster parish, Louisiana, has already been leased for exploration, the newspaper said.

It further reported that:

Shell cored a promising sand in the Tokio formation at 3106-3116 feet and recovered sand and a reportedly good oil show.

Operators ran a 30-minute drill stem test at 3108-3116 feet and recovered 2480 feet of oil of 38.9 gravity. No salt water was observed.

Bottom hole flowing pressure was 550 pounds and the shut-in bottom hole pressure was 1225 pounds.

The well was planned to reach the Smackover formation and operators intend to drill to about 11,100 feet. Today the well was below 3800 feet.

Miss Katie Lou Parker To Wed C. L. Strang, Jr.

Wedding Will Take Place At St. John Catholic Church In Beaver Falls, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Parker, of Hodge, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Katie Lou, of Beaver Falls, Penn., formerly of Hodge, La., to Mr. C. L. Strang, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Strang, Sr. also of Beaver Falls, Pa.

The wedding will take place at three o'clock in the afternoon April 6th in St. John Catholic Church with Rev. Harold A. Gandine, S. J. officiating.

The bride-elect will be attended by her aunt, Mrs. Elmer J. Soles of Beaver Falls as matron of honor. Miss Peggy Velicker, Miss Beverly Johns, Miss Gewen Smith, Miss Shron Colvin and Miss Betty Soles, all of Pittsburgh, Pa., will serve as bridesmaids.

Little Miss Linda J. Soles, cousin of the bride will be flower girl and Master Dickey Bundy ring bearer.

E. R. Boon will serve as best man and Dayton Attaway, Sgt. Charles Vanderburg, Foster Sparks and John Harden all of Pittsburgh will serve as ushers.

The bride-elect is descended on the maternal side from Mrs. Della McConathy and the late Carol McConathy of Bienville parish. She is at the present making her home with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Soles. Mrs. Soles will be remembered before her marriage as Miss Aline McConathy of Hodge. Mr. Soles will give his niece in marriage.

Mr. Strang received his B. S. degree in 1950.

The bride - elect has chosen a gown of lustrous white slipper satin in daintily appliqued with imported Chantilly lace. The gown is fashioned with a yolk of illusion around which the lace makes a delicate design and extends over the entire bodice and into the skirt which ends into a cathedral train. The long snug fitting bodice ends in a point in the back and front. Tiny satin covered buttons fasten the back of the bodice. Her fingertip veil of illusion is attached to a white satin coronet, outlined with clusters of seed pearls. She has chosen white satin slippers and on her hands she will wear tiny matching lace gloves. She will carry a white prayer book centered with a white, purple-throated orchid with a shower of liiy of the valley lilies and tuberoses from which will fall cascades of satin ribbon tied in true love knots.

For going away the bride has chosen a lovely brown gabardine suit with matching accessories. She will wear an orchid corsage. Immediately following the ceremony, a reception will be held in the home of the brides' aunt, Mrs. Elmer J. Soles. The couple will leave for their wedding trip to Pensacola, Fla., and Havana, Cuba. They will make their home in Beaver Falls, Pa. where the bride - elect is employed by the Westinghouse Electric Company in Vanport. Mr. Strang is employed by the Spang Chaffront, Inc. of Cambridge.

ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCED

Miss Katie Lou Parker, of Beaver Falls, Pr., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Parker, of Hodge, whose engagement and approaching marriage to C. L. Strang, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Strang, Sr., also of Beaver Falls, is announced today. The wedding will be held April 6 in Beaver Falls.

MANGHAM LITERARY CLUB MEETS WITH MRS. TRAYLOR JONES

At the January meeting of the Mangham Literary Club, the members and guest were entertained in the home of Mrs. Traylor Jones, with Mrs. Noble Ellington serving as co - hostess. Those present were served, soon after their arrival, a tantalizing supper, consisting of hot tamale pie, a crisp salad, and coffee. The tamale pie is a speciality of Mrs. Katherine Givens of Mangham and the hostesses greatly appreciate her desire to serve "something different."

The topic for discussion was "Spotlight on the United States Today." Mrs. Bennie Boughton, legislation chairman, and leader for the night turned the program over to Mrs. Maning Boughton whose duty was to give a panel forum on parliamentary procedure. Mrs. Boughton had secured the help of Mr. J. C. Letlow, agriculture teacher in the Mangham high school, and a team of his boys who exemplified parliamentary procedure. The boys were - James Lawrence, Jesse Lee, Bobby Laird, John David Boughton, Huey Graham and Shelton Sharbono. John David acted as chairman and the discussion was "Whether or not to have a chicken barbecue." The club members were amused by the discussion yet received much valuable information, for the boys carried on their discussion in a manner strictly in obeyance with parliamentary law. The club was grateful to Mr. Letlow and the boys for coming to the club meeting, for as they admitted it was not all fun to enter into a gathering composed of "just women."

Mrs. Bennie Hixon gave an interesting discussion, on America, Good and Bad, which was a timely talk and one that is of interest to all.

The club collect was read in unison.

The annual business meeting was held at which time the nominating committee submitted their suggestions for club officers for the coming year. The club voted to accept these.

The meeting was dismissed and will meet in February at the home of Mrs. Annette Coolidge.

The Cypress 4-H Club Has Meeting

The Cypress 4-H Club met recently with Kenny Wagoner, president. The minutes of the last meeting were read by Georgia Ruth Owens. The program chairman Wanda Sue Head had charge of the program.

After this Mrs. Dawson met with the girls and gave them much valuable information on how to set a table for a meal to be served properly. She also showed and gave pamphlets on table manners.

Mr. Aycock met with the boys during this time.

Miss Peggy Meredith Is Bride Of Patrick Brady

Impressive Ceremony Is Solemnized At First Methodist Church Of Jonesboro

At three o'clock in the afternoon of January 20, the First Methodist Church, of Jonesboro, was the scene of a lovely wedding, uniting Miss Peggy Meredith and Mr. Patrick Brady in marriage, with the Rev. G. A. Morgan, Hodge, performing the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Meredith of Jonesboro and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. V. Brady, of Monroe.

At the altar, multiple Cathedral candelabra entwined with fern and white satin ribbon held pale blue tapers before a background of palms and other greenery. On either side stood standards of white gladioli and springeria ferns. The reserved pews were also marked with sprays of the white gladioli and satin ribbon.

The bride was preceded down the aisle by the matron-of-honor, her sister, Mrs. G. W. Horton, Jr., and the bridesmaids, Mrs. Don Lindsey of Bernice and Miss Dorothy Allen of Jonesboro. They wore identical gowns of baby blue taffeta with stoles and headdress of matching nylon net. They carried crescent shaped bouquets of pale yellow carnations held together with yellow tulle and satin ribbon. The flower girls, little Misses Mary Frances Horton and Winnie Graham Brady also wore miniature replicas of the bridesmaids' dresses in baby blue.

Ringbearer was Master Elmo Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Merrell Cox of Jonesboro.

Mr. J. L. Edwards, of Monroe, served the groom as best man and ushers were G. W. Horton, Jr., of Jonesboro and J. W. Landrum, Monroe.

Mrs. Howard E. Hearne, organist, rendered selections of nuptial music and accompanied Mr. Irving Zeidman, of Monroe, who sang "I Love You" and "The Lord's Prayer."

The candlelighters, Misses Leah Tabarlet and Dana Hearne were dressed in replicas of the bridesmaids' dresses with net stoles caught up with yellow baby chrysanthemums.

The bride entered with her father who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in a floor length gown of ice blue lace over net and satin. Tiny self covered buttons fastened the front of the closely fitted bodice with mandarin collar and long sleeves ending in lily points over the hands. Her elbow length veil of illusion fell from a coronet of ice blue lace. She carried a bridal bouquet of white gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the home of the bride. Greeting the guests at the door were Mrs. A. A. Meredith and Mrs. V. Brady. The bride, the groom, and the feminine members of the wedding party formed a receiving line in the front of a flower - banked mantel in the living room.

In the dining room, the bride's table held a handsome crystal punch bowl at one end and at the other, the wedding confection decorated with pale yellow roses and outlined with a ruffle of tulle. In the center of the table was a silver bowl of white tulips and candytuft flanked on either side by silver candelabra holding white tapers and tied with bows of white satin. Crystal trays held miniature cakes embossed with tiny yellow roses. Those assisting in the courtesies of the dining room were Mrs. Howard Kenner of Mulberry, Ark., Mrs. John E. Richardson of New Orleans, Mrs. W. T. Holloway and Mrs. H. W. Ayres of Jonesboro.

For traveling the bride wore a wool tailleur in lavendar, with black accessories and a corsage of baby orchids.

Cypress Club Has February Meeting

The Cypress Home Demonstration Club met at the club house recently. Mrs. H. A. Johnson was hostess to the group with Mrs. G. F. Owens leading the song "In the Garden." Mrs. Hilton Owens gave the invocation, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag.

Mrs. D. D. Head read the minutes of the last meeting and called the roll. During the business Mrs. B. H. Crawford was appointed "family life leader" and the old scrapbook was looked at and discussed. Plans were made to begin a new scrapbook.

Mrs. Speilman assisted by Mrs. E. D. McGrew measured and weighed each person present to determine those who were overweight.

Reports were given by the leaders on gardening, poultry, clothing and consumer education.

Mrs. Speilman gave a talk and demonstration on beauty through good nutrition. She pointed out the many dangers of overweight, especially in the middle age.

Mrs. D. D. Head and Mrs. B. H. Crawford gave a report on the council meeting.

Refreshments were served to the club members and visitors present.

Miss Mary Ann Davis Is Bride Of Bobby Evans

Bridal Couple Exchange Vows Of Impressive Service At The Home Of The Bride's Parents In Ruston

A candlelight ceremony characterized by elegant simplicity united in marriage Miss Mary Ann Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Galen A. Davis, of Ruston, and Mr. Bobby Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddie Evans, also of Ruston.

The marriage ceremony was performed in the home of the bride on January 29th at five o'clock in the afternoon by the Rev. R. R. Branton, pastor of the Trinity Methodist Church at Ruston in the presence of relatives and close friends.

Candles, placed in wrought - iron cathedral candelabra, garlanded in flowers, were lighted by Miss Martha Charlotte Green of Ruston.

The living room, in which the wedding vows were exchanged, was transformed into a replica of a small chapel. The colonial fireplace was banked with southern smilax and a lavish arrangement of white gladioli, stock, small white chrysanthemums and white camellias centered on the mantle. Cascading from this arrangement were graceful garlands of specimen white camellias. Tall twin floor standards, holding fan shaped arrangements of flowers in delicate shades of pink were placed on either side of the mantle in four low standards, linked with bridal white holding colonial bouquets of white camellias and chrysanthemums outlined the area of the bridal party.

Soft nuptial music was played by Mrs. Alex T. Hunt of Ruston. Mrs. Robert U. Parrott, Alexandria, sang "Because" by D'Ardelst before the rendition of the traditional wedding march by Loenghrins.

Mr. Davis gave his daughter in marriage and walked with her to the bridal dieu where the groom awaited with his father, who served him as best man.

The bride, radiantly beautiful was gowned in a dress of candlelight ivory duchess satin fashioned with a yoke of sheer illusion which formed a florentine neckline and was edged by a wide band of handrum alencon lace. The tightly moulded bodice was complimented by long tight sleeves which came to petal points over her hands. The extremely full flared skirt accented by appliques of alencon lace extended in soft folds from the V shaped waistline to a wide fan-shaped train. She wore a Juliet cap fashioned of illusion and pearls and carried a bouquet formed from lilies of the valley and Holland lilac centered with a white orchid. She chose a single strand of pearls, belonging to her mother, as her only ornament.

The maid of honor, Miss Yvonne Brett, of Monroe, wore a ballerina length rose model of net and taffeta with pearl trim featuring an off the shoulder neckline and closely fitted bodice. Miss Toni Barksdale, Ruston, wore a powder blue dress identical to that of the maid of honor. Both attendants carried crescent colonial bouquets of pink roses and stephanotis, tied with cream lace and pink satin streamers.

Miss Alice Roane, Ruston, junior bridesmaid, and little Miss Linda Lanette Davis, of Magnolia, Ark., wore identical dresses of shell pink taffeta with fitted empire bodices scalloped necklines and bouffant floor length skirts. Miss Roane carried a colonial bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis while the small flower girl carried a basket of pink roses.

Attendants wore identical halos of pink horsehair braid and velvet tubing with a cluster of pink roses at the side.

All participants in the wedding, with the exception of the maid of honor and junior bridesmaid, were cousins of the bride.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon dress of navy and white silk organza and taffeta with rhinestone trim. Mrs. Davis chose a gardenia corsage to compliment the original model.

Mrs. Evans, mother of the groom, wore an afternoon dress of lilac crepe with lace trim heightened by a corsage of Dutch iris.

After the vows were spoken the young couple and their attendants formed a receiving line where they received the fond wishes of relatives and friends.

The bride is a graduate of Ruston High School and Louisiana Polytechnic Institute. She is a member of Kappa Delta social sorority. Mr. Evans is also a graduate of Ruston High School and attended Louisiana Polytechnic Institute before entering the United States navy.

Houseparty

The wedding house party was composed of Mrs. M. B. Riser, the grandmother of the groom, Mrs. V. M. Davis, Mrs. R. W. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Laurine E. Davis, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Laskey, Dr. and Mrs. Paul M. Davis, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin T. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Alex T. Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Green, Mrs. Allen Barksdale, Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Riser, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Riser, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Riser, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Cupp, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. J. Lewis, Dr. and Mrs. Henry S. Roane, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hunt, Mr. and Mrs. Travis Melton, Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Richardson, Mrs. A. H. Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Naylor.

Reception

Following the wedding ceremony a reception was also held in the home. A floor length cloth of bridal illusion, over white satin, covered the bride's table. Garlands of maiden hair fern, gracefully festooned the table, held in place with nosegays of white camellias, violets and lace. Silver candelabra holding white tapers burned on either side of an exquisite arrangement of pale pink snapdragons, candytuft, white camellias and pink ranunculi, surrounded by nosegays of violets.

The bride and groom cut a beautiful three tiered wedding cake placed at the end of the bride's table. The three tiered green and white confection was embossed with lilies of the valley and roses. A small basket, holding lilies, placed on half tier at the top of the cake, repeated the theme. Alba plena and alta superba camellias were placed around the delicately embossed wedding cake and punch bowl.

Mrs. Laurin E. Davis, Magnolia, Ark., and Mrs. Millard T. Sanders, Pauls Valley, Okla., alternated at the punch bowl. Mrs. Clarence Ford, Oklahoma City, Okla., presided at the cake service.

Mrs. James Ferguson, Shreveport, presided over the bride's book.

Immediately following the ceremony the young couple left on a short wedding trip. Mrs. Evans chose as her going away suit an original model of silver grey trimmed in white pique. Her accessories were navy and white complimented by a navy spring hat with velvet trim. She wore the white orchid from her bouquet.

The couple will be at home at 1007 Park avenue in Monroe.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. James L. Ferguson, Shreveport Mrs. Clarence Ford, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mr. and Mrs. Laurin E. Davis, Jr., and daughter, Lanette, Magnolia, Ark., Mrs. M. L. Sanders and daughter Jeanie Bell, Pauls Valley, Okla., Mrs. Nancy Jane Brett, Monroe; Dr. and Mrs. George W. Wright, Monroe; Mrs. Irene Sims Reid, Monroe. Dr. and Mrs. Robert W. Parrott and children, Robert Davis, Mary Charlotte and John, Alexandria; Mrs. Anna G. Laskey, Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mrs. Mac Davis, Alexandria; Mrs. John H. Dennis, Hodge; Mrs. Grace Love, Hodge; Miss Janice Dennis, Jonesboro; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Evans, Monroe; Mr. and Mrs. W. Rupert Sledge, Arcadia; Miss Yvonne Lusk, Monroe; Miss Betty Waddill, Monroe; Miss Marsha Emmons, Monroe.

Rehearsal Supper

Following the rehearsal Monday evening, January 28, for the wedding of Miss Mary Ann Davis and Bobby Evans on Tuesday, January 29, Mrs. Allen Barksdale, Mrs. J. C. Ritchie, Mrs. A. T. Hunt, Mrs. L. F. Green and Mrs. Marvin Green, all cousins of the bride-elect entertained at a buffet supper in the home of Mrs. Allen Barksdale.

A pink and white color scheme was carried out in the artistic arrangements which decorated the house.

Lavender pink magnolia soulangena were placed effectively at vantage points in the library, and in the living room pink gladioli, heather and magnolia soulangena were combined to form a striking display on the piano and end tables.

In the dining room the supper table was covered with a white appliqued organdy cloth and was centered with a lovely colonial bouquet fashioned of pink carnations and white chrysanthemums. This was placed upon a crystal cake stand from which fell pink satin streamers in shower effect. Silver candelabra holding tall white tapers were placed at each end of the table. A crystal epergne filled with pink carnations and white candytuft adorned the buffet.

Guests were seated at quartet tables in the living room and library. The small tables were covered with white cutwork cloths and held dainty nosegays of pink and white carnations, candytuft and daisies.

During the dessert course the bride-elect presented her bridal attendants, with exquisite strands of pearls.

Present on the occasion were: Miss Mary Ann Davis, Mr. Bobby Evans, Miss Yvonne Brett, Miss Toni Barksdale, Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Eddie Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Laurin E. Davis, Jr., Miss Lanette Davis, Mrs. Clarence Ford, Mrs. Millard Sanders, Rev. and Mrs. Branton, Dr. and Mrs. Henry Roane, Miss Alice Roane, Dr. and Mrs. P. M. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Hunt, Dr. and Mrs. L. F. Green, Miss Martha Charlotte Green, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Ritchie, Dr. and Mrs. Marvin Green, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Laskey, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt, and Mrs. Allen Barksdale.

Vidalia Couple To Have Open House On Anniversary

Ferriday, La., Feb. 8.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Walter McCrea of Vidalia will be held on Sunday Feb. 10 at their home and open house will be held between the hours of three and six o'clock at which time hundreds of their friends and relations are invited to attend to offer to them congratulations.

Mr. McCrea's sister, Mrs. S. A. Dolineck of Brooklyn, New York, joined her nephew Mr. Laymon Cargile, Jr., in Richmond, Virginia, and they motored to Vidalia to be with Mr. and Mrs. McCrea on this auspicious occasion. Their grandson, Laymon Cargile, Jr., and other relatives will also attend.

All family connections and friends are cordially invited through this medium to attend as formal invitations will not be issued.

The United States is now the world's leading toymaker.

Garden Jobs For February

"Now is the time to fertilize azaleas and camellias," states Mrs. Mildred G. Swift. "4-12-4 can be used or you can get the specially prepared azalea and camellia fertilizer, that has an acid reaction. If you use 4-12-4 you may need some aluminum sulphate along with it. If the foliage is sickly yellowish color, you do need acid. Sprinkle the aluminum sulphate lightly over the soil as far as the bushes extend. Do not cultivate around azaleas as the feeder roots are near the surface. Pull the weeds by hand and keep a good mulch around them. Some good mulches are peat moss that can be purchased at your favorite seed store and oak leaves and pine straw that can be gotten from your yard or the woods. Be ready to spray for azalea petal blight if this disease was in your neighborhood last year. Dithane is recommended by our department."

The agent says it is time to plant gladiolus bulbs now. Plant some every week during February and March, so there will be a long season of bloom. Get some Montbretia bulbs from a neighbor. These multiply so fast any person who had them last year will have enough to divide.

"You can divide and re-set perennials which bloom after June, such as Shasta daisies. Do you have a few plants of the large improved varieties? Get a few plants this year. Next year you will have many. Remember all plants you set will respond to a good complete fertilizer, such as 4-12-4. Work the food well into the soil before setting out the plants," Mrs. Swift advises.

Here is a list of seed to plant now:

Sweet Alyssum, Chinese-Forget-Me-Not, Calendula; Indian Summer Hollyhock, Candytuft, Coreopsis; Corn Flower, Gaillardia, Gypsophite; Larkspur, Lobelia, Petunia; Phlox, Salvia (blue and red), Scabiosa; Snapdragon, Verbena, Early Cosmos; Calliopsis, Feverfew, Nasturtium.

Be sure your ground is well pulverized. Small seed cannot come through clots of earth.

The dodo bird, a large flightless pigeon that used to live on the island of Maritius in the Indian Ocean, became extinct during the 17th century.

Richard Ellsasser, Concert Organist, To Be Presented

Musical Program Sponsored By Northeast State Chapter Of Music Educators National Conference

Concert organist, Richard Ellsasser, will make his initial appearance in this city under sponsorship of the Northeast State chapter of Music Educators National Conference. The 24-year-old artist will be heard in Brown Hall auditorium Tuesday, February 12 at 8:15 p. m.

One of the prime objectives to which Ellsasser is devoted is the wish to "bring music back to the church." He recalls that all of the music of the great Johann Sebastian Bach was written and dedicated to the glory of God and first heard in the 17th and 18th century church.

Ellsasser's first active contact with the church came when he joined a boys' choir at Trinity Cathedral in Cleveland, O. It was there that he first entertained the thought of entering the ministry and that his genius at the organ began to be developed.

He studied for two years at Boston University School of Theology and is currently enrolled in the School of Religion at the University of Southern California. The musician has appeared as guest preacher in many pulpits throughout the country during his concert tours and is much in demand as a leader in church music conferences.

In 1945 Ellsasser worked with the Methodist Church, composing music for its national pageant, "Only the Valiant." For several seasons he has been official organist for the American Baptist Assembly at Green Lake, Wisconsin.

Ellsasser is in his fourth year as minister of music at Wilshire Methodist Church, Los Angeles, where he works in close association with the minister, Dr. Theodore Henry Palmquist, to present an integrated program in which music plays an outstanding part.

In addition to preparing and presenting great music for worship services, he offers a Sunday night concert series which draws audiences from all over southern California. His achievements in uraising the standards and widening the scope of music in church life have won international recognition for him and Wilshire Church.

The Review Club Meets With Mrs. J. C. Loftin

Two Biographies Of Southern Men Are Given At February Meeting

Mrs. J. C. Loftin extended a gracious welcome to members of the Review Club as they gathered in her home for the first meeting of February. The meeting opened with the reading of the club collect. Mrs. W. L. Mitchell, Jr., the president, made a moving tribute to Mrs. W. E. Leigh whose passing saddened the members of the Review Club. Mrs. Leigh was a charter member of the Review Club and one of those who set the high standards' which the club has sought to maintain.

Following a business meeting the club continued its study of the south in biography with reviews of biographies of Thomas Watson of Georgia and Edwin A. Alderman of North Carolina and Virginia. No two men offer greater contrast in personality, method, and achievements than they do. In their lives, the constructive and destructive forces at work in the south around the turn of the century stand in vivid contrast.

Mrs. J. P. Noel in her perceptive review of "Tom Watson, Agrarian Rebel" by C. Vann Woodward said in part:

"Dr. C. Vann Woodward has assembled as contradictory a set of facts as might ever be found concerning one person. A keen appraiser, a compassionate critic, he has frankly admired Watson's early deeds and judged sternly his later exploits. He is equally convincing in praising young Watson the Populist and blasting old Watson the anti-Catholic, anti-Jew, anti-Negro. Watson's gift of oratory betrayed him. It carried him very far very fast, and he was dazzled by its power. When he was no longer riding the crest, his resentment allowed hate to take over and completely engulf him to the extent that he could not think in any other terms. Woodward's biography is especially valuable for the manner in which it illuminates as well as the man, the political, economic and social factors of the period."

Mrs. W. L. Mitchell, Jr., gave a lucid review of "Edwin A. Alderman" by Dumas Malone. Malone presents a portrait of a Jeffersonian Democrat who was also a Wilsonian idealist. This biography of Edwin A. Alderman, distinguished southern educator, recaptures the spirit of indomitable optimism which commanded America before World War I. An outstanding executive and a brilliant orator, Alderman, was a lifelong friend of Wilson, and like Wilson enjoyed a successful career as a college professor and administrator. At the peak of his career he faced the tragedy of a nearly fatal illness, but his courage and vitality pulled him through and he returned to Virginia to make outstanding educational contributions until his death in 1931. This biography gains significance because it presents in sympathetic terms a man possessed of the kind of enlightened, intelligent Americanism which must prevail if the United States is to be saved from the maelstrom of hate, bigotry and ignorance which threatens to engulf the entire world. Aldermen served with distinction as the sixth president of the University of North Carolina, the second president of Tulane University, and the first president of the University of Virginia.

Present to enjoy a most profitable afternoon and a delightful social hour were Mrs. E. P. Cudd, Mrs. W. T. Davis, Mrs. A. T. Givens, Mrs. Durwood Griffin, Mrs. W. L. Mitchell, Jr., Mrs. J. P. Noel, Mrs. W. M. Inabnet, Mrs. Lea Thompson, and the hostess, Mrs. J. C. Loftin.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Next Saturday, February 16, is tree planting day at camp. How about it, Scouts and Brownies? Is your troop ready with a tree of your choosing? Has your troop planned to have a picnic that day, or a cook out? Will you look up the family shovel or trowel, put your name on with adhesive tape or nail polish and bring it with you? All set? Fine!

Mr. Ray Foster of the Brown Paper Mill has promised us a lot of pine seedlings, so there will be plenty of work for everybody to do. Work is fun when everybody does it, we know. Mr. Romero of the Forestry Department will be at camp at ten o'clock to show us how to plant the trees. Any girl have a Scout - Minded papa who would like to help? The more the merrier. Troops may take part as a whole or a carful can come or even an individual. Keep your fingers crossed and hope for good weather. See you at camp on Saturday!

Margret Anne Brady, scribe of troop 14 has let us in on the doings of this active troop. Seems the girls of the aforesaid troop are planning a Court of Awards for March 2 in conjunction with troop 28—sort of Big Sister idea which sounds good. Girls of troop 28 are ready to become First Class Scouts, while the sixth grade girls will reach Second Class rank.

Margaret Anne says the girls are bringing the family Christmas cards to the meeting to send to the cerebral palsy association for patients to use. Susan Wilson has recently become a member of the troop.

The travel bug has hit troop 14, it seems that they would like a trip similar to the one taken by troop 28 last year. They are talking it and are apt to come up with a brilliant idea any day now. Troop 28, incidentally, is going to range farther this year, planning a trip to Bellingrath Gardens, we hear.

Why don't all troops appoint a scribe to let us in on all their doings so we can share them with our readers?

We hear that among the enthusiastic circus-goers yesterday, were the girls of Brownie troop 3. Mr. E. L. Kitchens, father of a Brownie and husband of a leader, gave the girls the tickets. They must have been good Brownies to deserve such a treat.

Becoming intrigued with the idea of doing pottery, the Brownies of troop 15, Mrs. John L. Overton, leader, have spent three meetings at the Scout office where the girls have made little ash trays all by themselves, starting with a ball of clay and ending with the painting of an original design. Some of the grown ups who have seen the work of troop 15 have complimented the girls and their leader highly. The girls are now enthusiastically looking forward to doing pottery again, perhaps at day camp.

Don't forget Saturday!

TO INSTRUCT CLASS

Miss Iris Davenport, editor of Woman's Department of Farm and Ranch Southern Agriculturist will be at the Agricultural Building in West Monroe Monday to give a training course in making over hats.

WINNSBORO COUPLE CELEBRATE GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. B. D. Bennett celebrated their golden wedding anniversary at their home on the Liddiville road, Sunday, February 3.

Mr. Bennett and the former Miss Ada Lee Browning, were married in Mississippi on January 30, 1902, and have resided in Franklin parish for the past 40 years.

They have seven children; two sons - C. D. and J. Cedric Bennett of Winnsboro; five daughters - Mrs. G. W. Roberts, Monroe; Mrs. James McCalman and Mrs. Paul Smith, Jr., Homer; Mrs. P. L. Dark, Winnsboro, and Mrs. Homer L. Roland, Long View, Tex., and eighteen grandchildren. All the children and sixteen of the grandchildren were present at the Bennett home Sunday.

A buffet luncheon was served to all members of the family at noon and a reception was held between the hours of two and five in the afternoon. More than one hundred guests called during this time. The beautiful two - tier golden decorated cake was cut by Mr. and Mrs. Bennett. The dining table was covered by a hand crocheted cloth over golden cellophane paper with golden ruffles all around and a huge bow in front. On the center of the table was a beautiful bouquet of yellow iris. The golden theme of decoration was carried out throughout the dining room. Many flowers decorated every room of the beautiful home.

In the receiving line was little Miss Adair Smith, wearing an aqua evening gown, little Miss Joan McCalman, wearing a pink evening gown, Mrs. Paul Smith, Jr., and Mrs. P. L. Dark. Miss Linda McCalman in an aqua evening gown was in charge of the guest book. Presiding over the punch bowl was Mrs. Gene Allen of Baton Rouge. At the silver tea service was Miss Jo Ann Bennett. They were assisted by Miss Glenda Gayle Bennett and Miss Joellen Purtle.

Guests were served open face sandwiches and delicious cake squares decorated with golden numbers 1902 - 1952. Mrs. Julian Shipp and Mrs. Milton Albritton assisted with the serving.

In an adjoining room the many beautiful and useful gifts were on display. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett greeted their many guests and well - wishers here. Mrs. Bennett was becomingly attired for this special occasion in a black crepe suit, with a pink blouse and a corsage of golden carnations.

The Home Gardner Club Has February Meeting

Mrs. Euna Spielman Speaks To Members In Home Of Mrs. E. L. Hoskins

As most flower lovers are eager to learn how to successfully grow beautiful gladiolus, quite a large group of Home Gardener Club members gathered in the home of Mrs. E. L. Hoskins Tuesday, to hear Mrs. Euna D. Spielman speak on "The Gladiolus".

The gladiolus is one of the most popular and generally grown flowers. For several years it has been grown on a large scale as a commercial cut flower but, due to extensive study and research made by our Louisiana Experiment Station of L. S. U., information has been compiled for the home gardener so that at present most everyone is able to grow this particular flower with gratifying results.

Mrs. Spielman gave a resume of the material found, namely: how to select the best corms, or bulbs; when to plant; how to plant; how and when to fertilize and how to control diseases and insects harmful to gladiolus.

The speaker stated that now is the time to plant glads and the planting ends in March. It has been proven that corms planted in late January and early February produce better plants and more flowers. By actual experiment it was found that a corm planted February 15 produced 158 flowers, one planted March 15, 129 flowers, etc. Also, late bloomers do not last as long.

Mrs. Spielman also had slides to show the varieties, size and colors of the flowers, all of which afforded the members a most enjoyable evening.

Following roll call, committee reports, and a short business session, club members made plans for a silver tea to be held in the very near future. The president, Mrs. John A. Peters named a committee to have charge of the tea, Mrs. L. N. Copes to serve as chairman, assisted by Mrs. L. D. Rogers, Mrs. M. J. Hortman, Mrs. M. W. Montgomery, Mrs. H. O. Hartman and Mrs. Milton Ford.

Delicious refreshments were served to the following members: Mrs. Aline Banister, Mrs. C. R. Clay, Mrs. M. M. DeWees, Mrs. R. N. Dozier, Mrs. T. L. Firnberg, Mrs. Milton Ford, Mrs. J. A. Funston, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. H. O. Hartman, Mrs. M. J. Hortman, Mrs. M. R. Hausherr, Mrs. E. L. Hoskins, Mrs. Ertie Lampkins, Mrs. M. W. Montgomery, Mrs. Jewel McQuiller, Mrs. A. F. McMullen, Mrs. J. A. Peters, Mrs. Frank Reitzell, Mrs. F. C. Reynolds, Mrs. L. D. Rogers, Mrs. C. D. Smith, Mrs. L. A. Smith, Mrs. A. A. Tarpley, Mrs. G. C. Williams and Mrs. Frank Williams.

Hostesses for the evening were: Mrs. M. M. DeWees, Mrs. L. R. Harrison, Mrs. G. C. Williams, Mrs. E. D. Prentice, Mrs. E. L. Hoskins and Mrs. O. L. Hoskins.

Partial Moon Eclipse Scheduled Here Tonight

The month of February brings the year's first two eclipses and the only eclipse that will be visible in the U. S. This will be a slight partial eclipse of the moon, tonight, February 10.

It will be over by the time the moon is visible in the western part of the nation, but will be easily seen in central and eastern states.

The second is a total eclipse of the sun on February 25, and this will not be at all visible in the Americas. The path along which the total eclipse may be observed crosses Africa, Sudan, Arabia, Iran and Siberia.

The eclipse tonight will be visible at 7:03 p. m. EST which will be 6:03 p. m., Monroe time.

The maximum snowfall in the United States occured at Tamarack, Calif., in the winter of 1906-07. One drift measured about 74 feet deep.

Miss Iris Davenport To Give Training Course On Hats

Up-to-Dating Hats is the subject to be given in workshop at the agricultural building in West Monroe, Monday, February 11. Miss Iris Davenport, editor of women's department of Farm and Ranch Southern Agriculturist will give the instruction to home demonstration agents in northeast Louisiana and twelve leaders from Ouachita parish.

Miss Davenport writes regularly to more than 7,000 home economics instructors and home demonstration agents in the south and southwest, offering suggestions in many phases of homemaking. Her advice, counsel and regularly printed leaflets are in constant demand by these leaders as well as by the magazine's subscribers.

Miss Davenport brings to her readers both a scope and surety in interpreting personal and homemaking problems, gathered from long experience, thorough understanding, and genuine interest. An accomplished speaker, Miss Davenport is in demand by farm, college and civic groups, and by national, state and local organizations.

This accomplished editor will give an intensive training course in making over hats to the women attending. Cleaning, applying trimmings, blocking, washing, dyeing, sizing and finishing felts and straws are some subjects to be taught. Follow up workshops will be given in north Louisiana parishes by those receiving the training, so that hundreds of women will learn to change their last season's despairs into this season's delights.

Gray Ladies, Activities

January was a busy month for the Gray Ladies at St. Joseph Home. On the 14th a party was given for each guest whose birthday occurred during the month. Cake and soft drinks of their choice were served and corsages given to the ladies. On the 15th day of January the Gray Ladies conveyed a number of the guests to the election precincts in order that they might exercise their privilege to vote for the candidates of their choice.

Although the month of January provided its pleasures and activities for the Gray Ladies and guests, it also brought sadness to both due to the passing to their just rewards of three beloved guests.

During the month those guests requiring medical attention were conveyed to offices of the doctors of their selection, others who desired a little outing were given the privilege of automobile rides, and letters were written for a number of them to relatives and other individuals.

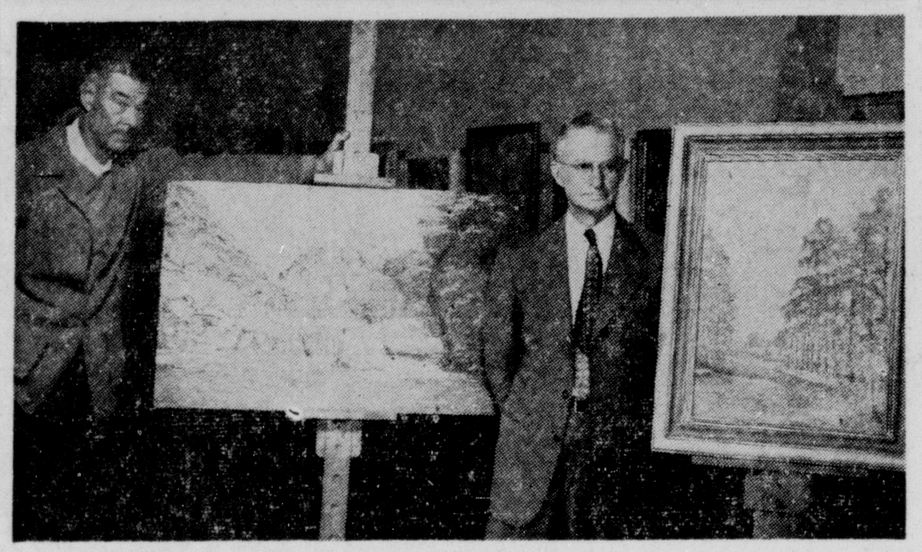

The active Gray Ladies volunteered at the St. Joseph Home are: Mrs. H. G. Reece, chairman; Mrs. William Weinberg, co - chairman; Mrs. G. M. Gleason, Mrs. Ray Updegraff, Mrs. R. M. Troy, Mrs. Milton Coverdale, Mrs. M. A. Petterson, Mrs. Charles Marx, Mrs. Meyer Glazer and Mrs. Ernest Strauss.

According to the July, 1950, census report, California had a population of 10,472,348.

Delta Kappa Pi Sorority To Have Sweetheart Ball

Annual Event To Be Held Saturday Night Will Be Preceded By Open House

Delta Kappa Pi sorority will again be host at it's annual Sweetheart Ball to be held this year, February 16, from 8-12 on the roof of a local hotel.

Preceding the dance, Mrs. T. O. Trawick, sorority mother, and Mrs. M. M. Hill, lady sponsor, will have open house from 7-8 at the hotel for the members and their dates.

Highlighting the dance will be a grand march at 10 p. m. An annual presentation of a loving cup to the most outstanding member will be presented at this time. In the past the loving cups have been awarded to Betty Bennett, Lorainne McClendon DeLoach, Peggy Tousaniau, and Mary Lou Trawick. The selection of the outstanding member is made by secret ballot and not announced before the grand march.

Music for the occasion will be furnished by Ben Burton and his orchestra. Following the dance, there will be a breakfast for the members and their dates in the home of Lloydell Walters at 1407 Emerson.

Rotarians Name Two To Go To Mexico City

Rotarians recently elected two outstanding members to represent the organization at the annual convention in Mexico City May 25-29. Chosen to represent the organization is Warren Taylor and Herbert L. Rosenhein. Selected as alternate is Harold W. Engstrom.

The men, who plan to make the journey by air, will also view sights of historial interest while there.

The first theater in America at Williamsburg, Va., was purchased in 1745 by a group of subscribers and given to the city to be used as a municipal court and city hall.

Junior Charity League To Sponsor Marionette Show

'Alladin And His Wonderful Lamp' To Be Presented At Neville Auditorium In March

The Junior Charity League of Monroe, which has a notable record of achievement of service and cultural projects, will again sponsor the Suzari Marionette show on March 14 of the year. The performance will be "Alladin and his Wonderful Lamp" to be given at Neville Auditorium at 7:30 p.m.

Believing that help rendered a child in the formative years will go far toward molding a useful citizen, the Monroe Junior League is continually expanding its scope to aid as many underprivileged children as possible. They are taking the funds derived from this project to use for these various aids to children of the community under twelve years of age.

Both young and old have enjoyed the past two performances of puppet shows given in Monroe by the Suzari Company. "Alladin and His Wonderful Lamp" again promises to be an outstanding and worthwhile show.

The committees serving on this philanthropic project include: Mrs. Corbin Turpin, general chairman; Mrs. Richard Pierce, ticket chairman, assisted by Mrs. Burt Sperry, Mrs. Aileen Guthrie, Mrs. Gerald Hedgecock, Mrs. Leo Terzia, Jr., Mrs. Jack Knowles, Mrs. C. D. Oakley, Jr., Mrs. Thomas Wyatt, Mrs. Joe Dixon, Mrs. Merton Abington and Mrs. Arthur Smith, Jr.; Mrs. James Larkin, school activities; Mrs. James Brothers, hand bills; Mrs. Cavitt Cookston, poster chairman; Mrs. Edward Hemphill, ticket collector; Mrs. Frank Breese, radio chairman; Mrs. Credille Calhoun, publicity chairman, assisted by Mrs. Durwood Griffin; Mrs. Fred Fudickar, monitor chairman; and Mrs. Ben Marshall, stage chairman.

O. P. H. S. Lionettes Entertain At Annual Football Banquet

Three Football Players Receive Awards At Recent Event

The O. P. H. S. football banquet, traditionally sponsored by the Lionettes, was held recently on the Virginia Hotel roof.

Over two hundred fifty invitations were extended to the Lionettes, football squad, coaches, band, cheerleaders, and members of the faculty. Those special guests receiving invitations were Dr. W. T. Bendel, Dr. F. E. McCarty, W. E. Lawson, J. C. Strickland, S. R. Braley, W. W. Ward, Lawrence Gibbs, Irving Zeidman, Paul Martin, and James Malone.

Before the banquet got underway, Ouachita's dance band rendered a medley of tunes. Frank Mobley, football player, gave the invocation and Jo Rhodes, Lionette president, gave the welcome.

Responses to the welcome were given by Spencer Edmiston, band; Bennie Franklin, football squad; and D. Z. Morris, faculty member. Special guests were recognized by Barbara Tarver, Lionette vice - president.

Gifts of appreciation were presented by Martha Hatchell and Imogene Noble, Lionette secretary and treasurer, respectively, to Miss Agnes Shaw, Miss Josephine McCranie, Mrs. Pearl Reynolds, Mrs. Colene Mann, and Mrs. Helen LeFevre, Lionette sponsors; Edward Cross, band director; and Jo Rhodes, president of Lionettes. The cheerleaders, band, and football squad honored their respective leaders with tokens of appreciation.

One of the highlights of the banquet was the presentation of awards to the football players. Frank Mobley received the best all around player award from Mr. Ward, Charles Dortch, the best linesman award from Dr. Bendel, and Bennie Franklin, sportsmanship award, presented by Ed Lockhart.

Music for the occasion included songs by the boy's ensemble and in conclusion, the group joined hands and sang the "Alma Mater" and "Auld Lang Syne."

A HAPPY NOTE OR TWO

By J. Paul Hewitt

Being a parent is a challenging occupation to say the least. How to guide one's offspring to the good things, being neither too firm nor too lax with discipline? How to make them strong enough to withstand the changing tide of life? How to give them courage and character to face the problems which will inevitably arise? Of course the answers to these problems are many and varied. There's no single thing to accomplish it all.

There is, however, an important thing which you can do to help create confidence and self assurance in your youngsters. And that is to provide music along with other things that give richness to the background. Music lends a keener zest for living. It challenges the mind and the body. It occupies youngsters through troubled times. It's a known fact that youngsters who are kept at their music (and they MUST be kept at it) . . . are ahead in their studies, are socially more adaptable . . . are superior in most every way. Yes, music and the gifts it gives are something which, come what may . . . nothing can take away.

We predict the Twin Cities will enjoy finer musical entertainment than ever heretofore. Don't miss Richard Ellsasser, Guy Lombardo and Oscar Levant—soon to appear.

By the way . . . you can have a piano in your home for a very small monthly sum . . . under our convenient rental plan. We'll deliver a piano immediately . . . and you can be sure it'll be a great day in the life of every member of your family. Come in and talk to us at HEWITT, INC., 216 Grammont. Phone: 2-1491.

Noted Philosopher To Address Delta Rho Delta Sorority

Dr. Carter E. Boren, University Of Houston Professor, To Speak To Sigma Members Monday Evening

One of the outstanding speakers of the season will be heard on Monday evening when Dr. Carter E. Boren, chairman and professor of philosophy and religion department at the University of Houston, will speak to members of Sigma chapter of Delta Rho Delta National Business and Professional Women's sorority.

The meeting will be in the Cameo Room at the Virginia Hotel at 8:00 p.m.

Dr. Boren has chosen as his subject "A Personal Philosophy For the Future", which is a most timely and interesting subject at the present time.

Dr. Boren is a native Texan. He was born in Troy, Tex. and attended Texas College of Arts and Sciences, Kingsville, Tex.; and received his A. B. from Texas Christian University, Fort Worth, later receiving A. M. from University of Chicago as well as D. B. and Ph. D.

During the World War II he served in the infantry 86th division. He is listed in "Who's Who." Has been associated with the University of Houston, Tex. since 1946 having served as assistant professor, associate professor and professor of philosophy and religion.

He is married to the former Alice Josephine Vanderslice and they have two lovely young daughters. Mrs. Boren is membership director of Houston's Omega chapter of Delta Rho Delta.

Dr. Boren is widely known as a speaker of great interest and scope. On Monday evening he will make his first appearance before the local chapter and members and invited guests are looking forward to a very enjoyable and enlightening evening with this outstanding authority.

NEWS FROM THE PUBLIC LIBRARY

In the month of January 18,751 people borrowed 24,718 books from the four branches of the Ouachita Parish Public Library. This was the largest circulation in the history of the library and was more than four times the circulation for January 1946 which was 7,418 books. This is a remarkable gain for a six year period. Of the books borrowed last month 10,763 were adult books and 13,955 were juvenile books. When the circulation is examined by branches it can be seen that the largest circulation was from the Bookmobile, where 11,649 books were circulated. 8,560 books were loaned from the Monroe Branch, 3,230 from the West Monroe Branch and 1,279 from the Carver Branch.

In the month of January 400 new books were added to the collection, giving the library a total book collection of 34,424 books. These new books deal with a variety of subjects and there is someone in the parish who needs every one of the new books.

First let's examine the new books of fiction. "Jefferson Selleck" by Carl Jonas is one of the most human books to appear for a long time. It is the story of a middle-class, middle of the road, middle westerner. He is a man whom you know and I know, for there are millions very much like him. In this book he tells the story of his life. It is very artfully done. Mr. Jonas is an excellent craftsman, and the story has a complete feeling of reality. It is a book that the library can heartily recommend.

Another new book of fiction is "Stephen Hayne" by Albert Idell. Stephen Hayne returned from the Civil War to find the once - rich farms of his beloved Pennsylvania Dutch country lying fallow and his people half starved, while in the hills above his valley immigrant Irish were blakening the slopes and fouling the streams with refuse from the coal mines. Everywhere there was poverty and unrest. Stephen Hayne could not accept poverty and defeat. He entered the mines and had a spectacular rise to power. This book ranges from the glitter of Philadelphia society to the grime of the mines, from the peace of the fields to the wild and futile march of the miners across the Pennsylvania mountains. It is a story rich in narrative, history and people.

Readers of mystery stories will welcome the addition of three new titles. "The People With Dogs" by Christina Stead, "The Urgent Hangman" by Peter Cheyney and "Top of the Heap" by A. A. Fair. Those who follow the stories of H. Allen Smith will welcome his new one "Mister Zip." "Jasmine Street" by Clifford Dowdey is the story of a southern family and their rise from poverty to a place of influence in the community. It covers the same period as "Jefferson Selleck" mentioned above and it would be interesting to compare the two.

In the field of non-fiction there are books for every type of reader. "Origins of the New South, 1877-1913" by Comer Van Woodward is another volume in the history of the South, which is being published by the Louisiana State University press. Each volume is written by an authority in the field and makes a most valuable contribution to our history.

Another book of interest to students of history is "A Pictorial History of the Confederacy" by Lamont Buchanan. All of us who have heard the stories of the Civil War from our grandparents are always vitally interested in anything about it. This book captures and preserves the spirit of the Confederate states of America.

Books that tell how to do a certain thing are always in demand at the library and several new ones have been added in the past week. "Tailoring for the Family" is an excellent book which gives explicit directions for this art. "How to Build Games and Toys" by B. W. Pelton gives complete diagrams for constructing many useful and attractive games and toys. Many people in this area are interested in building boats. They will want to see "23 Boats You Can Build" published by the Popular Mechanics Magazine.

Many people consult the library for books on various types of entertainment. "Parties on a Budget" by Louise Price Bell gives excellent ideas for entertaining at small expense. "The Handbook of Active Games" by Darwin A. Hindman answers many questions that come up about how to play different games. If you are planning to be a counselor at a girl's or boy's camp this summer, you will surely want to see "The Camp Program Book" by Catherine T. Hannett. It is a most valuable book.

These are only a few of the many new books in the collection of the Ouachita Parish Public Library. Are you a patron of the library? If not, you are missing a wonderful opportunity for pleasure and improvement.

Mrs. G. B. Wilson Honored At Surprise Birthday Party

St. Patrick Junior 4-H Club Wins Second Place In Contest

Lake Providence, La., Feb. 8.—(Special)—The St. Patrick Junior 4-H Club of Lake Providenc has been selected as the winner of second place in northeast Louisiana in the 1951 best community club contest sponsored by the United Gas, according to an announcement by Julius O'Quin, state 4-H club agent.

Chosen by officials of the Louisiana State University agricultural extension service on the basis of accomplishments in 1951, the St. Patrick Club will receive a $25 cash award from United Gas. Award will be made at the club's February meeting.

First place in the northeast Louisiana extension district and a $50 cash award went to the Drew Elementary 4-H Club of West Monroe. United Gas annually rewards the two outstanding clubs in each of the four extension districts under a program inaugurated in 1947.

Officers of the St. Patrick club in 1951 were General Lensing, president; Michael Ann Terral, vice-president; Martha Brown, secretary and Linda Gail Oswalt, treasurer.

Faculty local leaders for the St. Patrick Club was Sister Benedict, who now resides in Shreveport. Community leader included Mrs. J. E. Brown, Mrs. Thomas J. Sitton, Mrs. Brady Oswalt, and Mrs. O. S. Brown.

Scoring 400 points, the St. Patrick 4-H Club won first place in the junior division of the 1951 East Carroll parish 4-H Club achievement day celebration. The club was runnerup in 1950. A float entered by the club in the annual East Carroll parish 4-H club parade during 4-H Club week won a $10 first prize. Club members voted to donate the $10 to Sister Benedict, who had suffered an injury.

J. V. Maggio, a St. Patrick club member, won the title of king in the annual East Carroll 4-H Club "king and queen" contest. The club entered an educational booth at the Louisiana Delta Fair, Tallulah, and won six first places, two second, and four third awards in the various exhibits at the fair.

In commenting on the awards, W. E. Wilson, director of public relations for United Gas, said: "The records of those clubs participating in the best community club contest very plainly illustrates the important part the young people of our 4-H clubs play in the progress of Louisiana communities. We of the United Gas are proud to offer these prizes each year."

The Home Shift
By Mildred Swift

Racking your brains for ideas to keep the children happy on rainy days? I was working with Dot Breard last Friday. Daughter Sally was busy drawing pictures on the window pane smeared with glass wax. Dot said when the drawing was over a cloth whisked across the glass would leave it clear and shiny. Hats off to these young mothers! When we old heads see the young fry getting married we say "My! And she can't even keep house." In about a year we're asking them for menus and market orders.

Congratulations to Salvation Army on their new board president, Juanita Porter. Have you ever seen any one person who could do so much for the community? Since my space is necessarily limited to one page, I can't name all Juanita's many activities. She does serve on the agricultural extension planning committee for city work, we are proud to say. Jewel McQuiller told me years ago when she needed a worker to get the job done, she always picked the busiest woman in the parish — not the one who spent all her spare moments in the rocking chair.

Sky Lenard just called. The crippled children's board is desperately in need of wheel chairs. Do you have one you'll give or lend us, please? Call 2-0315. Somebody will be glad to pick up the chair. Don't let that chair sitting in your attic be a reminder that you're hoarding something that will make some child happier and more comfortable.

There are several charming, long established gardens in West Monroe. One of these belongs to Mrs. Clarence Faulk. I drove down McClendon yesterday just to see her camellias. Though the weather hasn't been very kind to our plants for the last two seasons, her camellias are exquisite. Miss Josie has put many hours in that garden and it has a charm all its own. Mrs. Faulk and our beloeved Miss Mary Mims will be in the Twin Cities the third week in March. A treat we always look forward to from year to year.

Well — did my telephone ring last Sunday and Monday after the girls read the Sunday "Shift." "You said, the tulip tree would bloom later in the spring. Mine is blooming now." Your tree that is blooming now is the purple or pink magnolia. I believe the botanical name is Magnolia Soulangeana, Many people do call this the tulip tree because the bloom is shaped like a tulip. The regular tulip tree bloom is yellowish green, and they are also shaped like a tulip. Don't you remember at the Welcome Garden Club flower show last year Gladys Dickerson walked away with almost all the blue ribbons using tulip tree blooms in several of them? The botanical name is Lirisdendron according to Mrs. J. Q. Graves.

Here are three dates you may want to remember: February 19 at 9:30 a drapery class will be held at the agricultural building; on February 25 I'll give "speed up methods in sewing" at a down town department store, all day; Thursday February 28 at 9:30 at the agricultural building "Clothes for the little girl" will be given.

In the very near future you can get a course in rejuvenating hats. We'll give you those dates later.

The Urania Home Demonstration Club Has February Meeting

Monday afternoon, the Urania Home Demonstration Club met in the social room of the First Baptist Church for their monthly demonstration and social. Mrs. Leon Brooks and Mrs. C. S. Bartley were the hostesses. Japonica blossoms, white spirea and pussy willow sprays were used in arrangements about the room. The president's table was centered with a bowl of white narcissi and yellow jonquils and a Valentine motif was used in refreshments and decorations.

The meeting was opened by a song and roll call was answered by describing the first Valentine received as a young girl.

Mrs. Lillian Holloway, secretary read the minutes of the last meeting.

The president, Mrs. H. K. Ray presided over the business session and appointed Mrs. Harry Nichols, Mrs. Quincy Cornwell and Mrs. Gene Buckley a committee to solict advertisement for the new year book. Mrs. Ray thanked the members for their cooperation in the "Come As You Are" coffee given last week in which $105.00 was collected for the March of Dimes fund. The meeting was then turned over to the vice-president, Mrs. Quincy Cronwell.

Mrs. Wendel Shultz read a paper on family life and Mrs. Harry Nichols, nutrition leader, gave hints on "Eat Well At Low Cost."

Mrs. Maxine E. Reeves, home demonstration agent of Jena gave a talk on first aid, telling of incidents in which the victim of an accident was either helped or harmed by the treatment given. She warned to clean out the medicine cabinet and to lable all poisonous medicines using a new fluorescent tape which glows in the dark. A demonstration was given on ways to shape a scarf into a turban for the head. Her hints for February were: spray peach trees for control of San Jose scale. (Check spray schedule for kind and amount of spray material). Prune fruit trees, peaches, apples, pears, figs, etc.) Check carefully for cold injury when pruning accordingly. Root fig and pear cuttings at pruning time. Sewing: Buttons sewed on with crochet cotton will rarely come off.

Mrs. Pinkie Leach assisted the hostesses in serving a delicious salad plate to the following members, Mrs. W. C. Procter, Mrs. J. H. Glidden, Mrs. Leon Holenshead Mrs. Harry Nichols, Mrs. Quincy Cornwell, Mrs. Jack Williams, Mrs. Bill Cobb, Mrs. Gene Buckley, Mrs Jim Carter, Mrs. Reeves, Mrs. Lillian Holloway, Miss Auleen Walters, Mrs. Wendel Shultz, Mrs. H. K. Ray, and two visitors, Mrs. Al Callahan of Corpus Christi, Tex., and Mrs. W. W. Cobb.

Underseas mountains 11,000 feet high were discovered in the Artic Ocean between the Orkney Islands and Spitsbergen.

Mangham P.-T. A. Has Meeting

The January meeting of the Mangham P-T. A. was opened by the group singing "God Bless America", with Miss Elaine Canady leading. Following the singing Mr. T. A. Judd, principal, led in prayer.

Mrs. Johnny Etier, president, presiding over the business session, had reports from the various committees. The group voted to assist with the buying of shrubs for the Mangham school; and Miss Virgie Evans, Mrs. Wm. Humble, Mrs. Bennie Boughton, Mrs. John Holdiness and Mrs. Ernest Jones were appointed to serve as nominationg committee for next year's officers.

Mrs. Aubrey Thomason gave a most interesting report on the district meeting held in Bastrop. Mrs. Thomason was accompanied by Mrs. R. B. Boughton and Mrs. Johnny Etier.

The members voted to sell candy, sandwiches, and coffee at the ball games.

At the conclusion of the business session, Mrs. Earline Sartor, program chairman, took charge. She introduced little, Miss Carolyn Thomason, who delighted the members with a musical skit.

Since the guest speaker for the night was called away due to the death of her father, Mr. T. A. Judd showed a film, "On Promoting Better Living Through the United Nations."

After the program, room count was taken. It was a tie between Miss Katie Talbert's seventh grade and Miss Eva Underwood's second grade.

ROBT. F. KENNON

TO THE PEOPLE OF OUACHITA AND MOREHOUSE PARISHES

When Judge E. L. Gladney of the Fourth Judicial District Court was elected as a member of the Court of Appeal I decided to seek election to the Judgeship which he would vacate.

Judge Gladney was elected to serve a six-year term as judge of the Fourth Judicial district, which comprises Ouachita and Morehouse Parishes, and there are approximately two years remaining of his unexpired term. I am now asking the people of the two parishes to elect me to serve those two years.

As you know, the special election to fill the vacancy has been called for February 19, the same date as the state-wide run-off primary.

I was born and reard in West Monroe and am a graduate of the Ouachita Parish High School and the Louisiana State University School of Law. For the past 15 years I have served as judge of the Ward Five City Court, a position in which I have naturally gained a great deal of experience both as a judge and as a student of the human frailties and controversies which are the chief business of a judge.

It has been said that our American way of life will never perish as long as we have honest, impartial and humane courts. I sincerely believe that is true. And at all times during my judicial career I have done my best to be a judge in whose court there is real justice.

I pledge to you that if you elect me, you will never regret it. I will at all times attend to my new duties as conscientiously as I have to those of the office which I now hold. I believe that a person in whom the people have enough confidence to elect as a judge has a special responsibility in the eyes of our Maker. I believe in the sacredness of our churches, our homes and the constitution of the United States.

In the short time left between now and the election on February 19 I will conduct an intensive campaign of personal calls. I humbly request all of you who believe I can serve you well to ask your friends to vote for me. Your help will be sincerely appreciated.

JESSE S. HEARD

Candidate for Judge, 4th Judicial District Court

Method Of Salvaging More Oil Still Being Studied

By Mac Ray Rasor

Austin, Tex., Feb. 9.—(AP)—They're searching for oil with "soap" and water at the University of Texas.

It's an old idea but still largely in the experimental stage. Research scientists Dr. L. O. Morgan and William W. Holland are seeking ways to improve on it.

With demand and price for oil steadily rising, the oil industry is fast becoming more conscious of the importance of draining every recoverable drop of oil from a field before abandoning it—a not-to-easy task so far.

After a well stops flowing of its own accord, experience has shown as much as 50 to 70 per cent of the pool's supply may still be in the ground. One method used to get some of that remaining oil is water flooding. Water is forced into the ground to push the oil to the surface.

The method produces as much as 20 per cent more of the pool's supply. It leaves about 10 to 30 per cent still unrecovered.

It is this 10 to 30 per cent that the U. T. scientists are after.

"We know that better recovery comes from adding to the water certain foamless detergents—much the same as those the housewife knows as a new type of 'soap'. Soap would probably do the same thing but it's too expensive," explains Dr. Morgan who is working on the basic chemical techniques of oil recovery.

Holland is studying the overall engineering problems involved. Others are assisting in still other phases of the project.

Wide scale detergent experiments in the field, Dr. Morgan said, have produced more oil and maintained pressure at a lower and more constant level for easier production. Another value claimed for the detergents is their tendency to combat well casing corrosion—a cause of considerable industry grief.

Major practical question is their cost—can they produce enough additional oil to justify their use?

In present experiments, anywhere from 10 to 1,000 parts of detergent are used to one million parts of water.

If he can isolate the exact chemical properties of the detergent which help the water to flow freely through petroleum-bearing sands, it might point the way to a new additive that would produce even more oil more easily and more cheaply than the detergents.

Dr. Morgan also seeks to isolate a chemical that holds water in the reservoir while the oil is produced. That would eliminate most of the cost of producing water with oil.

Armour and Co. of Chicago and Oil Recovery Chemicals Co. of Austin are financing the research on the project.

CRACKS AUSTRIAN WHIP

Vienna, —(AP)— Soviet authorities recently inspected Austrian schools in their occupation zone to check the progress of Russian language courses, a spokesman of the Austrian Ministry for Education said recently.

In schools where but little interest was found on part of the pupils to learn Russian or where records showed insufficient progress, the inspecting officers blamed the leader of the school and the respective teachers for sabotaging the education plans.

The Soviet officials also demanded the showing of Soviet films in the schools. Teachers were to be held responsible for a complete attendance at these performances.

La. Oil Production Record High In '51

Baton Rouge, La., Feb. 9—(AP)—Louisiana oil production climbed to a record 237,598,702 barrels in 1951 state conservation commissioner S. L. Digby said today.

The final figure, tabulated from official field reports, he said, was 10.4 per cent or 22,403,274 barrels higher than the previous year's production.

The record total represents crude oil and condensate.

South Louisiana spouted the most oil last year, a total of 190,954,994 barrels. North Louisiana recorded 46,643,708 barrels.

In previous years, total production was:

197,877,129 barrels in 1949.
187,109,800 barrels in 1948.

KENNON—

LOUISIANA'S NO. 1 DEADHEAD

AS A JUDGE OF THE COURT OF APPEALS, ROBERT KENNON RECEIVES AN ANNUAL SALARY OF $12,000, PLUS $100.00 PER MONTH FOR EXPENSES, OR A TOTAL SALARY OF $13,200.00 ANNUALLY.

There has been much discussion during this campaign concerning public employees, and the spending of tax money for the salaries of such employees who perform little or no work for the money they receive.

An employee who works and earns the salary received is a good citizen, and a worthwhile public employee. Any person who is connected with any governmental agency, and draws the taxpayer's money as salary, and does no work at all or does not earn his salary — is a parasite on the body-politic and should be eliminated.

Even now, the taxpaying public groans under the terrific tax load which presently exists, and often they are unable to meet expenses in the light of the continuing rising costs of the necessities of life!

Economy in government must be practiced – from Washington right on down to our states, parishes, and cities–in order that the existing tax-load be decreased, wherever possible, rather than increased!

Judge Robert Kennon, Candidate for Governor, has been talking about "economy in government". Since 1948 he has run for office three (3) different times! During the latter part of 1947, and the early part of 1948, he was absent from his duties as a judge of the Court of Appeals for a period of several months, and during this time did not render any service commensurate with the lucrative salary that he received as such a judge!

Later in the year 1948, Judge Kennon again absented himself from his duties as judge, and sought election to the United States Senate. For a period of several months he performed no judicial services whatever, and yet he continued to draw his full salary as Judge.

In September of 1950 Judge Kennon was again absent from the bench, neglecting the serious and manifold duties of that office – yet the salary continued!

Again in 1951, Judge Kennon has absented himself from the Bench, depriving the people of his district in Louisiana of his judicial services, handicapping and crippling the operations of the Court of Appeals – to satisfy and advance his own personal ambition to be elected to high office!!!

This "absenteeism" cost the state approximately $10,000 in salaries – and no services whatever were rendered.

Is this the proper description of a "deadhead"???

Is this the kind of "economy in government" Judge Kennon represents?????

Not only is this record of "deadhead" practice in the past – but Judge Kennon has plans for "future deadheading". Should the people be misguided into electing him as Governor – he will again neglect the duties of his office, and will launch out, in the spring of 1954, in opposition to Senator Allen J. Ellender, seeking to unseat and replace Louisiana's Senior Senator, who occupies the powerful post of Chairman of the Senate Agricultural Committee.

In all of Judge Kennon's activities–the people of Louisiana always lose.

HIT AND RUN

A 25 - year - old Monroe resident was arrested by Monroe city police last night and lodged in the parish jail on hit and run charges. Investigating officers reported John Knighten, Jr., 113½ Texas avenue, was arrested after he had allegedly made a sharp left turn onto Telemaque street and struck a car in the service station there. While officers were still looking for the driver of the car, another hit and run accident was reported. When arrested, Knighten admitted both of the accidents, police said.

The Monroe Lions Club is presenting Guy Lombardo and all-star revue at Neville Auditorium Monday evening, March third. Tickets on sale at Dew Music Co.

Kiddie Show Celebrates 2nd Anniversary Sat.

The Kiddie Show, sponsored by Gold Seal milk, celebrated its second year of existence Saturday with the regular weekly show at the Delta Theater.

The Saturday feature, which attracts a large number of children from the Twin Cities and Ouachita parish, has grown to be one of the most popular youth programs in this section of the state.

Each Saturday morning between 500 and 600 children will turn out for a variety show followed by a double feature motion picture.

The program, under the direction of Garland Shell as master of ceremonies, gets underway promptly at 10 a. m. The children are all eagerly waiting to see what thrills Mr. Shell holds in his bag for the day.

First comes games of numerous sorts. The master of ceremonies will be heard either telling a large group of youngsters to "throw your shoes in the center of the stage and we'll all have a scramble or get out your yo-yo's and let's see who is the champion."

Followed by this is a contest to pick a member of the audience as master of ceremonies for the next weeks show. Boys and girls line up on the stage and each takes the microphone, giving a spontaneous speal. The winner is picked by the audience, which gives a round of applause for the candidates and the one receiving the greatest ovation is declared winner.

Shell then chooses boys from the crowd to throw empty milk cartons into the audience and each child who catches a carton is given a bottle of chocolate milk.

The amateur hour comes next on the show with members of the young audience ascending the stage to show their special talents. On the program a young boy will sing, another will play a musical instrument and the various dancing schools throughout the cities will let their students perform.

The children, who are chosen by the audience as the best actors, will be given silver dollars.

Master of Ceremonies Shell related a story concerning a small girl, who after he had given his last dollar to a winner and stated that he needed a quarter to get home, shyly approached him saying, "Mr. Shell I'll loan you a quarter."

The show was founded by the milk company in an effort to give children of the Twin Cities something to do on Saturday's when they didn't have to go to school.

In the two years, since its founding, the Kiddie Show has grown tremendously and shows prospects of growing more each week.

Bob Thomas IN MOVIELAND

Hollywood, Feb. 9.—(AP)—It does not seem possible in the second half of the 20th century — but beautiful starlet Debra Paget is 18 and has never had a date.

Yep, it sounded unlikely to me, too, since Debra is such a sharp looking chick. But she doesn't think there's anything unusual about it.

"I don't know why people should be amazed," she remarked. "I have lots of girl friends who don't date until they are even older than I am."

I watched her doing a love scene with Cameron Mitchell for "Les Miserables" and she did a convincing job of it. But she assured me that her romance will be restricted to the movie sets.

"Right now the thing that interests me most is my career," she said. "I feel that I should devote all my time to it. If I had dates, they would interfere with my work, and they don't mean that much to me yet. Whenever I have some spare time, I like to spend it with my family. We have a very close family life, and we enjoy being together."

When will she find the time for romance?

"When I find the man who will mean more to me than my career."

Social notes: This week CBS feted the press at Romanoff's to announce the progress on the network's new television building, the first to be designed especially for the new medium. Slides and charts were displayed by the plant's architects, William Pereira and Charles Luckman, the latter the former soap salesman. It's a spiffy lay-out, all right.

The CBS television city is expected to be in operation by October. By that time the Pacific coast will be in the position to make its biggest threat to New York's waning monopoly of TV. . . .

Another notable social function was the luncheon given by Bob Hope for Jack Dempsey, who is playing a fight referee in "Military Policeman." Bob kept the sporting crowd in stitches telling about his brief boxing career under the name of Packy East. "I fought three bouts and would have won the third one," he remarked, "except that the referee stepped on my hand."

He added that Bing Crosby had been hurt by the slurs against his golf game made by an English paper. "Bing couldn't be here today because he is consulting his financiers," Bob remarked. "He may not make the loan this year." . . .

James Mason, currently in "Botany Bay" with Alan Ladd, reported that he has received a great amount of mail from his tempest in a teapot with Playwright William Saroyan. (Mason slapped Saroyan for being noisy in a movie theater.)

"Nearly all the mail has been from beleaguered movie fans who admired my stand against theater pests," he remarked. "There was only one dissenting vote, and that was an anonymous postcard."

Another result of the incident: Humphrey Bogart and Frank Sinatra welcomed him into the Sluggers' Club. . . .

Producer Walter Wanger's fortunes may be changing. This week the trade papers awarded his latest film, "Alladin and His Lamp," generally good reviews.

The word "Idaho" is a Shoshone Indian name of a purplo columbine, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.

PLAYING AT PARAMOUNT

Rod Cameron and Jane Nigh are a danger-defying duo in "Fort Osage," current attraction now playing at the Paramount for three days.

'Fort Osage,' Rod Comeron's Best Action Film To Date, At Paramount

Real Spirit Of Old West Captured In Film Of Adventure

The real spirit of the old west is captured at its adventurous best in "Fort Osage," Rod Cameron's latest starring picture for Monogram, which is the current fare at the Paramount theatre. From every standpoint it must be rated as Rod's best to date in the field of action drama. It is filmed in Cinecolor.

Every element required to provide thoroughly top grade screen fare is in the picture. The story is fresh, the players are deft and sure in their roles, the direction is brisk, the musical score adds impact and the photography is excellent.

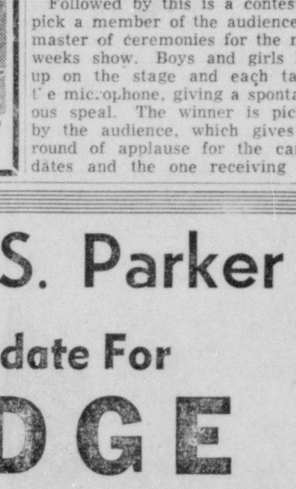

Cameron plays a frontier scout, friendly with the Indians, who is hired to lead a wagon train from Fort Osage to California. The start of the train is long over-due because of threats of Indian warfare. How Rod, single - handed, placates the Indians, routs out the villains, and finally gets the train rolling is the essence of the suspenseful plot.

The screenplay features lovely Jane Nigh as Cameron's romantic interest and she gives great warmth and understanding to the part. Morris Ankrum and Douglas Kennedy are outstanding in their roles as the heavies, posing as honest citizens of Fort Osage.

"Fort Osage" was produced by Walter Mirisch and directed by Lesley Selander, from a screen play by Dan Ullman, top writer of the outdoor type of adventure story. It is interesting to note that since "Fort Osage" was made, Mirisch was elevated to executive producer at Monogram and Allied Artists, companies with a subsidiary relationship.

'TEMBO' COMING TO PARAMOUNT

Story Of Trek Through Africa With Bow And Arrow Pictured

The William Tell legend is far from dead. In fact, Howard Hill, crack archer, whose recent wild game hunt in Africa has been captured on film and brought to the screen under the title of "Tembo," has out-Telled the famed William. It opens at the Paramount Wednesday.

Not only has Hill, with bow-and-arrow, shot an apple off a man's head, he did it three times, and then shot a prune off the same noggin. The assistant rebelled, however, when they wanted to try the stunt with a cranberry!

"Tembo," which is distributed by RKO Radio, is the account of Hill's trek through Africa's hunting territory. Armed only with a bow and arrow, he undertook to match shots with the world's famous hunters with firearms who have, for years, established records of near misses and sure kills. Hill set out to traverse the dark continent, hunting with the ancient weapon, and prepared to take his chances.

Hunting with bow-and-arrow demands undreamed of courage. First of all, the marksman must be comparatively close to the animal. Secondly, any wild animal can charge after an arrow is imbedded in a vital spot. A bullet can and does drop the beast in his tracks, but an arrow's effect is delayed.

Hunting with a gun permits the hunter go get another shot instantly if the first one misses: if an arrow misses a vital spot, the mechanics of drawing a bow, aiming, fixing a second arrow and sending it on its way is an elaborate procedure in the face of instant death.

Hill's record for speed is phenomenal. His official record is nine arrows in thirty seconds, although on one occasion the stopwatch made it 25 seconds!

"Tembo," produced and directed by Hill, and photographed entirely in Africia, in Ansco color, brings to the screen the amazing results arising from the application of an ancient sport to modern requirements.

The safari was organized for a dual purpose. First, it set out to find the headquarters of the fabled Leopard Men — said to cover themselves with spots and use steel claws over their hands in the hunt. Secondly, the expedition was to afford Hill the opportunity to confront the world's most dangerous beast in their native lairs, himself armed only with bow-and-arrow. Both objectives were accomplished!

The expedition wound its way across more than 10,000 miles of African territory, much of it dangerous because of the terrain, much of it teeming with wild life of all sorts — with killers and with beasts of peaceful intent. The trip required the better part of a year.

There were such incidents as the desperate rescue when Hill's assistant was entwined in the embrace of a body - crushing python, and Hill sent an arrow through the head of the reptile while it was dangerously close to the helpless human; the killing by arrow of a crocodile which had attacked a native, and could only be coaxed out of hiding by using the little brother of the victim as bait; the tense moment when a wounded and enraged lion, in which was embedded an arrow from Hill's bow, continued charging the archer who, incapacitated, was unable to retreat.

Four Pharmacists' Licenses Granted

Four persons in Northeast Louisiana were granted Louisiana pharmacists' licenses by reciprocity recently.

Those receiving licenses were Street McGuffey of Monroe; Robert Marvin Drake of Oak Grove; Lewis Lamar Stapleton of Monroe; Cecil Thomas Anderson of Marion.

J. C. Gross of Lake Providence, was given a gold certificate for having served 50 years as a pharmacist, it was announced by Eugene W. Vogt, secretary-treasurer of the Louisiana Board of Pharmacy.

NOW SHOWING AT THE TEM

Bob Hope and Hedy Lamarr have a hot time in old Tangier, as you'll see in Paramount's "My Favorite Spy," at the Tem Theatre. In this wild and wacky comedy Bob plays a burlesque comedian whose resemblance to an escaped spy launches the pair on a rib-busting series of adventures. Norman Z. McLeod directed and Paul Jones produced.

Sinatra Teamed With Shelley In Musical Coming To Tem Theater

'Meet Danny Wilson' Termed Action-Packed Musical Film

Frank Sinatra comes very close to portraying his real-life story in Universal - International's "Meet Danny Wilson," opening Friday at the Tem Theatre.

"Meet Danny Wilson," an exciting and unusual musical which cleverly combines nine song numbers, a tender love story and an action-packed climax, also stars Shelley Winters picked as a likely Academy Award winner for her role in "A Place in the Sun," and Alex Nicol.

Sinatra sings eight of the film's song numbers and many of them include the popular tunes that skyrocketed Sinatra to crooning fame almost a decade ago. Shelly Winters joins voice with Sinatra in the popular "A Good Man Is Hard to Find."

Frankie admits that many scenes in this film parallel early events in his own life when he was struggling for recognition as a singer.

He was born in Hoboken, N. J. Frankie's parents hoped that some day their son would become a civil engineer. As a youth Frankie attended high school in Hoboken and demonstrated ability as a singer as well as considerable athletic prowess.

He entertained an ambition to become a newspaper man while working on a truck delivering papers and later as a sports reporter for the newspaper.

But when Sinatra saw a Bing Crosby film one evening he made up his mind that he would become a singer instead of a journalist. He auditioned with Major Bowes and won first prize for singing "Night and Day." Later he was heard singing by Harry James and signed as a vocalist by that maestro. Six months later he went with Tommy Dorsey and his recordings of popular songs of that that time began setting marks for sales.

The singer made his first movie with Dorsey, "Las Vegas Nights," and followed with another film, after which he went on a successful tour by himself and started a radio program of his own. He then made a series of highly successful films and in 1950, obtained a release from the major movie studio where he had been under contract.

"Meet Danny Wilson" was directed by Joseph Pevney and produced by Leonard Goldstein.

Expert Shows Great Form In Winning

By Oswald Jacoby

Every sport has its enthusiasts who devote hour upon hour to the volunteer work that makes it possible for others to enjoy themselves. Dr. William Lipton performs this function for bridge players in the New York area.

Willy Lipton is also a first-class player, so very often he winds up winning the very tournament he has worked so hard to promote. In today's hand we see his Machiavellian touch bringing home a game that should have been defeated.

Opening lead—♠ 4

West opened the four of spades, and East held the trick with his jack. Dr. Lipton took the spade return with the ace and crossed to dummy with the queen of clubs in order to lead the four of hearts from the dummy.

The idea was artful but very simple. Lipton needed a heart trick to make sure of his contract. He wanted to make West win the first heart trick, if possible, for reasons that will soon be clear.

He knew that if he led hearts for the first time from his own hand, West would play low in order to let East win the first trick in that suit. East would be able to return his last spade, clearing the suit. West would still have the ace of hearts as the entry to his established spades.

When Dr. Lipton led the four of hearts from the dummy East made the normal (but wrong) play of the six of hearts. (He should have put up the king.) When declarer played the queen of hearts, West could do nothing to defeat the contract.

If West refused the trick, South would have the one heart trick that he needed. If West took the heart with his ace, he had no further entry to the spades. Dr. Lipton would be able to set up his heart trick without worrying about the menacing spade suit.

Q—The bidding has been: South, West, North, East, 1 Heart, 1 Spade, Pass, Pass, ?.

You, South, hold: Spade 2, Hearts A-K-J-9-4, Diamonds K-Q-8-5-3, Clubs K-7. What do you do?

A—Bid two diamonds. The hand is, of course, strong enough to warrant reopening the bidding. It is better to offer a choice of suits when you have two strong five-card suits than merely to re - bid the first suit.

Today's Question

The bidding is the same as in the question just answered. You, South, hold: Spade 2, Hearts A-K-Q-7-4-2, Diamonds K-J-5-3, Clubs K-7. What do you do?

Answer Monday

PASTOR MAKES VIOLINS

Washington —(AP)— A pastor, unable to afford a violin that matched his young daughter's talent, made his own and thereby a hobby was born.

The Rev. Clarence R. Ferguson, a Baptist minister here, started to read up on violins about the time he gave his 7 - year - old daughter, Mary Alice, a half - sized violing. She made her first public appearance four months later. In four years she won a five - state contest.

DR. MILLARD IS PULPIT GUEST

Will Conduct Revival This Week In First Presbyterian Church

Dr. W. John Millard, pastor of the Evergreen Presbyterian Church in Memphis since 1934, will conduct the revival services in the Presbyterian Church of Monroe from Sunday, February 10th through Friday, February 15th.

Dr. Millard modestly states that there is nothing spectacular about his biography and the less said about him personally the better, but he is one of the outstanding Presbyterian ministers of the south. He is a native of Memphis, Tenn., and received his public school education there. He graduated from Southwestern University in that city with the degree of bachelor of arts in 1920. Two years later he finished Louisville Theological Seminary with the degree of bachelor of divinity and in 1937 Southwestern conferred on him the honorary degree of doctor of divinity.

He is no stranger to the people of north Louisiana, for he was a pastor of the Belcher and Dixie Presbyterian Churches from January 1924 to October 1934, at which time he was called to the pastorate of the Evergreen Church in Memphis. He is remembered by members of the Presbyterian Church of Monroe because of the fact he supplied its pulpit for a series of revival services in November, 1942, and his return is welcomed by the many friends he made at that time.

Dr. Millard was elected moderator of the Synod of Tennessee in 1945 and has served on the home missions committee of the Memphis Presbytery for the past fifteen years. He is now vice-president of the executive committee and board of directors of Southwestern and is a member of the board of directors of Louisville Theological Seminary.

The services will be held twice daily and everyone is extended a cordial invitation to attend.

His subjects commencing February 10th and concluding February 15th, are: a. m. — 11:00 Sunday, The Master's Mission; 10:00 Monday, The Supremacy of Love; 10:00 Tuesday, Eyes that See; 10:00 Wednesday, Spiritual Landmarks; 10:00 Thursday: Life's Restorative; 10:00 Friday, All Things Through Christ; p. m.—7:30 The Marks of a Christian; 7:30 Worthless Living; 7:30 The Importance of the Commonplace; 7:30 The Church and I; 7:30 Truth and Consequence; 7:30 The Importance of Today.

MISS MARGARET NEFF

DESK CLUB WILL HEAR MISS NEFF

Director Of Oil And Gas Group Of Workers To Appear Here

Guest speaker at the February 12 dinner meeting of the Desk and Derrick Club will be Miss Margaret Neff, of Jackson, Miss., one of the regional directors of the association of Desk and Derrick Clubs of North America. Miss Neff, who is director of the region composed of Alabama, Louisiana and Mississippi, will include in her talk to the Monroe Club a report of the recent meeting in New Orleans of the national officers and directors of the association. The New Orleans meeting was attended by petroleum women from Los Angeles, Dallas, Houston, New Orleans and Jackson.

Another interesting feature of the February 12 meeting, which will be held at the Virginia Hotel at 7:00 o'clock, will be the showing of a technicolor film entitled "Offshore Drilling."

The Desk and Derrick Club of Monroe is one of many similar groups which have as their aim the bringing together, for a planned program of oil education, of women employed in the oil and gas industry and allied industries. Desk and Derrick Clubs are now located in 21 cities in Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, California, New York, Wyoming, Montana, Colorado, and Alberta, Canada, and boast a combined membership of more than 3,000 women.

One thousand Rolls-Royce jet engines are to be supplied from Britain to power 500 twin-motor U. S.-type trainers for the Royal Canadian Air Force.

DEFERMENT OF STUDENTS GIVEN

President Ropp Of Tech Issues Bulletin In Reference To Draft

Ruston, La., Feb. 9 —(Special)—Matters pertaining to the deferment of college students of service age are dicussed in a bulletin recently received by President R. L. Ropp of Louisiana Tech.

"Many students have been confused in differentiating between the I-S and II-S deferments. The II-S deferment is considered on the basis of class standing or qualification test and is discretionary on the part of the local board. It may be granted by the local board each successive year, thus enabling students who meet the criteria to complete their education. The I-S deferment is a "one-shot" proposition designed only to allow those students who do not have eligibility for consideration for II-S deferments, and who have never before received a student deferment of postponement, an opportunity to complete their current academic year.

"Whether a man is classified I-S or II-S, it is a deferred classification and not a postponement of induction. At the end of the academic year, the local board must reopen the classification to determine whether he qualifies for any classification other than I-A. Following the period the local board is considering his case, a student has the right, if he is not deferred for another year, to enlist in the service of his choice . . . and the right continues until he is ordered to report for induction."

QUESTIONNAIRE REPORT GIVEN

Compilation Of Results Is Made By League Of Women Voters

The League of Women Voters, non-partisan organization whose membership is made up of women from all parts of the city, has tabulated and summarized reports from questionnaires which were used by observers at the polls on election day.

League activity on election day consisted in representatives of the league acting as unofficial observers of polling places and practices and in giving election information by telephone to the public on the rules and procedures of voting.

It is not possible to estimate fully the effectiveness of this work until another election has been held to see if better conditions will prevail, but certainly the cooperation of the police jury in shifting a number of polling places and promising to provide better lighting and more booths and tables, and the cooperation of Mr. Burt Sperry in taking his time to hold a school for election officials if gratifying to the league.

Reports from the questionnaires together with reports from individuals of differing political faith living in the Twin Cities show the need for the following improvements:

Better lighting in polling places, both above the booths and over the commissioners' tables.

More polling booths (one for every hundred voters).

More tables and repair of the old ones.

Division of precincts where the number approaches 500 voters.

Selection of only those persons who are able to do the work required of election officials.

Instruction of election officials.

Instances of misunderstanding showed up in such things as voting of disabled voters and use of the affadavit, posting of instructions, use of sample ballots, disposition of ballot box key, return of the ballot box, voting of two people in one booth, necessity of an uninterrupted count, difference between duties and powers of deputies and commissioners.

The procedure of voting and for conducting elections is dealt with in great detail by the primary election law, the general election law and the voting machine law. When the law is followed scrupulously by election officials an honest election can result. As a voter, it is the citizen's responsibility to know election laws.

In summarizing the work the league's conclusions are: The courtesy with which the observers were received indicated that past acquaintance with league members merited respect. The information disclosed indicated greatly needed education on the part of commissioners and improvement of polling places.

Baptist Pastor Meet To Hear Rev. Leon Ivy

Rev. Leon Ivy, new pastor of the Temple Baptist Church in Monroe, will be the inspirational speaker at the meeting next Monday morning at 10 A. M. of the Ouachita Parish Pastor's Conference.

The meeting will be held at the First Baptist Church in Swartz, La. where the Rev. H. M. Roach is the pastor.

According to Rev. O. P. Bazer, secretary of the conference, a good program is in the offering and a good marjority of the Baptist pastors of Ouachita parish are expected to be in attendance.

The Swartz Church is in a building program, constructing a beautiful new church auditorium of brick. This church will serve lunch to all pastors in attendance.

Rev. D. W. Nix, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church and president of the conference will preside at the meeting.

ST. MATTHEW'S PLANS BANQUET

Will Be Held In Gym On Night Of February 25th

The annual banquet sponsored by the Athletic Association of St. Matthew's School will be held in St. Matthew's gymnasium on the evening of February 25. Detailed plans are being worked out by the various committees in charge to make this major event a complete success.

The St. Matthew's High School choir rendered the singing for the recent pontifical high mass offered in connection with the Sodality convention. Sister Aloysius, D. C. is directress of the choir.

Candidates for queen of the St. Matthew's Mardi Gras ball to be held in the school auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, February 26, will hold their second run-off on Monday, February 11. Positions of rank in the court will be announced at that time, and the three highest - ranking candidates will feature in a third run-off on February 22, at which time all ballot polls will be closed for queen. The title of queen will be announced the night of the ball. At class meetings held on Thursday, February 7, ways and means for supporting candidates for queen were discussed.

St. Matthew's students join with their Sisters of the faculty in deep prayer and sincere sympathy upon the deaths of two of the members of the Daughters of the Cross, namely, Sister Hyacinth, D. C., of St. Mary's School, Shreveport, and Sister Scholastica, D. C. of Gravelines, France. Sister Hyacinth was music teacher at the day - school conducted by the Daughters of the Cross, and Sister Scholastica was superior of the House in France.

JACOBY ON CANASTA

By Oswald Jacoby

Here's The Best Way To Score

By Oswald Jacoby
Written for NEA Service

"What method of scoring do you use in a Canasta tournament or in a progressive game?" several correspondents have asked.

The best method I know of is to start each round with a score of 1400 for both sides. In this way, both sides start with a required count of 50 points. As the round goes on, however, they go up to 90 and 120 points very rapidly.

A round usually lasts a set time, rather than a set number of hands. When time is called, everybody gets one more chance to play, and then the hand is scored even though perhaps nobody has melded out.

At the end of each round, the score of each side is counted in the usual way. Then the score of the lower pair is subtracted from the score of the winning pair. The plus; and the losers take the difference as a minus.

For example, suppose the Smiths have 4500 and the Browns have 3890 at the end of a round. The difference between the two scores is 610 on their score; the Browns write down minus 610 points.

At the end of the evening (or afternoon) the score for all the rounds is added up. You add up all the plus scores and subtract the total of all the minus scores. The pair with the largest net total is the winner.

It's a good idea to limit the score during any one round. You can't win more than 2500 points no matter what the actual difference happens to be. The losers carry forward the actual difference as a minus, but the winners get only 2500 points.

For example, suppose the Smiths have 4500 points, and the Browns have only 1600 points. The true difference is 2900 points. The Smiths get credit for only 2500; but the Browns have to write down minus 2900 on their score.

If the evening ends in a tie, it is customary to let the tying teams play one hand to break the tie. This doesn't take long, and most of the players crowd around to watch the tie-breaking hand with great excitement.

Some players like to limit the effect of red threes in such a tournament. They give credit for only 100 points for each three—without allowing 800 for all four. If this rule is followed, it should be announced at the beginning of the game.

Keeping score will be easy after you read Jacoby's complete Canasta Rules book. Send 15 cents with your name and address to Oswald Jacoby, Box 438, Times Square Sta., New York 18, N. Y.

Answer To Question No. 1

1. No. There are lots of darn good mates but the flawless, immaculate, impeccable, unblemished, consummate, super-excellent, transcedent, prize - winning, humdinger is too good to be true. As Florence Seabury says in her book, "Love Is A Challenge," "Love is indeed a challenge to all that is best in human nature. But it can never be realized if one is always seeking for perfection."

Answer To Question No. 2

2. Yes, consult a vocational counselor. As the magazine, "Changing Times" advises, first see whether your State Employment Office gives the General Aptitude Test of the U. S. Employment Service. Also write National Vocational Guidance Assn., 1424—16th St., N. W., Washington, D. C. for the nearest counselor. Beware of quacks who claim to tell you in two hours you're a whiz at something. It takes 5 to 15 hours for proper testing.

Answer To Question No. 3

3. No, but I'll risk these ill-chosen remarks. You lie on a couch and mumble - jumble whatever floats through your head. It's amazing how things come out of what Freud called your "unconscious." Some persons get worked up over things they had forgotten in their "conscious mind." Psychoanalysts say this shows these things unconsciously influence your behavior. It helps reveal your emotional history. In judicious, trained hands it is helpful and a great contribution to psychology. In untrained hands it is foolishness and dangerous.

SCIENTIST TO LECTURE HERE

F. C. Ayres Of Indianapolis To Give Christian Science Talk

Frank C. Ayres of Indianapolis, Ind., will lecture here on Christian Science next Tuesday evening, it was announced today by First Church of Christ, Scientist, Monroe.

Now on extended lecture tour, Mr. Ayres will speak in Ouachita Parish High School auditorium at 8 p. m. on February 12th. His subject is "Christian Science: The Revelation of True Safety." The public is invited.

Formerly a practicing attorney in Indianapolis, Mr. Ayres for some years has been a practitioner of Christian Science healing. The spiritual basis of safety will be the topic of his lecture.

Mr. Ayres himself was healed in one Christian Science treatment of a severe case of nervous exhaustion, in 1907. He withdrew from the legal practice in 1926 to practice Christian Science healing, and subsequently served for 12 years as Christian Science committee on publication for the state of Indiana.

HOME PRAYERS SOUGHT BY MEN

Last Sunday 100 Catholic men called on Catholic homes in Monroe asking them to sign a promise to say daily family prayer and the family Rosary.

The city was devided into 18 zones with a Captain in charge of each zone assisted by several crusade workers. All Catholics were asked to remain at home Sunday afternoon between two and four p.m. when these workers would call.

A Crusade pledge card had been prepared for every Catholic family with their name and address and each member of the family was asked to sign his or her own promise of daily prayer and the family Rosary. Each home was given a blue sticker for their window which reads "Rosary Family," each family was given a pamphlet explaining this great form of prayer and Rosary beads if they did not already have them. Two hundred Rosary beads were distributed.

The Crusade workers all reported that they were received most cordially and almost every family visited signed the promise to have daily family prayer in their home by saying the Rosary together every day.

We wish to express our deep appreciation to the Captains and Crusade workers and to all the families who cooperated so nicely to make this Family Prayer Rosary Crusade such a great success. 1500 signatures were obtained out of a possible 2000 Catholics in Monroe.

We owe a great deal of thanks to the Monroe News-Star and World for the wonderful publicity given this Family Prayer Crusade and wish to take this means of publicly thanking them.

May God bless and reward all who participated in this great program to promote family prayer and daily family Rosary.

THE FAMILY LIBRARY

It is sad to see a home furnished with radios, a television set, a library of records, and scarcely a book in the place. Parents in many homes of today seem to think that, with all the equipment for entertainment the children enjoy, they need no books. "Books cost so much."

Books cost very little compared to some other forms of entertainment. Today there are many good books sold for less than a dollar. Suppose one costs three to four dollars? Compare it to a movie. How many times can the book be read at no further cost?

Read it over and over? Of course. One reading of a good book will never get the heart of it. It takes more reading and still more for that. You know how you turn to the Bible, to the same chapter day after day, with increasing enjoyment and understanding? It is the same with any good book.

The children will read Mother Goose to tatters, the fairy tales will be read until the covers crack and the leaves fall apart, if they are handy. Even good textbooks are read again and again by the earnest student. And what is more, no child, from the beginning reader to the college student, can read a good book without being benefitted by it in intelligence and character and that is more than can be said of many of the movies and programs presented to our youth.

A book is always handy. It can be picked up and enjoyed without the routine of dressing and going out. It can be read for an hour or as long as one wishes while a program lasts for a few minutes and is gone, leaving scant trace. To be really lasting influence, the good program needs to be repeated. We don't always catch the meaning at first sight or hearing. But the book will wait patiently, tell the same story today and tomorrow, at the reader's convenience.

The habit of reading good books is one of the most helpful, the most useful children can acquire, but they are not going to acquire it if there are no books handy. Radio, the phonograph, television and the movies are wonderful, of course, but they never, never can take the place of a bookshelf loaded with good books.

The habit needs to be started early, with the Mother Goose group, and coaxed along through childhood to adolescence when the habit is set for life. the fairy tales how - to - do books, a simple history of the country, classics like Robin Hood, Treasure Island, Heidi, Bible stories, a dictionary, a set of reference books gradually acquired through the years will prove to be the finest family investment ever made. The family's books, their newspapers and their monthly magazines form a core of unity of mind and spirit. Not even the magic instruments of sight and sound can take their place.

When a seventeen - year - old boy disobeys, what should a parent do about it? Dr. Patri gives his excellent advice in booklet No. 301, "Obedience." To obtain a copy send 25 cents in coin to him, c-o this paper, P. O. Box 99, Station G, New York 19, N. Y.

GIRL SCOUTS HAVE ELECTION

Mrs. William Roy Is President; Other Officers Named

The Girl Scout Council at its meeting Thursday, elected Mrs. William Roy president, Mrs. S. C. Strausser, vice president, Mrs. Harrell Wedster, secretary, and Mrs. W. D. Bates, treasurer. Mrs. Roy whose Scout experience has included troop leadership and council membership as chairman of the camp committee, was a Girl Scout herself in New Orleans and is the mother of two daughters.

Succeeding Mrs. Roy as camp chairman is Mrs. Robert Easterling who has served as a member of the camp committee and who is a leader of troop 14. Her experience in Scouting includes membership as a girl. In 1949 Mrs. Easterling attended a national out of door training course at Camp Ouachita, the Little Rock Girl Scout Camp.

Mrs. Strausser, training chairman, reported on the Group Leadership course held in January. Total attendance for all sessions, she said was 89. She reported that training for leaders of fourth grade troops had been set for Wednesday, February 13, and that training for troop camping would be given in March.

Mrs. W. T. Davis, Juliette Low Chairman, announced that troops are working toward the anniversary celebration in March and are collecting pennies for the Juliette Low Fund.

Final plans were made for the annual meeting of the council, at which time the new officers take over and the annual report made to the public. It is also an occasion for recognizing leaders for their service and for honoring outsiders who have contributed time, money and effort to Scouting during the past year. Mrs. Davis, Mrs. J. E. Wheeler, and Mrs. Roy are working on plans for the meeting.

The date has been set for Thursday evening, February 21. It will take the form of a buffet dinner at Bayou DeSiard Country Club at 7:00 o'clock.

Mrs. Harrell Webster, serving the remainder of Mrs. Clay Albright's term, presided. Other members of the council present were Mrs. N. H. Huckabee and Mrs. George Fink.

FARMERVILLE

Mr. and Mrs. Garland Read of Dallas, Tex., visited their sister, Mrs. W. C. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yelton last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Tillman of Monroe were guests of Miss Olivia Barr Sunday.

Mrs. Loran Sweli of Bossier City spent last week here with her sister, Mrs. Carlos Malone.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cobb Terral of Lake Providence spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Tom F. Terral and Mr. and Mrs. Rannie Terral.

Mr. and Mrs. David Clinton spent the week end at Clay with Mr. Clinton's mother, Mrs. John R. Kendel.

You beam as you watch your youngster adventure into the world of music. Your heart sings along with the first determined notes, as you realize all the important advantages music can give him. A new field of self expression . . . a warm welcome to any group . . . a greater ability to concentrate. Yes, music builds character as it builds fine citizens for tomorrow. 386 PINTS OF BLOOD DONATED

Citizens Responded Eagerly To Call Of Bloodmobile Here

"In acknowledging the fact that some citizens who volunteered to give blood were unable to do so because of their physical conditions," Theo Terzia, chairman of the Jaycee blood for defense program said, "We greatly appreciate the expressed desire of these people to help and hope they will be able to donate when the bloodmobile next visits Monroe and West Monroe."

Donations totaling 386 pints of blood were made last Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday when local citizens visited the blood center set-ups. They gave blood for defense and to meet immediate needs of battle - wounded soldiers in Korea.

"The spirit of cooperation which is so characteristic of our community has been amply demonstrated by the individuals and groups who responded so generously to this humanitarian project. I can think of no greater reward for those citizens who donated blood than the thought that their gift may be used to save the life of one of our wounded in Korea," Chairman Terzia, said.

At the same time, Mrs. George Forman, coordinator of volunteer services for the project, paid tribute to the large staff of volunteers who assisted with the work in the temporary blood centers. The smooth manner in which the center was operated was largely due to the efficiency of the Red Cross volunteer groups, she said.

Mrs. Forman said, "We are most grateful for the large turnout of donors. It is gratifying to know that our citizens are back of this far - reaching program, which has been designed for the saving of lives. Blood collected here will be used exclusively for defense purposes as overseas shipments to the armed forces.

Chairman Terzia pointed out that plans are already under way for another visit to Ouachita parish. "The Jaycee blood for defense program is a continuous one," he said, "and it is our hope that donors will make it a habit to give a pint of blood at regular intervals."

YOU TOOK MY BRUSH

THAT'S MINE-- GIVE IT BACK

OUR CHILDREN ARE QUARRELING AGAIN -- IT GOES ON ALL THE TIME

HOW CAN WE TEACH THEM THAT BROTHERS AND SISTERS SHOULD LOVE EACH OTHER AND NOT QUARREL?

LET'S YOU AND I ACT AS THOUGH WE'RE HAVING A FIGHT

GOOD IDEA -- THEN THEY'LL SEE WHAT A HORRIBLE THING IT IS FOR MEMBERS OF THE FAMILY TO FIGHT

REMEMBER, DEAR, WE'RE JUST DOING THIS FOR OUR CHILDREN AND THAT I LOVE YOU

I UNDERSTAND NOW, DON'T HOLD BACK -- WE WANT THIS TO LOOK REAL

SO YOU USED MY FOUNTAIN PEN AGAIN -- HUH?

DON'T YOU DARE SHOVE ME!

QUICK, ALEXANDER, MAMA AND PAPA ARE HAVING A TERRIBLE FIGHT!

I CAN'T BELIEVE IT -- NOT OUR MOTHER AND FATHER -- THEY LOVE EACH OTHER

SEE FOR YOURSELF

TAKE THAT AND THAT!

BOO-HOO-HOO

THIS IS TERRIBLE

CRASH

STOP, MAMA, STOP!

YOU AND DADDY SHOULDN'T FIGHT -- IT'S NOT RIGHT

DADDY AND I WEREN'T REALLY FIGHTING -- WE JUST PRETENDED, SO YOU COULD SEE HOW TERRIBLE FIGHTING REALLY IS

I PROMISE YOU I'LL ALWAYS BE REAL SWEET TO MY SISTER

WE'VE LEARNED OUR LESSON, MAMA

THAT'S GOOD -- NOW HELP MAMA PUT DADDY UP ON THE SOFA

CHIC YOUNG

GEE, MOM, YOU'VE GOT A PEACH OF A RIGHT

I'D HATE TO GET IN A REAL FIGHT WITH HER

BRINGING UP FATHER

by GEO McMANUS

I WISH I COULD FIGURE OUT SOME WAY TO GET MAGGIE TO GO SOUTH FOR A WINTER VACATION - THEN I COULD GET OUT AT NIGHT FOR A CHANGE!!

DUGAN HAS A SWELL IDEA - JIGGS!!! TELL MAGGIE YOU RENTED YOUR HOUSE FOR A COUPLE OF MONTHS AT A BIG PRICE!!

-AND THEN GIVE HER THE MONEY TO TAKE A TRIP SOUTH!!

YOU'RE SMART - DUGAN - I'LL BET SHE'LL FALL FOR THAT!!

I'VE READ THAT LORD ITOVERUS JUST ARRIVED IN THIS COUNTRY - I'LL PRETEND I RENTED THE HOUSE TO HIM - MAGGIE'LL BE PROUD TO HAVE HIM AS OUR TENANT!!

JIGGS - THAT'S MARVELOUS! IT'LL BE AN HONOR TO HAVE HIS LORDSHIP OCCUPYING OUR HOUSE!!

AND I'LL MOVE TO A HOTEL - WHILE YOU'RE AWAY!!

I'M SURE LORD ITOVERUS WILL TAKE GOOD CARE OF OUR FURNITURE - MAGGIE!

NONSENSE! I WOULDN'T THINK OF LETTING HIM SEE ALL THIS JUNK!!

I'M GOING TO HIRE AN INTERIOR DECORATOR AND REFURNISH THE ENTIRE HOUSE FROM TOP TO BOTTOM!!

BUT - MAGGIE - THAT WOULD COST A FORTUNE!

IT'LL BE WORTH IT! -- AND ON SECOND THOUGHT - INSTEAD OF RENTING THE HOUSE TO HIS LORDSHIP I'M GOING TO INVITE HIM TO BE OUR HOUSE GUEST - AND WE'LL STAY RIGHT HERE!!

GEO McMANUS

DUGAN HASN'T BEEN AROUND ALL DAY - JIGGS - DO YOU WANT TO LEAVE A MESSAGE?

NO! -- I'LL WAIT! I HAVE SOMETHING FOR HIM - BUT IT ISN'T A MESSAGE -- AND I WANT TO DELIVER IT IN PERSON!!

TIM TYLER'S LUCK

AND THE MYSTERIOUS FELLOW, DRESSED LIKE A DOLL, IS DRIVING HIM!...

YOU KNOW... I HAVE A HUNCH THIS MYSTERY GUY IS MIXED UP SOMEHOW WITH THE "DEVIL DOLL" MR. BARTON WAS RAVING ABOUT WHILE HE WAS DELIRIOUS....

MAYBE WE'LL GET AN IDEA WHERE MRS. BARTON IS IF WE KEEP LOOKING THROUGH THESE PICTURES!

LOOK! WHAT D'YA THINK OF THIS ONE, TIM?

GEE... IT'S A PICTURE OF AN IDOL OR SOMETHING. DRESSED IN THE SAME OUTFIT THE MYSTERY MAN WEARS!

CONCEALED IN THE JUNGLE FOLIAGE, A SMALL FIGURE WATCHES THE TENT....

THE REST OF THESE PICTURES ARE NOTHING BUT ANIMALS, SPUD... LET'S GET GOING!

WAIT, TIM! LOOK!... UNDER THE TABLE!

IT'S A NATIVE DOLL, SPUD! DRESSED LIKE THE MYSTERY MAN!...

DON'T TOUCH IT, TIM! I'VE GOT A HUNCH!

®FLASH GORDON .... by Mac Raboy and Don Moore

"THERE HE IS!" DALE CRIES IN MINGLED RELIEF AND CONCERN. "PILOT, FLY DOWN AND RESCUE HIM." SHE ENFORCES HER ORDER WITH THE NEUTRON-BEAM GUN SHE HAS WRESTED FROM QUEEN MENTA. MENTA PRETENDS TO ACQUIESCE. "YES, PILOT," SHE SAYS, "DO AS DALE COMMANDS!"

IN HER CONCERN OVER FLASH'S PLIGHT, DALE RELAXES HER VIGILANCE AGAINST THE ENEMIES AT HER BACK. SUDDENLY THE RUTHLESS QUEEN SPRINGS FORWARD AND DALE IS HURLED BODILY OUT OF THE COCKPIT STRAIGHT TOWARD THE WHIP-SHARK'S THRASHING TENTACLES!

Copr. 1952, King Features Syndicate, Inc., World rights reserved.

MENTA SEES HER CHANCE FOR A COMPLETE TRIUMPH OVER THE HATED INTRUDERS FROM THE EARTH. TAKING OVER THE STEERING CONTROLS, SHE ISSUES A TERSE ORDER TO THE PILOT: "THROW THE OTHER EARTHMAN TO THE SHARK, TOO!" BUT YOUNG LINC IS RAPIDLY SHAKING OFF THE EFFECTS OF THE NEUTRO-RAY'S SHOCK.

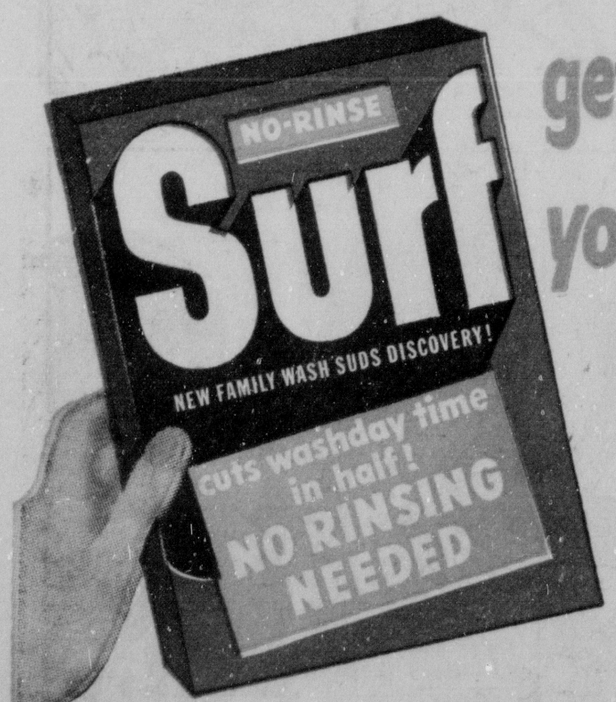

MUSTERING ALL HIS STRENGTH, LINC SPRINGS INTO FURIOUS ACTION IN A DESPERATE EFFORT TO RESCUE HIS FRIENDS. AS LINC AND THE PILOT FIGHT SAVAGELY WITHIN THE CRAMPED QUARTERS OF THE SCOUT-SHIP, THEY SHATTER THE INSTRUMENT PANEL, SHORT-CIRCUITING THE POWER BEAMS. THERE IS A SHOWER OF SPARKS AND THE CRAFT BEGINS A SICKENING PLUNGE!
